TUESDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1829.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 7th day
of December 1829,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council that the Parliament be prorogued, from Thursday
the tenth day of this instant December, to Thursday the fourth day of February next.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Thursday the tenth day of this instant December; We, with the advice of our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued, on the said tenth day of this instant December, to Thursday the fourth day of February next; and We have given order to Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a commission for proroguing the same accordingly;
and We do further hereby, with the advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, that the said Parliament shall, on the said fourth day of February next, assemble and be held for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights,

Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said fourth day of February next.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, this seventh day of December, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, and in the tenth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day
of October 1829,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled
"An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," the several sorts of goods enumerated or described in a certain table therein contained, denominated "a Table of Prohibitions and Restrictions," are either prohibited to be imported or brought, either by sea or by inland carriage or navigation, into the British possessions in America, or into the Island of Mauritius, or are permitted to be imported or brought into those possessions under the restrictions made in such table; and in and by the said Act provision is made respecting the manner in which vessels and goods shall be entered and cleared inwards and outwards in the British possessions in America, and in the said Island of Mauritius; and for the prevention of smuggling in the said British possessions in America, and in the said Island of Mauritius: and whereas by an Act, passed in the seventh year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to alter and amend the several laws relating to the Customs;" and by an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the Customs;" and by an Act, passed in the ninth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the Customs;" and by an Act, passed in the tenth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the Customs;" the before-mentioned provisions of the Act, so passed in the sixth year of His Majesty's reign, have been altered and amended: and whereas by the said Act, so passed in the sixth year of His Majesty's reign, it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders in Council to be issued from time to time, to give such directions and make such regulations, touching the trade and commerce to and from any British possessions on or near the Continent of Europe, or within the Mediterranean Sea, or in Africa, or within the limits of the East India Company's charter (excepting the possessions of the said Company), as to His Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary; and that if any goods shall be imported or exported in any manner contrary to any such Order of His Majesty in Council, the same shall be forfeited, together with the ship importing or exporting the same; His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers so vested as aforesaid in Him in and by the said Act, so passed as aforesaid in the sixth year of His reign, order, and it is hereby ordered, that so much of the said Act, so passed as aforesaid in the sixth year of His Majesty's reign; and so much of the said several Acts of Parliament, so passed as aforesaid in the seventh, and in the seventh and eighth, and in the ninth, and in the tenth years of His Majesty's reign, as impose prohibitions and restrictions on the importation of goods into the British possessions in America, and the Island of Mauritius; and as relate to the entry of vessels and goods inwards and outwards in those possessions and the Island aforesaid; and to the prevention of smuggling there; shall be, and the same are hereby, extended and made applicable to His Majesty's settlements at Sierra Leone, and all other His Majesty's settlements on the Western Coast of Africa:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 16th day of July 1829,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that certain ports, therein particularly mentioned, in the island of Jamaica, and in the provinces of Nova Scotia, Canada, and New Brunswick, and in the island of Barbadoes, shall be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act; and it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America to be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act; and that every such port, so appointed by His Majesty, shall be a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same, in as full and ample a manner in all respects as any of the ports thereinbefore mentioned are free warehousing ports appointed by the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient, that the port of Saint John's, in the island of Newfoundland, should be appointed a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in him vested in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and appoint, that the said port of Saint John's, in the island of Newfoundland, shall be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Sir George Murray, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

Whitehall, December 7, 1829.

The King having been pleased to nominate and appoint the Right Honourable Stratford Canning to be a Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, His Majesty was this day pleased to confer upon him the honour of Knighthood, and to invest him with the ensigns of a Knight Grand Cross of the said Most Honourable Order.

Whitehall, December 7, 1829.

The King has been pleased to nominate and appoint the Right Honourable Robert Gordon, His Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the Sublime Ottoman Porte, and Knight Grand Cross of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order, to be a Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath.

Whitehall, December 2, 1829.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Robert Harvey Minster, of Coventry, in the county of Warwick, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

The Lord Chancellor has also appointed Thomas

Phippard the younger, of Wareham, in the county of Dorset, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, November 28, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about half past seven o'clock on the evening of Thursday the 12th day of November instant, Robert Harrison and ——— Pattison, game-keepers in the employ of the Right Honourable the Earl of Lonsdale, were keeping watch in a wood adjoining the village of Melkington, in the parish of Lowther, in the county of Westmorland, when they discovered four armed poachers, whom they pursued and had nearly overtaken, when one of the said poachers turned round and fired at and severely wounded the said Robert Harrison, who was unarmed, and is now in a dangerous and uncertain state;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired at and wounded the said Robert Harrison) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by the Earl of Lonsdale.

Whitehall, December 7, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Monday the 30th day of November last, Joan Turner, of the town of Chard, in the county of Somerset, was barbarously murdered in a field adjoining Avishayes-lane, near the said town;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the murder before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually perpetrated the said murder) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by the Rev. W. B. Whitehead, Vicar of Chard.

