TUESDAY, DECEMBER 22, 1829.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 7th day
of December 1829,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued, from Thursday
the tenth day of this instant December, to Thursday the fourth day of February next.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Thursday the tenth day of this instant December; We, with the advice of our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued, on the said tenth day of this instant December, to Thursday the fourth day of February next; and We have given order to Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a commission for proroguing the same accordingly;
and We do further hereby, with the advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, that the said Parliament shall, on the said fourth day of February next, assemble and be held for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burgis of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said fourth day of February next.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, this seventh day of December, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, and in the tenth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day—
of October 1829,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His présent Majesty, intituled “ An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad,” the several sorts of goods enumerated or described in a certain table therein contained, denominated “ a Table of Prohibitions and “ Restrictions,” are either prohibited to be imported or brought, either by sea or by inland carriage or navigation, into the British possessions in America, or into the Island of Mauritius, or are permitted to be imported or brought into those possessions under the restrictions made in such table; and in and by the said Act provision is made respecting the manner in which vessels and goods shall be entered and cleared inwards and outwards in the British possessions in America, and in the said Island of Mauritius; and for the prevention of smuggling in the said British possessions in America, and in the said Island of Mauritius: and whereas by an Act, passed in the seventh year of His Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act to alter and amend the several laws relating to the Customs;” and by an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act to amend the laws relating to the “ Customs;” and by an Act, passed in the ninth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act to " amend the laws relating to the Customs;" and by an Act, passed in the tenth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled " An Act to amend the laws relating " to the Customs;" the before-mentioned provisions of the Act, so passed in the sixth year of His Majesty's reign, have been altered and amended: and whereas by the said Act, so passed in the sixth year of His Majesty's reign, it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders in Council to be issued from time to time, to give such directions and make such regulations, touching the trade and commerce to and from any British possessions on or near the Continent of Europe, or within the Mediterranean Sea, or in Africa, or within the limits of the East India Company's charter (excepting the possessions of the said Company), as to His Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary; and that if any goods shall be imported or exported in any manner contrary to any such Order of His Majesty in Council, the same shall be forfeited, together with the ship importing or exporting the same; His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers so vested as aforesaid in Him in and by the said Act, so passed as aforesaid in the sixth year of His reign, order, and it is hereby ordered, that so much of the said Act, so passed as aforesaid in the sixth year of His Majesty's reign; and so much of the said several Acts of Parliament, so passed as aforesaid in the seventh, and in the seventh and eighth, and in the ninth, and in the tenth years of His Majesty's reign, as impose prohibitions and restrictions on the importation of goods into the British possessions in America, and the Island of Mauritius; and as relate to the entry of vessels and goods inwards and outwards in those possessions and the Island aforesaid; and to the prevention of smuggling there; shall be, and the same are hereby, extended and made applicable to His Majesty's settlements at Sierra Leone, and all other His Majesty's settlements on the Western Coast of Africa:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

Whitehall, December 18, 1829.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Llewelyn Wynne, of Mold, in the county of Flint, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, December 15, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about one o'clock on the morning of Thursday the 10th day of December instant, the house of John Sims, a farmer, at Long Coppice, in the parish of Warblington, in the county of Hants, was burglariously entered by three men, one of whom secured the housekeeper, and prevented her from giving an alarm, and the other two proceeded up stairs, where they murdered the said John Sims, by suffocating him, and afterwards carried off various articles of plate and other property;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the murder before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the persons who actually murdered the said John Sims) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the inhabitants of the parish of Warblington, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, December 18, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Friday the 27th day of November last, a barley rick, on a farm belonging to Mr. Howse, of Highworth, in the county of Wilts, was maliciously and feloniously set on fire and destroyed by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said rick) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the inhabitants of the parish of Highworth, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by Mr. Thomas Sealey, Overseer of the Poor at Highworth.

Whitehall, December 21, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly certified unto the King, that, on the night of Monday the 7th, or early on the morning of Tuesday the 8th instant, four of the gamekeepers of Sir Henry Philip Houghton, Bart. discovered a large body of armed poachers in one of the preserves of their employer at Houghton, in the county of Lancaster, who, on finding that they were observed, immediately pursued the said keepers, when one of them, named John Smith, was overtaken by the said poachers, and violently beaten with guns and bludgeons;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to pro-

raise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the persons who actually beat the said John Smith) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWENTY-FIVE GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by Messrs. Pilkington, Solicitors, Preston.

