TUESDAY, DECEMBER 15, 1829.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 7th day
of December 1829,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued, from Thursday
the tenth day of this instant December, to Thursday the fourth day of February next.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued
to Thursday the tenth day of this instant
December; We, with the advice of our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued, on the said
tenth day of this instant December, to Thursday the fourth day of February next; and We have given order to Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a commission for proroguing the same accordingly;
and We do further hereby, with the advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, that the said Parliament shall, on the said fourth day of February next, assemble and be held for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said
fourth day of February next.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, this seventh day of December, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, and in the tenth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day
of October 1829,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year
of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled
"An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," the several sorts of goods enumerated or described in a certain table therein contained, denominated "a Table of Prohibitions and Restrictions," are either prohibited to be imported or brought, either by sea or by inland carriage or navigation, into the British possessions in America, or into the Island of Mauritius, or are permitted to be imported or brought into those possessions under the restrictions made in such table; and in and by the said Act provision is made respecting the manner in which vessels and goods shall be entered and cleared inwards and outwards in the British possessions in America, and in the said Island of Mauritius; and for the prevention of smuggling in the said British possessions in America, and in the said Island of Mauritius: and whereas by an Act, passed in the seventh year of His Majesty's reign, intituled
"An Act to alter and amend the several laws relating to the Customs;" and by an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the Customs;" and by an Act, passed in the ninth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to “ amend the laws relating to the Customs;” and by an Act, passed in the tenth year of His Majesty’s reign, intituled “ An Act to amend the laws relating “ to the Customs;” the before-mentioned provisions of the Act, so passed in the sixth year of His Majesty’s reign, have been altered and amended: and whereas by the said Act, so passed in the sixth year of His Majesty’s reign, it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders in Council to be issued from time to time, to give such directions and make such regulations, touching the trade and commerce to and from any British possessions on or near the Continent of Europe, or within the Mediterranean Sea, or in Africa, or within the limits of the East India Company’s charter (excepting the possessions of the said Company), as to His Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary; and that if any goods shall be imported or exported in any manner contrary to any such Order of His Majesty in Council, the same shall be forfeited, together with the ship importing or exporting the same; His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers so vested as aforesaid in Him in and by the said Act, so passed as aforesaid in the sixth year of His reign, order, and it is hereby ordered, that so much of the said Act, so passed as aforesaid in the sixth year of His Majesty’s reign; and so much of the said several Acts of Parliament, so passed as aforesaid in the seventh, and in the seventh and eighth, and in the ninth, and in the tenth years of His Majesty’s reign, as impose prohibitions and restrictions on the importation of goods into the British possessions in America, and the Island of Mauritius; and as relate to the entry of vessels and goods inwards and outwards in those possessions and the Island aforesaid; and to the prevention of smuggling there; shall be, and the same are hereby, extended and made applicable to His Majesty’s settlements at Sierra Leone, and all other His Majesty’s settlements on the Western Coast of Africa:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury are to give the necessary directions hereina accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

" and fifteenth years of the reign of His present Majesty, as authorises the Speaker of the House of Commons to issue his warrant to the Clerk of the Crown, for making out writs for the election of Members to serve in Parliament, in the manner therein mentioned, and for substituting other provisions for the like purposes:"

I do hereby give notice, that the death of William Chamberlayne, Esq. late Member serving in this present Parliament for the town and county of the town of Southampton, hath been certified to me, in writing, under the hands of two Members serving in this present Parliament; and that I shall issue my warrant to the Clerk of the Crown to make out a new writ for the electing of a Member to serve in this present Parliament for the said town and county of the town of Southampton, at the end of fourteen days after the insertion of this notice in the London Gazette.

Given under my hand, the 12th day of December 1829,

CHARLES MANNERS SUTTON, Speaker.

St. James's, December 12, 1829.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland has been pleased to appoint John Frost, Esq. to be one of His Royal Highness's Surgeons in Ordinary.

Whitehall, December 14, 1829.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto John-William Williamson, of Whickham, in the county palatine of Durham, Esq. second son of Robert Hopper Williamson (heretofore Robert Hopper), of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, Esq. Temporal Chancellor of the diocese of Durham, and late Recorder of Newcastle aforesaid, by Anne his wife, deceased, who was the only daughter of William Williamson, Doctor in Divinity, Rector of Whickham aforesaid, and sister and sole heir to William Williamson, of Whickham aforesaid, Esq. deceased, His royal licence and authority confirming to him the surname of Williamson, in pursuance of a clause contained in the last will and testament of his late maternal uncle, the said William Williamson; and also that he may testify his respect for the memory of his said late maternal uncle, by bearing the arms of Williamson; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, December 4, 1829.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed George Tallentire Gibson, of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

The Lord Chancellor has also appointed William Willnot, of the city of Coventry, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, December 7, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Monday the 30th day of November last, Joan Turner, of the town of Chard, in the county of Somerset, was barbarously murdered in a field adjoining Avishayes-lane, near the said town;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the murder before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually perpetrated the said murder) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by the Rev. W. B. Whitehead, Vicar of Chard.

Whitehall, December 15, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about one o'clock on the morning of Thursday the 10th day of December instant, the house of John Sims, a farmer, at Long Coppice, in the parish of Warblington, in the county of Hants, was burglariously entered by three men, one of whom secured the housekeeper, and prevented her from giving an alarm, and the other two proceeded up stairs, where they murdered the said John Sims, by suffocating him, and afterwards carried off various articles of plate and other property;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the murder before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the persons who actually murdered the said John Sims) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the inhabitants of the parish of Warblington, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

WHEREAS the Professorship of Botany, in the University of Dublin, will become vacant on the 16th day of January next, by the expiration of the period for which William Allman, Esq. Doctor of Medicine, the present Professor, was elected to hold said office; now notice is hereby given; that, pursuant to the Act of the fortieth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, an election will be held in the Board-Room of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin, on Friday the 12th day of March next, at the hour of twelve o'clock at noon of said day, for a Professor of Botany in said University.

The emoluments and advantages attending such Professorship arise from fees payable by every Student of the University at a certain standing; from fees of four guineas each from every Student who chooses to attend the entire course; and also from fees payable by those Students who may attend such courses of Clinical Lectures as the Professor shall have in his term to give at Sir Patrick Dunn's Hospital; in all amounting annually to an average income of about £400.

All persons intending to offer themselves as Candidates must send in a statement of their names, the places of their education, the Universities in which they have taken their medical degrees, and the places where they have practiced, to the Registrar of the College of Dublin, and to the Registrar of the College of Physicians, on or before the 6th day of March next, to the end that opportunity may be given to enquire into the merits of every Candidate.—Dublin, December 2, 1829.
