POST HORSE DUTIES.

Stamp-Office, London, October 30, 1829.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, by virtue of an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to repeal the duties upon horses let to hire for the purpose of travelling in Great Britain, and to grant other duties in lieu thereof, and to provide for letting the same to farm," the Commissioners of Stamps will put up the Duties therein mentioned, at the Crown and Anchor Tavern, in the Strand, on Friday the 11th day of December next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, subject to such conditions as will then be produced, to be let to farm at yearly rents, for the term of three years, from the 1st day of February next inclusive, in the several divisions or districts following, that is to say:

No. DISTRICTS.

1. North Britain.
2. Northumberland (with the town of Newcastle-upon-Tyne), Cumberland, Westmorland, and Durham.
3. Yorkshire (with the city of York, and town of Kingston-upon-Hull).
4. Lancashire, Cheshire (with the city of Chester), Derbyshire, Staffordshire (with the city of Lichfield, and the whole of Tamworth),
5. Lincolnshire (with the city of Lincoln), Nottinghamshire (with the town of Nottingham), Leicestershire, Rutlandshire.
6. Northamptonshire (except Wansford Inn), Warwickshire (with the city of Coventry, excepting Tamworth), Oxfordshire.
7. Worcestershire (and city of Worcester), Gloucestershire (with the city of Gloucester, excepting the city of Bristol), Wiltshire.
8. Norfolk (with the city of Norwich), Suffolk, Essex, Cambridgeshire.
9. Bedfordshire, Buckinghamshire, Hertfordshire, Huntingdonshire (with Wandsford Inn).
10. Surrey.
11. Middlesex (with the cities of London and Westminster, and the town of Barnet).
12. Kent (with the city of Canterbury, and the Cinque Ports), Sussex.
13. Hampshire (with Southampton), Berkshire.
14. Cornwall, Devonshire (with city of Exeter), Dorsetshire (with the town of Poole), Somersetshire (with the city of Bristol).
15. North Wales, and Shropshire.
16. South Wales (with Herefordshire and Monmouthshire).

The person declared to be the farmer of any district will be required to pay down immediately, in Bank notes, seven and a half per cent. upon the annual rent of such district as a deposit.

The farmer of each district will be required to give bond, with three or more sureties, to be approved of by the Commissioners of Stamps, in the penalty of half the annual rent, for securing the payment of the rent and the performance of the contract.

All persons intending to bid for any of the said duties are to notify their intention in writing, addressed to the Commissioners, at the Stamp-Office, Somerset-place, at least three days previous to the said 11th day of December next, signed with their names, stating the places of their abode, and specifying the district or districts for which they intend to bid.

And no persons licenced to let horses for hire, nor any one for their use, can be admitted to contract for any of the said duties.

By order of the Commissioners,

Charles Pressly, Secretary.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, and extend the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the fiftieth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for better assessing and collecting the poor and other rates in the parish of Lambeth, in the county of Surrey, and regulating the poor thereof;" and for other purposes relating thereto.—Dated this 19th day of November 1829.

Wm. Wood, Solicitor, Richmond-buildings, Soho.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the ensuing session of Parliament, for a Bill or Bills giving powers for constructing the following works; an arcade or covered way from Picket-place, Strand, to Serle-street; from Bishopsgate-street to Broad-street; from Lothbury to London-wall; to pass through the parishes of Saint Clement Danes, in the county of Middlesex; Allhallows, London-wall; Saint Stephen, Coleman-street; Saint Margaret's, Lothbury; Saint Bartholomew, near the Royal Exchange; Saint Peter Lepore; Saint Helena; Saint Martin Outwich, in the city of London.—29, Lombard-street.

