TUESDAY, DECEMBER 29, 1829.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of December 1829,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued, from Thursday the tenth day of this instant December, to Thursday the fourth day of February next.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Thursday the tenth day of this instant December; We, with the advice of our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued, on the said tenth day of this instant December, to Thursday the fourth day of February next; and We have given order to Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a commission for proroguing the same accordingly; and We do further hereby, with the advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, that the said Parliament shall, on the said fourth day of February next, assemble and be held for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said fourth day of February next.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, this seventh day of December, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, and in the tenth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of October 1829,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," the several sorts of goods enumerated or described in a certain table therein contained, denominated "a Table of Prohibitions and Restrictions," are either prohibited to be imported or brought, either by sea or by inland carriage or navigation, into the British possessions in America, or into the Island of Mauritius, or are permitted to be imported or brought into those possessions under the restrictions made in such table; and in and by the said Act provision is made respecting the manner in which vessels and goods shall be entered and cleared inwards and outwards in the British possessions in America, and in the said Island of Mauritius; and for the prevention of smuggling in the said British possessions in America, and in the said Island of Mauritius: and whereas by an Act, passed in the seventh year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to alter and amend the several laws relating to the Customs;" and by an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the Customs;" and by an Act, passed in the ninth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to

"amend the laws relating to the Customs;" and by an Act, passed in the tenth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the Customs;" the before-mentioned provisions of the Act, so passed in the sixth year of His Majesty's reign, have been altered and amended: and whereas by the said Act, so passed in the sixth year of His Majesty's reign, it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders in Council to be issued from time to time, to give such directions and make such regulations, touching the trade and commerce to and from any British possessions on or near the Continent of Europe, or within the Mediterranean Sea, or in Africa, or within the limits of the East India Company's charter (excepting the possessions of the said Company), as to His Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary; and that if any goods shall be imported or exported in any manner contrary to any such Order of His Majesty in Council, the same shall, be forfeited, together with the ship importing or exporting the same; His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers so vested as aforesaid in Him in and by the said Act, so passed as aforesaid in the sixth year of His reign, order, and it is hereby ordered, that so much of the said Act, so passed as aforesaid in the sixth year of His Majesty's reign; and so much of the said several Acts of Parliament, so passed as aforesaid in the seventh, and in the seventh and eighth, and in the ninth, and in the tenth years of His Majesty's reign, as impose prohibitions and restrictions on the importation of goods into the British possessions in America, and the Island of Mauritius; and as relate to the entry of vessels and goods inwards and outwards in those possessions and the Island aforesaid; and to the prevention of smuggling there; shall be, and the same are hereby, extended and made applicable to His Majesty's settlements at Sierra Leone, and all other His Majesty's settlements on the Western Coast of Africa:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 16th day of July 1829,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that certain ports, therein particularly mentioned, in the island of Jamaica, and in the provinces of Nova Scotia, Canada, and New Brunswick, and in the island of Barbadoes, shall be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act; and it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America to be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act; and that every such port, so appointed by His Majesty, shall be a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same, in as full and ample a manner in all respects as any of the ports thereinbefore mentioned are free warehousing ports appointed by the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient, that the port of Saint John's, in the island of Newfoundland, should be appointed a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in him vested in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and appoint, that the said port of Saint John's, in the island of Newfoundland, shall be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Sir George Murray, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

Whitehall, December 5, 1829.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Harry White, of Halesworth, in the county of Suffolk, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, December 18, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Friday the 27th day of November last, a barley rick, on a farm belonging to Mr. Howse, of Highworth, in the county of Wilts, was maliciously and feloniously set on fire and destroyed by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said rick) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the inhabitants of the parish of Highworth, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by Mr. Thomas Sealey, Overseer of the Poor at Highworth.

Whitehall, December 21, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly certified unto the King, that, on the night of Monday the 7th, or early on the morning of Tuesday the 8th instant, four of the gamekeepers of Sir Henry Philip Houghton, Bart. discovered a large body of armed poachers in one of the preserves of their employer at Houghton, in the county of Lancaster, who, on finding that they were observed, immediately pursued the said keepers, when one of them, named John Smith, was overtaken by the said poachers, and violently beaten with guns and bludgeons ;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the persons who actually beat the said John Smith) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWENTY-FIVE GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by Messrs. Pilkington, Solicitors, Preston.