Notice to the Creditors of the Right Honourable James Earl of Fife.

Adjourned Meeting.

Edinburgh, December 19, 1829.

THE Earl of Lauderdale having intimated that he is forthwith to resign the Office of Trustee, under the trust-disposition executed by the Earl of Fife on the 11th of November 1825; and James Balfour, Esq. of Whittinghame, the Trustee substituted to Lord Lauderdale, having intimated that he will not accept of the trust, notice is hereby given, that an adjourned meeting of the Creditors of the Earl of Fife will be held within the Royal Exchange Coffee-House, Edinburgh, upon Wednesday the 13th day of January next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, in order to choose a Trustee or Trustees for executing the purposes of the Trust, in terms of the said trust-disposition.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is proposed at the said meeting, to appoint a Committee with whom the said Trustee or Trustees to be chosen by the Creditors may advise upon all matters of difficulty and importance connected with the Trust, and to authorise a proper allowance to be paid from the trust-funds to the Trustee or Trustees so chosen by the Creditors for executing the Trust, such allowance to be fixed by the Committee appointed as aforesaid.

Notice to the Creditors of Johnston and Son, Painters, in Glasgow, and James Johnston and Charles Johnston, Individual Partners of said Company.

Edinburgh, December 18, 1829.

THE Court of Session this day sequestrated the whole estates, heritable and moveable, of the said Johnston and Son, as a Company, and the said James Johnston and Charles Johnston, individual Partners thereof, and appointed their Creditors to meet within the Lyceum-Rooms, Nelson-Street, Glasgow, on Saturday the 26th day of December current, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, to name an Interim Factor; and again, at the same place and hour, on Tuesday the 12th day of January next, to elect a Trustee.

Notice to the Creditors of Archibald Lyle, of Drum, Cattle-Dealer, residing at Gartinstarry, in the County of Stirling.

Stirling, December 16, 1829.

EBENEZER BOW, Merchant, in Stirling, Trustee on the sequestrated estates of the said Archibald Lyle, hereby intimates, that his accounts were on the 2d instant audited and docketed, in terms of the Statute; and that said accounts, with a state of the Bankrupt's affairs, will lie in the Writing-Office of Messrs. Wright and MacEwen, Writers, in Stirling, for one month after the 24th current, for the inspection of all concerned.

From the situation of the estate, no dividend can yet be declared.

Notice to the Creditors of John Scott, Merchant, in Glasgow, residing sometime at Kenning-House, near Govan, and now in West Kingston, near Glasgow.

Glasgow, December 14, 1829.

ROBERT URE, Merchant, in Glasgow, hereby intimates, that he has been confirmed Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said John Scott; and that the Sheriff-Depute of Lanarkshire has fixed the 30th day of December current and the 15th day of January next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon each day, within the Sheriff-Clerk's Office, Glasgow, for the public examination of the Bankrupt and others connected with his affairs.

The Trustee farther intimates, that a general meeting of the Creditors will be held in the Writing-Rooms of Messrs. Kennedy and Monteith, Writers, Hutcheson-Street, Glasgow, upon the 16th day of January next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon; and another general meeting will be held, at the same place and hour, upon the 30th day of January next, to name Commissioners, and for the purposes of the Statute.

The Trustee hereby requires the Creditors who have not already lodged their claims and vouchers or grounds of debt, with oaths of verity thereto, in his hands, to do so on or before the said first meeting; with certification, that those who fail to do so between and the 25th day of August next, being ten months after the date of the sequestration, will be cut off from any share in the first distribution of the Bankrupt's estate.

Notice to the Creditors of Robert Dunlop, Banker, Gas-Manufacturer, and Builder, in Edinburgh, and Writer to the Signet.

Edinburgh, December 16, 1829.