F. Fortune.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for an Act for making, constructing, and maintaining an arcade, or covered way for foot-passengers, with all suitable and commodious erections, works, and conveniences attached thereto, or connected therewith, which said arcade, or covered way, is intended to commence the south-side of London-wall, in the parish of Saint Stephen, Coleman-street, in the city of London, and extending to or passing over through and into the said parish of Saint Stephen, Coleman-street, and also the several parishes of Saint Margaret, Lothbury, and Saint Bartholomew, by the Exchange, Saint Peter le-Poer and Allhallows, on London-wall, to terminate at or near a place called the Bank-chambers, in Lothbury, at the north-end of Bartholomew-lane, all being within the said city of London; and that it is also intended to obtain power by the said Act for authorising the taking and purchasing of lands, tenements, buildings, and other property within the said several parishes, and to vary, alter and divert the avenues, passages, and ways for passing over and leading through, and into some or one of them, and to abandon and discontinue certain parts of the said avenues, passages, and ways, and to complete the said arcade, or covered way, and all other necessary works connected with, or relating to the said undertaking.—Dated this 14th day of November 1829.

John Pullen, jun. Solicitor.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills for making and maintaining a wet dock or docks for colliers and other ships and vessels, with entrances, piers, locks, jetties, basins, reservoirs, cuts, roads, canals, wharfs, bridges, warehouses, and other works; also for altering and amending the Acts, passed in the fifty-second and fifty-sixth years of the reign of His late Majesty George the Third, for making a canal from the Grand Junction Canal, in the parish of Paddington, to the River Thames, in the parish of Limehouse; and the Acts passed in the twelfth year of the reign of George the Second, and the seventh, nineteenth, twenty-ninth, and forty-fifth years of the reign of George the Third, for the better preservation and further improvement of the navigation of the River Lee, in the counties of Hertford, Essex, and Middlesex; also for extending the term and enlarging the powers of an Act, passed in the ninth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled “An Act for more effectually repairing and improving the several roads called the Cannon-street-roads, the Commercial-road, the Horse-ferry branch of road, the East India Dock-road, the Barking-road, and the Shadwell and Mile End branch of road, in the counties of Middlesex and Essex; and for laying down a stoneway on the said Commercial, East India Dock, and Barking Roads;” and of the several Acts of the fifty-first and fifty-second years of the reign of His late Majesty George the Third, relating to the Archway and Kentish Town Junction Road; and of the Acts of the fifty-second and fifty-fourth years of His said late Majesty, relating to the Poplar and Greenwich Ferry and Roads; and for making and maintaining a turnpike road or roads from the Commercial and East India Dock Roads to the parish of Saint Mary, Stratford, Bow, in the county of Middlesex; and for building a bridge over, and altering the course, of the New Cut of the said River Lea; and for amending the Act, passed in last sessions, relating to the said last mentioned parish; and also for enlarging the powers and extending the jurisdiction of His Majesty’s Justices and Commissioners of Sewers acting in and for the limits of the Tower Hamlets, and the limits of Poplar, otherwise Stebunheath Marsh; and for imposing, altering, and increasing the tolls, rates, and duties for all the said several works and undertakings; all of which are intended to be made, constructed, or formed, or to go or pass into, along, or through the several parishes, places, townships, and hamlets of Saint Pancras; Saint Mary, Islington; Saint Mary, Stratford, Bow; Saint Leonard, Bromley, otherwise Bromley St. Leonard; Saint John, at Hackney; Saint Matthew, Bethnal-green; Christ Church; All Saints, Poplar; Saint Ann (commonly called Saint Ann, Limehouse);

Saint Dunstan, Stebunheath, otherwise Stepney; Saint George (commonly called Saint George in the East); Saint Paul, Shadwell; Saint John of Wapping (otherwise called Saint John, at Wapping); Saint Mary Matfellow, otherwise Whitechapel; Saint Botolph, Aldgate; the precinct of Wellclose; the hamlet of Mile End Old Town; and the hamlet of Ratcliff, all in the county of Middlesex.—Dated this 7th day of November 1829.