Whitehall, December 23, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that some evil-disposed person or persons, during the early part of this month, most barbarously destroyed five valuable farming horses, the property of Mr. Samuel Tovell, of the parish of Geldeston, in the county of Norfolk ;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually perpetrated the act which caused the death of the said horses) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

Whitehall, December 28, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about half past ten o'clock on the night of Tuesday the 22d instant, a large number of persons attacked the house of William Springall, in the Boatswain's Call-yard, in the parish of St. Augustine, in the city of Norwich, and with great violence broke open the said house, and several men entered therein, one of whom fired a pistol at the said William Springall, and seriously wounded him in different parts of his body, and afterwards some of them cut the work off seven looms in the said house, and committed other acts of violence ;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the offences before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who fired the pistol) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.—The said reward to be paid by the Treasurer of the city of Norwich.

VICE-CHANCELLOR.—Monday the 21st day of December, in the tenth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, 1829, between Richard Bacon, Plaintiff; James Hoare, Defendant.

FORASMUCH as this Court was this present day informed by Mr. Wakefield, of Counsel for the plaintiff, that the plaintiff, on the 25th day of November 1828, exhibited his bill in this Court against the defendant, as by the Six Clerks' certificate, now produced and read, appears, and took out process of subpoena, requiring him to appear to and answer the same; and that it appears by the affidavit of Charles Ford, Agent for the above-named plaintiff, that the defendant in this suit was in that part of the United Kingdom called England, in Michaelmas Term 1828, when the bill in this cause was filed, and as the deponent had been informed, and verily believed, the said defendant was still in England, and that he was duly served with the subpoena requiring him to appear to the plaintiff's bill; and that the said defendant not having entered his appearance to the said plaintiff's bill, pursuant to the practice of this Court, an attachment was issued against him for the purpose of compelling him to do so; and that the said defendant not having entered his appearance, in pursuance of such attachment and the subsequent process issued against him, a commission of rebellion was obtained; and upon such commission being returned, non est inventus, an order was obtained for the Serjeant at Arms to go against the said defendant; and that the Serjeant at Arms by his return, bearing date the 2d day of November last, certified that he had made diligent search and enquiry after the said defendant, but that the said defendant did so abscond and secrete himself that he could not be found to be apprehended; and that there is just ground to believe that the said defendant absconded to avoid the process of this Court; it is thereupon ordered, that the said defendant do appear to the plaintiff's bill on or before the 23d day of January 1830.

TAKE NOTICE,

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given, by entry thereof in the proper page and column of the book kept for that purpose at the Office of the Court, between the hours of Ten in the Forenoon and Four in the Afternoon, three clear days before the day of hearing above mentioned, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of entering such notice and of the said day of hearing; but in the case of a Prisoner, for the removal of whom for hearing in the country an order has been obtained, but not carried into effect by the Creditors, notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

N. B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-Street.

2. The petition and schedule, and all books papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, until the last day for entering opposition inclusive; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 76.

3. Notice to produce at the hearing any books or papers filed with the schedule, must be given to the Officer having the custody thereof, within the hours above mentioned, on any day previous to the day of hearing.

4. Opposition at the hearing can only be made by the Creditor in person, or by Counsel appearing for him.

Insolvent Debtor.—Dividend.

WHEREAS the Assignee of the estate and effects of Thomas Smith, late of Newton-Moor, near Ashton-under-Line, Lancashire, Joiner and Carpenter, an Insolvent Debtor, lately a prisoner in Lancaster Castle, hath caused his account of the said estate and effects, duly sworn to, to be filed in the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors; the Creditors of the said Insolvent are requested to meet the Assignee at the Office of Messrs. Whitehead and Grundy, Solicitors, Bury, Lancashire, on the 1st day of February next, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon precisely, when and where the Assignee will declare the amount of the balance in his hands, and proceed to make a dividend with the same amongst the Creditors whose debts are admitted in the schedule sworn to by the Insolvent, in proportion to the amount thereof, subject to such correction of the rights to receive dividends as may be made according to the statute.—If any person has a demand which is stated in the schedule, but is disputed therein, either in whole or in part; or if the said Insolvent, the said Assignee, or any Creditor objects to any debt mentioned therein, such claims and objections must be brought forward at the said meeting, in order that proceedings may be had for the examination and decision of the same according to the statute.

THE Creditors of Thomas Millie, late of Manchester, Lancashire, Commission-Merchant, lately discharged from Chester Castle, by an order of Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, are required to meet at the Office of Mr. John Makinson, Solicitor, Manchester, on the 18th day of January next, at Nine o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, for the purpose of choosing an Assignee or Assignees of the said Insolvent's estate and effects.