ARCHIBALD GIBSON, Accountant, in Edinburgh, has been elected and confirmed Trustee on Mr. Dunlop's sequestrated estate; and the Sheriff of Edinburgh has appointed Monday the 28th December current, and Monday the 11th January next, within the Sheriff-Clerk's Office, Edinburgh, at One o'Clock P.M. for the examination of the Bankrupt and others, in terms of the Statute. Further, meetings of the Creditors will be held, in the Royal Exchange Coffee-House here, on Tuesday the 12th, and Tuesday the 26th January next, at Two o'Clock P.M. to name Commissioners, and for the other purposes of the Act. And the Creditors are hereby required to lodge with the Trustee their claims and grounds of debt, with oaths of verity thereto; under certification, that unless so produced between and 3d August next, being ten months from the date of the sequestration, the party neglecting shall have no share in the first distribution of the estate.

Notice to the Creditors of John Dawson, sometime Lime-Burner, and Fish-Curer and Dealer in Herrings, now Farmer and Cattle-Dealer, at Redlyth, in the County of Banff.

Banff, December 15, 1829.

EDWARD MORTIMER, Solicitor, in Banff, hereby intimates, that his nomination as Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said John Dawson has been confirmed by the Court of Session; and that, on his application, the Sheriff of Banffshire has appointed Saturday the 2d and Wednesday the 20th days of January next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon of each day, within the ordinary Sheriff-Court-Room of Banff, for the public examinations of the Bankrupt and others connected with his affairs.

The Trustee further intimates, that meetings of the said Creditors will be held within the Writing-Chambers of John Smith, Solicitor, in Banff, on Thursday the 21st day of January next, and Wednesday the 3d day of February next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon of each day, to name Commissioners and instruct the Trustee in the management of the estates. And the Trustee hereby requires all the Creditors who have not already done so, to produce in his hands, at or previous to the said first-mentioned meeting, their claims and vouchers or grounds of debt, with oaths on the verity thereof; and intimates, that unless the said productions are made before the 7th day of September 1830, the parties neglecting shall have no share in the first distribution of the Bankrupt's estates, under the exceptions provided for in the Statute.

4. The duplicate of the petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced for inspection and examination by the Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other person with whom the same shall have been directed to be lodged for such purpose, at the Office of such Clerk of the Peace or other person; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be there provided according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 77, or the Act, 5 Geo. 4, c. 61, sec. 11, as the case may be.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a meeting of the Creditors of David Jones, late of the Parish of Llanarth, in the County of Cardigan, Farmer, an Insolvent Debtor, lately discharged from His Majesty's Gaol of the said County of Cardigan, under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the first year of the reign of His present Majesty, for the relief of Insolvent Debtors in England, will be held on Saturday the 9th day of January next, at the House of Mary

Price, known by the name or sign of the Red Lion, in the Village of Llanwnen, in the County of Cardigan, to approve and direct in what manner, and at what place or places, the real estate of the said Insolvent shall be sold by public auction.

THE Creditors of Thomas Rudd, now or late of Minskip, in the County of York, Inhabitant, an Insolvent Debtor, who hath taken the benefit of some or one of the Acts for relief of Insolvent Debtors, are desired to meet the Assignee of the said Insolvent's estate, on Thursday the 7th day of January next, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Office of Mr. Peter Tolson, in Knaresbrough, in the said County, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee acceding to the proposals made by Mr. Christopher North, of Minskip aforesaid, for purchase of a reversionary interest vested in the said Assignee in estates belonging to the said Insolvent, and situate within the Townships of Staveley and Minskip, or one of them, or otherwise to make such arrangements for sale or other disposition of the said reversionary interest as to the said Creditors may seem fit; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors of George Weller, of Croydon, in the County of Surrey, Tailor and Draper, lately discharged under the Act of Parliament for the relief of Insolvent Debtors, are requested to meet Mr. John Gill, sole Assignee of the estate and effects of the said George Weller, at the House of Mr. Watts, of the Horse and Groom, at Streatham, in the said County of Surrey, on Thursday the 14th day of January next, between the hours of One and Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, for the purpose of authorising the said Assignee to enter into a composition with any Creditor or Creditors, or any debtor or debtors, of the said Insolvent, and also as to the sale by public auction or by private contract, of certain reversionary property mentioned in the schedule of the said Insolvent, and also to consider and advise generally on the affairs of the said Insolvent.—
Dated this 21st day of December 1829.