*William Baker, Solicitor, Limehouse, or
No. 5, Nicholas-lane, Lombard-street, London.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for removing the market at present held for the sale of hay and straw, in a certain street called the Haymarket, in the parishes of Saint Martin in the Fields and Saint James, within the liberty of Westminster, in the county of Middlesex; and for repealing a certain Act, passed in the eighth and ninth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Third, intituled “An Act for paving and regulating the Haymarket, in the parishes of Saint Martin in the Fields and Saint James, within the liberty of Westminster;” and a certain other Act, passed in the thirty-first year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled “An Act to ascertain the weight of trusses of straw, and to punish deceits in the sale of hay and straw in trusses, in London and within the weekly bills of mortality, and within the distance of thirty miles thereof; and to prevent common salesmen of hay and straw from buying the same on their own account to sell again; and also to restrain salesmen, brokers, or factors in cattle, from buying on their own account to sell again any live cattle, in London or within the weekly bills of mortality, or which are driving up thereto;” and a certain other Act, passed in the thirty-sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled “An Act to regulate the buying and selling of hay and straw; and for repealing so much of two Acts, made in the second year of the reign of King William and Queen Mary, and in the thirty-first year of the reign of King George the Second, as relate to the buying and selling of hay and straw within the limits therein mentioned;” so far as the said Acts, or either of them, relate to or affect the said market, called the Haymarket; and for establishing markets within the areas of those three several pieces or parcels of open ground or squares, known by the respective names of York-market, Clarence-market, and Cumberland-market, or any or either of them, situate in the parish of Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, for the sale of hay, corn, straw, and other agricultural produce, fish, poultry, meat, and other animal food, fruit, herbs, flowers, plants, and other vegetable produce, and of all other articles, matters, and things, which are usually sold in public markets: and in such Bill it is intended that powers shall be inserted for appointing bailiffs, collectors, and other officers for preserving order and regularity; and for levying and collecting certain tolls and duties from persons exposing any commodity for sale in such intended markets; and also for making such alterations in the before-mentioned open spaces of ground or squares; and for erecting such buildings thereon as may be deemed necessary or desirable for the purposes of a public market or markets.—November 14, 1829.

By order of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, Green, Pemberton, and Crawley, Salisbury-square.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for paving, lighting (by gas or otherwise), cleansing, watering, watching, and repairing such parts of Great Dover-street, Trinity-street, Trinity-square, and the several highways, roads, streets, lanes, courts, markets, passages, and places leading out thereof or abutting thereon or adjacent thereto, all within the parishes of Saint Mary, Newington, and Saint George the Martyr, Southwark, in the county of Surrey, as do not now fall within the powers and provisions of the several Acts of Parliament hereafter mentioned, or some or one of them (that is to say), an Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for paving the streets and lanes within the town and borough of Southwark and certain parts adjacent, in the county of Surrey, and for cleansing, lighting, and watching the same, and also the courts, yards, alleys, and passages adjoining thereto, and for preventing annoyances therein," an Act afterwards passed in the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for altering and amending an Act, passed in the sixth year of His present Majesty, for paving the streets and lanes within the borough of Southwark and certain parts adjacent, in the county of Surrey, and for cleansing, lighting, and watching the same, and also the courts, yards, alleys, and passages adjoining thereto, and for preventing annoyances therein, so far as the same relates to the west division thereof, as therein mentioned;" also another Act, passed during the reign of His said late Majesty (that is to say) in the year one thousand eight hundred and twelve, intituled "An Act for paving the footpaths, and for lighting and watching that part of the Kent-street-road, which leads from Kent-street-end, unto the bridge next immediately below the Greenman turnpike, situated within the parish of Saint George the Martyr, Southwark, in the county of Surrey, and certain public streets, squares, lanes, passages, and places communicating therewith, respectively situated within the said parish, or within the parishes of Saint Mary Magdalen, Bermondsey, and Saint Mary, Newington, adjoining thereto, and for removing and preventing encroachments and annoyances therein;" and for vesting the sole management and controul thereof in Commissioners to be appointed by the said intended Act; and that it is intended to obtain power for the raising of money for the several purposes of the said intended Act, by rates or assessments upon the proprietors and occupiers of premises within the limits of the said intended Act, or by some other means to be provided by the said intended Act.—Dated this 14th day of November 1829.

John Cruckshank, No. 9, King's Arms-yard,
Coleman-street, Solicitor to the Bill.

