

Whitehall, December 8, 1829.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Alexander Wolston, of Eton, in the county of Buckingham, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, December 10, 1829.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Francis Stevens Smith, of Oundle, in the county of Northampton, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

The Lord Chancellor has also appointed William Willnot, of the city of Coventry, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, December 7, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Monday the 30th day of November last, Joan Turner, of the town of Chard, in the county of Somerset, was barbarously murdered in a field adjoining Avishayes-lane, near the said town;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the murder before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually perpetrated the said murder) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by the Rev. W. B. Whitehead, Vicar of Chard.

Whitehall, December 15, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about one o'clock on the morning of Thursday the 10th day of December instant, the house of John Sims, a farmer, at Long Coppice, in the parish of Warblington, in the county of Hants, was burglariously entered by three men, one of whom secured the housekeeper, and prevented her from giving an alarm, and the other two proceeded up stairs, where they murdered the said John Sims, by suffocating him, and afterwards carried off various articles of plate and other property;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the murder before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the persons who actually murdered the said John Sims) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the inhabitants of the parish of Warblington, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

WHEREAS the Professorship of Botany, in the University of Dublin, will become vacant on the 16th day of January next, by the expiration of the period for which William Allman, Esq. Doctor of Medicine, the present Professor, was elected to hold said office; now notice is hereby given; that, pursuant to the Act of the fortieth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, an election will be held in the Board-Room of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin, on Friday the 12th day of March next, at the hour of twelve o'clock at noon of said day, for a Professor of Botany in said University.

The emoluments and advantages attending such Professorship arise from fees payable by every Student of the University at a certain standing; from fees of four guineas each from every Student who chooses to attend the entire course; and also from fees payable by those Students who may attend such courses of Clinical Lectures as the Professor shall have in his term to give at Sir Patrick Dunn's Hospital; in all amounting annually to an average income of about £400.

All persons intending to offer themselves as Candidates must send in a statement of their names, the places of their education, the Universities in which they have taken their medical degrees, and the places where they have practiced, to the Registrar of the College of Dublin, and to the Registrar of the College of Physicians, on or before the 6th day of March next, to the end that opportunity may be given to enquire into the merits of every Candidate.—Dublin, December 2, 1829.

*Robert Phipps, Registrar of Trinity College,
David Brereton, M. D. Registrar to the King and Queen's College of Physicians in Ireland.*
