Major Thomas Viscount Anson to be Lieutenant-Colonel, vice Littleton, promoted. Dated 17th December 1829.

Captain Edward Monckton to be Major, vice Viscount Anson, promoted. Dated 17th December 1829.

In pursuance of the directions of an Act, passed in the twenty-fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to repeal so much of two Acts, made in the tenth and fifteenth years of the reign of His present Majesty; as authorises the Speaker of the House of Commons to issue his warrant to the Clerk of the Crown for making out writs for the election of Members to serve in Parliament, in the manner therein mentioned, and for substituting other provisions for the like purposes."

I do hereby give notice, that the death of Thomas Lloyd, Esq. late Member serving in this present Parliament for the county of Limerick, hath been certified to me in writing under the hands of two Members serving in this present Parliament; and that I shall issue my warrant to the Clerk of the Crown in Ireland to make out a new writ for the electing of a Member to serve in this present Parliament for the said county of Limerick, at the end of fourteen days after the insertion of this notice in the London Gazette.

Given under my hand the 24th day of December 1829,

CHARLES MANNERS SUTTON, Speaker.

Whitehall, December 21, 1829.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Robert-Maurice Bonnor, of Ash, in the parish of Stourpaine, in the county of Dorset, and of Bodynfol, in the parish of Llanfechen, in the county of Montgomery, Esq. second son of John Bonnor, of Bryn y Gwalie, in the county of Denbigh, Esq. by Jane his wife, daughter of Richard Maurice, late of Bryn y Gwalie aforesaid, Clerk, Vicar of Llansillan, in the said county of Denbigh, deceased, and niece of Robert Maurice, late of Blandford Forum, in the aforesaid county of Dorset, Clerk, Rector of Burleston, Athelhampton, and Tomson, all in the same county, also deceased, His royal licence and permission, that he may, in compliance with a proviso contained in the last will and testament of his maternal-great uncle, the said Robert Maurice, take and henceforth use the surname of Maurice, in addition to and after that of Bonnor:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms, otherwise to be void and of none effect.

Whitehall, December 22, 1829.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed John Weedon, of Reading, in the county of Berks, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, December 18, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Friday the 27th day of November last, a barley rick, on a farm belonging to Mr. Howse, of Highworth, in the county of Wilts, was maliciously and feloniously set on fire and destroyed by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said rick) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the inhabitants of the parish of Highworth, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by Mr. Thomas Sealey, Overseer of the Poor at Highworth.

Whitehall, December 21, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly certified unto the King, that, on the night of Monday the 7th, or early on the morning of Tuesday the 8th instant, four of the gamekeepers of Sir Henry Philip Hoghton, Bart. discovered a large body of armed poachers in one of the preserves of their employer at Hoghton, in the county of Lancaster, who, on finding that they were observed, immediately pursued the said keepers, when one of them, named John Smith, was overtaken by the said poachers, and violently beaten with guns and bludgeons;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the persons who actually beat the said John Smith) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.