St. Katharine Docks.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session thereof, for leave to bring in a Bill to amend, alter, and enlarge the powers and provisions of two several Acts, one passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for making and constructing certain wet docks, warehouses, and other works, in the parish of Saint Botolph Without, Aldgate, and in the parish or precinct of Saint Katharine, near the Tower of London, in the county of Middlesex;" and the other, passed in the tenth year of the reign of His said present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled 'An Act for making and constructing certain wet docks, warehouses, and other works, in the parish of Saint Botolph Without, Aldgate, and in the parish or precinct of Saint Katharine, near the Tower of London, in the county of Middlesex,' and for extending the powers and provisions of the said Act."—Dated this 14th day of November 1829.

Wm. Tooke, 39, Bedford-row, Solicitor to the St. Katharine Dock Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to authorise the Governor and Company of the New River, brought from Chadwell and Amwell to London, to construct and form a reservoir or aqueduct near the course of the said River at Clay-hill, Enfield, in the county of Middlesex, and for that purpose to take and purchase lands, and to form and lay mains, sluices, channels, and all other necessary works communicating with the said New River; and also for altering, explaining, and amending an Act, passed in the twelfth year of the reign of King George the Second, intituled "An Act for ascertaining, preserving, and improving the navigation of the River Lea, from the town of Hertford to the town of Ware, in the county of Hertford, and for preserving and improving the said River from the said town of Ware to the New Cut or River made by the Mayor, Commonalty, and Citizens of London, and for enabling the Governor and Company of the New River the better to supply the cities of London and Westminster, and the liberties and suburbs thereof, with good and wholesome water;" for the purpose of explaining and better ascertaining the quantity of water to be taken from the said River Lea, out of Manifold Ditch, in or near Chadwell Mead, between the towns of Ware and Hertford, and the regulations respecting the same; and to authorise the said Governor and Company of the New River to take, procure, and obtain water from the said River Lea, at or near that part of the west bank of the said River where the parishes of Tottenham and Hackney meet, in the county of Middlesex, by means of pipes, conduits, or cuts to communicate with the said New River, at or about a place called the Dark Arch, in the parish or prebend of Stoke Newnton, otherwise Newington, in the said county of Middlesex, in order more effectually to supply water to the metropolis and other places; and also, for the purposes aforesaid, to take and purchase lands, and to place, erect, lay, construct, make, extend, and continue all necessary reservoirs, pipes, drains, aqueducts, steam engines, and other works in, into, or through the parishes, townships, or places following (that is to say) Hackney, Tottenham, Stamford-hill, and Stoke Newington, in the said county of Middlesex, or some of them or some parts thereof; and also to enable the said Governor and Company to make, construct, and lay all necessary sluices, pipes, tunnels, or other works for the purpose of conveying and diverting any waste or flood waters or cross streams into or under the said New River, wherever the same may be deemed desirable along the course thereof; which said River passes through parts of the several parishes, townships, hamlets, or places following (that is to say); Saint John Hertford, Little Amwell, Ware, Great Amwell, Saint Margaret's, Hoddesdon, Broxbourne, Wormley, and Cheshunt, in the county of Hertford; and Enfield, Edmonton, Tottenham, Hornsey, Newington, Islington, and Clerkenwell, in the county of Middlesex; and also to prevent bathing, or casting or emptying of any filth or unwholesome matter in and into the said New River, or committing any nuisance or annoyance thereon, or doing any damage to the banks, bridges, or works along or over the same; and also to make further provisions for the better government, regulation, and protection of the affairs and property of the said Governor and Company of the New River, or relating thereto, or to the supply of water to the metropolis and other places.—November 12, 1829.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills for making and maintaining an aqueduct, with feeders, tunnels, pipes, shafts, sewers, reservoirs, sluices, ways, bridges, engines, watch-houses, and other erections and matters, and all necessary works for the conveyance of pure water from divers springs in the parish of Wimbledon, in the county of Surrey, and upon or near to the line of the said aqueduct, to or near to the metropolis; which said aqueduct, feeders, and other matters relative thereto, will be situate in the several parishes and divisions of Wimbledon, Kingston, Roehampton, Richmond, Mortlake, East Sheen, Barnes, Putney, Wandsworth, Clapham, Battersea, and Lambeth, in the county of Surrey; and Saint John the Evangelist, Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, respectively.—Dated this 5th day of November 1829.