By order of Joseph Blair,

JOHN HOWELL, 21, Bucklersbury.

WHEREAS, a meeting of the Creditors of William Moore, late of Thorpe-Constantine, in the County of Stafford, Cheese-Factor, Seedsman, Dealer and Chapman, was held at the Rutland-Arms Inn, in Leicester, on the 26th of November 1825, pursuant to notice in the London Gazette, in order to authorise the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt to prosecute actions at law or suits in equity for the recovery of an estate at Balsal-Heath, in the parish of King's Norton, adjoining the Town of Birmingham, or to compound or agree to any matter or thing relating thereto; but one-third in value of such Creditors did not attend such meeting, and those who did attend were therefore incompetent, by law, to invest the Assignees with legal Authority; and whereas, at another meeting held by the major part in value of the Creditors of the said William Moore, in the month of December 1826, at the house of Mr. John Mould, of Clifton, in the County of Stafford, Farmer, pursuant to notice in writing, given to every individual Creditor of the said Bankrupt, it was resolved that the Assignees of the said Bankrupt might compound with Miss Charlotte Moore for the Bankrupt's interest in the Balsal-Heath Estate, and enter into an agreement in writing for the sale to her of the same; but as such meeting was not convened by notice in the London Gazette, it has been considered doubtful whether the resolutions entered into at that meeting were binding upon the absent Creditors, whatever they might be upon those who attended and assented thereto; and whereas the Assignees acted upon the resolutions at the last meeting, and entered into a contract in writing for a sale to Miss Charlotte Moore of the Bankrupt's interest in the Balsal-Heath Estate, and with a view to give facility to the contract, conveyed their right thereto to Trustees, to enable them to raise the purchase-money by a sale thereof; now notice is hereby given, that a meeting of the Creditors of the said William Moore will be held at the house of Mrs. Mould, in Clifton aforesaid, at Ten o'Clock on the Morning of the 30th day of December instant, in order to give their assent to or dissent from such sale to Miss Moore, and to express their approbation of such conveyance to the said Trustees, or disapprobation; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Nicholas Brown and Algernon Wallington, of the Castle and Falcon Inn, Aldersgate-Street, in the City of London, Coach-Proprietors, Carriers, Dealers and Chapmen, and Copartners, (trading under the firm of Brown and Wallington), are requested to meet the Assignee of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, on Wednesday the 30th day of December instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee continuing and prosecuting a certain suit in equity, commenced by the said Bankrupts before their Bankruptcy against Messrs. Frys and Chapman, and the Assignees under their estate, or to his compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise settling any dispute with the said parties; and on other special affairs.

Notice to the Creditors of M. and F. Pattison, Merchants, in Glasgow, and of Matthew Moncrieff Pattison and Frederick Hope Pattison, as Individuals and Partners of said Concern.

December 3, 1829.

HAMILTON M'LAREN, Accountant, in Glasgow, hereby intimates, that he has been confirmed Trustee on the sequestrated estates of the said M. and F. Pattison, and individual Partners foresaid; and that the Sheriff of Lanarkshire has fixed Saturday the 19th day of December current, and Saturday the 2d day of January next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon each day, within the Sheriff-Clerk's Office, Glasgow, for the public examination of the Bankrupts and others connected with their affairs.

The Trustee farther intimates, that a general meeting of the Creditors will be held in the Writing-Rooms of Mr. Alexander Morrison, 33, Virginia-Street, Glasgow, upon Monday the 4th of January next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon; and another general meeting will be held, at the same place and hour, upon Monday the 18th of January next, to name Commissioners, and for the other purposes mentioned in the Statute. The Trustee hereby requires the Creditors who have not already lodged their claims, with oaths of verity thereto, in his hands, to do so on or before the said first meeting; with certification, that those who fail to do so, between and 2d day of September next, being ten months from the date of the sequestration, will be cut off from any share in the first distribution of the Bankrupt estates.

Notice to the Creditors of Alexander Shand, junior, Merchant, in Aberdeen.

Aberdeen, December 2, 1829.

JAMES BLACK, Merchant, in Aberdeen, Trustee upon the sequestrated estate of the said Alexander Shand, junior, hereby intimates, that his accounts have been audited and approved of by the Commissioners; and that he has made up a state of the ranking and scheme of division, which will lie at his Office, Crown-Court, Aberdeen, till the 4th day of January next, for the inspection of all concerned, on which day a dividend will be paid to those Creditors who have lodged their claims, in terms of the Statute.

THE Creditors of Thomas Bulmer Dalton, formerly of the City of York, Baker, but late of the same place, out of business, an Insolvent Debtor, lately discharged from the Gaol of the said City of York, are required to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Insolvent, on Thursday the 24th day of December instant, at Ten o'Clock in the Morning, at the Office of Mr. Robert Henry Anderson, Solicitor, in Stone-gate, in the said City of York, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing and prosecuting a certain suit in equity for recovery of part of the said Insolvent's estate and effects.