2, York-square, Regent's-park. Robert Vazie.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act for establishing a market within the district of Christchurch, in the parish of Saint Mary-le-Bone, in the county of Middlesex, for the sale of horses and other beasts and live animals, fish, poultry, meat and other animal food, hay, corn, seeds, grain, meal, flour, fruit, herbs, flowers, plants and other agricultural and vegetable produce, and of all other articles, matters, and things which are usually sold in public markets; and that it is intended to take power by such Act for the purchase and sale of lands, tenements, and hereditaments, for the purposes of such Act, within the boundaries or limits hereinafter mentioned, that is to say; within all that piece or parcel of ground which is bounded on the south by houses built in a certain street called New Church-street, on the west by houses built in a certain other street called Carlisle-street, on the north by houses built in a certain other street called Princess-street, and on the east by houses built in a certain other street called Salisbury-street; all which premises are situate within the district of Christchurch, in the parish of Saint Mary-le-Bone aforesaid.—November 7, 1829.

Wilson and Curtis, No. 12, Montagu-street, Portman-square.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act for amending, enlarging, altering, or repealing the following Acts of Parliament, that is to say; An Act of Parliament, made and passed in the tenth year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Anne, intituled "An Act for enlarging the time given to the Commissioners appointed by Her Majesty, pursuant to an Act for granting to Her Majesty several duties on coals, for building fifty new churches in and about the cities of London and Westminster, and suburbs thereof, and other purposes therein mentioned; and also for giving the said Commissioners farther powers for better effecting the same, and for appointing monies for rebuilding the parish church of St. Mary Woolnoth, in the city of London;" also an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the third year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act for providing a maintenance for the Minister of the new church near Bloomsbury-market, in the county of Middlesex; and for making more effectual an Act, passed in the fourth year of His late Majesty's reign, for empowering the Commissioners for building fifty new churches, to direct the parish church of St. Giles in the Fields, in the said county, to be rebuilt, instead of one of the said fifty new churches;" also an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for better governing and employing the poor, and making and collecting the poor's rates, within the parishes of St. Giles in the Fields and St. George Bloomsbury, in the county of Middlesex;" so far as the said several recited Acts of Parliament, or either of them, relate to the nomination, appointment, or election of Vestrymen and Churchwardens and Overseers of the poor, of the said parishes of St. Giles in the Fields and St. George Bloomsbury, or either of them; or to the appointment, nomination, or election of the Lecturer of the said parish of St. George Bloomsbury; or to the parochial customs, usages, bye-laws, and privileges now in force or use in the said last-mentioned parishes; or to the making, levying, ordering, dividing, collecting, or distributing, auditing, or allowing of the poor's rates therein; or to the appointing or regulation of officers, collectors, and servants, in anywise relating to the parochial affairs of the same parishes, in the said recited Acts mentioned; or to the due regulation of and compelling such officers, collectors, and servants, to account for all monies intrusted to, or to be received by them, or to the government, maintenance, and employment of the poor in the same parishes; or to the workhouse, or house of maintenance of the poor, now standing in the said parish of St. Giles in the Fields; and in lieu and instead thereof, or in addition thereto, to enact, make, and grant other provisions, powers, and authorities, for the future appointment, nomination, and election of Vestrymen, Auditors, and Churchwardens, and permanent Officers (to be substituted instead of annual Overseers), for the management of the poor; and for the future appointment, nomination, and election of the parish clerks and sextons of the said parishes; and for making, levying, ordering, dividing, collecting, distributing, auditing, and allowing of the poor's rates; and for the appointment of officers, collectors, beadles, and servants, in anywise relating to the parochial affairs of the same parishes, in any of the said recited Acts mentioned; and for compelling such officers, collectors, beadles, and servants to account for all monies, property, and effects, to be entrusted to or received by them; and for the better government, maintenance, and employment of the poor of the same parishes; and for the giving and granting to the Vestrymen of the same parishes the power to make and levy rates for all the purposes to which church-rates are by law applicable, and distributing the same, and the proceeds of the pew-rents and mortuary fees in the same parishes; and for auditing and allowing the accounts of the said church-rates, mortuary fees, and pew-rents; and for vesting in the said Vestrymen all property now applicable to the support of the almswomen of the same parishes; and authorising the payment of the expenses of obtaining this intended Act out of any rate or rates to be made by virtue of the same; and for all such other powers and remedies as may be necessary, with reference to the said several matters and things hereinbefore mentioned or incidental thereto.—Dated the 4th day of November 1829.

T. D. Robinson, 11, Hart-street, Bloomsbury.

St. Giles, Camberwell, Surrey.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the next Session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, enlarge, and render more effectual the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the 53d year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the third, intituled "An Act for better assessing and collecting the poor and other rates, in the parish of St. Giles, Camberwell, in the county of Surrey, and regulating the affairs thereof; and for enabling the inhabitants to raise money for repairing or rebuilding the parish workhouse, and purchasing ground for a cemetery or burial ground, and for other purposes relating thereto." And particularly to provide for the more effectually rating, assessing, and collecting the poor, church, and highway rates, in regard to houses or tenements, let at low annual rents, or for shorter periods than a year, or let out in lodgings, by a composition with or an assessment upon the landlords or owners thereof, instead of the tenants or occupiers; and that it is also intended by the said bill to take power to enable the parish officers, with the consent of the Vestry, to pay the parish constables out of the poor's rate, upon occasions when they are called upon to do extra duty; and also to authorise the appointment of a treasurer of the monies raised for the repair of the highways, who shall give security for all monies that may come to his hands; and also for the better regulating the duties of the surveyor or surveyors of the highways, in making and levying rates, by requiring him or them to call a Vestry for the purpose of fixing the number of days statute duty, or (in other words) the amount of the rate for the repair of the highways; and also to authorise the appointment of an Assistant Overseer, with a salary; and also for continuing the liability of the sureties of all persons called upon to give security, notwithstanding the annual or other re-election of such parties, and to enable such sureties upon giving due notice, to withdraw from their responsibility; and also to enable the parish officers to take securities, and to sue and be sued in their capacity of parish officers; and to authorise them, in case more than two rates shall be made in the course of one year, to pay the collectors a commission, not exceeding 6d. in the pound, instead of 4½d. as limited by the present Act; and also to subject the inhabitants of houses which have become occupied after a rate has been made to a proportionate part of the said rate; and for such other powers and provisions for such or other purposes as shall be requisite for carrying the purposes aforesaid, or other purposes, towards the better regulation and management of the affairs of the said parish into full effect.

Street and Gilbert, Solicitors for the Bill.

Camberwell and Philpot-lane,
London, 5th November 1829.

Saint James, Westminster.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills to explain, amend, repeal, alter, or consolidate the several Acts of Parliament following, that is to say, an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of His late Majesty King James the Second, intituled "An Act for erecting a new parish, to be called the parish of Saint James, within the liberty of Westminster;" also an Act, passed in the twentieth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to confirm an agreement made by the Rector and Vestrymen of the parish of Saint James, within the liberty of Westminster, for enlarging the church-yard of the said parish, and for other purposes therein mentioned;" also an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for the better relief and employment of the poor, and for cleansing the streets, lanes, and other passages and places, in the parish of Saint James, within the liberty of Westminster, and for enlarging the church-yard belonging to the said parish;" and also an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend an Act, of the second year of His present Majesty, for the better relief and employment of the poor of the parish of Saint James, within the liberty of Westminster; and another Act, of the first year of King James the Second, for erecting the said parish." And in which said Bill or Bills, provisions are intended to be made for increasing the number of Vestrymen of the said parish of Saint James, Westminster; also for regulating the election or appointment, and continuance in office, of the Vestrymen of the said parish; also for regulating the election or appointment, and continuance in office, of Governors and Directors of the poor of the said parish; also for the better conducting the proceedings of the Vestry, and of the Governors and Directors of the poor of the said parish; also for altering or repealing the existing rates, or making such other rates as may be deemed necessary for raising money for the repairs of the church, and for the relief of the poor, and for such other purposes as are authorised by the aforesaid Acts, or any or either of them; also for securing the due application of the pew rents, and of all monies authorised to be raised or which may be receivable for the purposes aforesaid; also for keeping the accounts of the Churchwardens, and of the Vestry and Governors and Directors of the poor of the said parish respectively; and also for electing or appointing Auditors of such accounts.

Wm. à Beckett, Solicitor.

No. 7, Golden-square, September 1, 1829.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act for repairing, widening, and improving Dean street, in the parishes of Saint Margaret and Saint John the Evangelist, or one of them, in the city of Westminster, and county of Middlesex; and for making a new road to commence at or near the Eastern end of Orchard-street, in the said parishes of Saint Margaret and Saint John the Evangelist, or one of them, and to pass from thence to a part of the Horseferry-road, in the said parish of Saint John the Evangelist, which is opposite, or nearly opposite, to Carey-street there; and also for repairing, widening, and improving Great Peter-street, in the said parish of Saint John the Evangelist; and also for making a new road to commence at or near the Western end of Great Peter-street aforesaid, in the said parish of Saint John the Evangelist, and to pass from thence to a part of the Vauxhall Bridge-road, in the parish of Saint George, Hanover-square, in the said city and county, which is opposite, or nearly opposite, to the Royal Standard Hotel there; and for the purposes aforesaid, or some of them, it is intended to take certain messuages, buildings, gardens, lands and hereditaments lying within the said several parishes, or some or one of them; and it is also intended to take power by the said Act to raise money for the purposes aforesaid, by levying a rate or rates, assessment or assessments upon the inhabitants of the said several parishes who are likely to be benefited by the said improvements and new roads, or to raise such money by some other means to be provided for by such Act.

Baker and Hodgson, 52, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields.

THE said Lewis Grant, with concurrence of Robert Bailie Lusk, late Bookseller, in Inverness, now in Greenock, Trustee on his sequestrated estate, and of four-fifths of the Creditors who have ranked thereon, has presented a petition to the Court of Session, to be discharged of all debts contracted by him prior to the 19th day of June 1824, being the date of his sequestration.—Of which notice is hereby given to all concerned.

Notice to the Creditors of the Right Honourable James Ear Fife.

Edinburgh, November 20, 1829.

THE Earl of Lauderdale having intimated that he is forthwith to resign the office of Trustee under the Trust-Disposition executed by the Earl of Fife on the 11th November 1825, and James Balfour, Esquire, of Whittinghame, the Trustee substituted to Lord Lauderdale, having intimated that he will not accept of the trust, notice is hereby given, that a meeting of the Creditors of the Earl of Fife will be held within the Royal Exchange Coffee-House, Edinburgh, upon Wednesday the 16th day of December next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, in order to choose a Trustee or Trustees for executing the purposes of the trust, in terms of the said Trust-Disposition. And notice is hereby also given, that it is proposed, at the said meeting, to appoint a Committee, with whom the said Trustee or Trustees to be chosen by the Creditors may advise upon all matters of difficulty and importance connected with the trust, and to authorise a proper allowance to be paid from the trust-funds to the Trustee or Trustees so chosen by the Creditors for executing the trust; such allowance to be fixed by the Committee appointed as aforesaid.

Notice to the Creditors of Andrew Reid, Merchant, Ayr.

Edinburgh, November 17, 1829.

PATRICK COWAN, Writer, in Ayr, hereby intimates, that he has been elected and confirmed Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said Andrew Reid; and that the Sheriff of Ayrshire has fixed Monday the 30th November instant, and Monday the 14th December next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon each day, within the Sheriff-Clerk's Office, in Ayr, for the public examination of the Bankrupt and others connected with his affairs. That general meetings of the Creditors will be held within the Office of John Wilson, Writer, Ayr, on Tuesday the 15th and Tuesday the 29th December next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon each day, for the purposes mentioned in the Statute. The Trustee requires the Creditors to lodge their claims, with affidavits, and produce their grounds of debt in his hands, at or prior to the said meetings; certifying to those who fail to do so, on or before the 8th of August next, that they will receive no share of the first dividend.

Notice to the Creditors of William Crawford and Company, Merchants, in Glasgow, and of William Crawford, one of the Partners of that Company, as an Individual.

Glasgow, November 17, 1829.

ALLAN CUTHBERTSON, Accountant, in Glasgow, hereby intimates, that he has been confirmed Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said William Crawford and Company, and individual Partner foresaid; and that the Sheriff of Lanarkshire has fixed Monday the 30th day of November current, and Monday the 14th day of December next, for the public examination of the Bankrupt and others connected with their business, in terms of the Statute, in the Sheriff-Clerk's Office, Glasgow, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon of each day.

The Trustee farther intimates, that a general meeting of the Creditors will be held in the Writing-Rooms of Alexander Morrison, 33, Virginia-Street, Glasgow, upon Tuesday the 15th of December next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon; and another general meeting, at the same place and hour, upon Tuesday the 29th day of said month of December, to name Commissioners, and for the other purposes mentioned in the Statute.

The Trustee hereby requires the Creditors who have not already lodged their claims, with oaths of verity thereon, in his hands, to do so on or before the said first meeting; with certification, that those who fail to do so, between and the 5th of August next, being ten months from the date of the sequestration, will be cut off from any share in the first distribution of the Bankrupts' estates.

Notice to the Creditors of Daniel Forrest, Hosier, in Edinburgh.

TAKE NOTICE,

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given, by entry thereof in the proper page and column of the book kept for that purpose at the Office of the Court, between the hours of Ten in the Forenoon and Four in the Afternoon, three clear days before the day of hearing above mentioned, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of entering such notice and of the said day of hearing; but in the case of a Prisoner, for the removal of whom for hearing in the country an order has been obtained, but not carried into effect by the Creditors, notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

N. B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-Street.

2. The petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, until the last day for entering opposition inclusive; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 76.

3. Notice to produce at the hearing any books or papers filed with the schedule, must be given to the Officer having the custody thereof, within the hours above mentioned, on any day previous to the day of hearing.

4. Opposition at the hearing can only be made by the Creditor in person, or by Counsel appearing for him.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a meeting of the Creditors of John Crawford, formerly of Sunderland, near the Sea, and late of Bishopswearmouth, in the County of Durham, Cabinet-Maker and Joiner, an Insolvent Debtor, who was lately discharged from the Gaol of Durham, under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the seventh year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend and consolidate the Laws for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England," will be held on Monday the 14th day of December next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Office of Mr. Joseph John Wright, Solicitor, in Sunderland, near the Sea aforesaid, to approve and direct in what manner, and at what place or places, the real estate of the said Insolvent shall be sold by public auction.

THE Creditors of Frederick Willcox, formerly of the Parish of Banwell, in the County of Somerset, then of Weston super-Mare, in the said County, then of the Parish of Berkeley, in the County of Gloucester, afterwards of Bristol, then of Banwell aforesaid, afterwards of Bath, in the County of Somerset, then of Banwell aforesaid, and now of the Town of Cardiff, in the County of Glamorgan, Mariner, an Insolvent Debtor, who hath been heard and adjudicated upon under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the seventh year of the reign of His present Majesty, for the relief of Insolvent Debtors in England, are requested to meet at the Office of Mr. W. T. H. Phelps, Solicitor, at Wells, in the County of Somerset, on Saturday the 5th day of December next, at the hour of Eleven in the Forenoon precisely, for the purpose of choosing an Assignee or Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Insolvent.

THE Creditors of George Prince, late of Augustus Wharf, Regent's-Park, London, and of Leeds, Yorkshire, (carrying on business in Copartnership with John Prince, senior, as Stone-Merchants, and also of the former place, carrying on business on his own account,) Stone-Mason, an Insolvent Debtor, who was discharged from the Fleet Prison, in January last, are requested to meet on Tuesday the 15th day of December next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Messrs. Makinson and Sanders, Solicitors, No. 3.
