Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 5, 1830.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 7th day
of December 1829,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued, from Thursday
the tenth day of this instant December, to Thursday the fourth day of February next.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued
to Thursday the tenth day of this instant December; We, with the advice of our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued, on the said tenth day of this instant December, to Thursday the fourth day of February next; and We have given order to Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a commission for proroguing the same accordingly;
and We do further hereby, with the advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, that the said Parliament shall, on the said fourth day of February next, assemble and be held for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said
fourth day of February next.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, this seventh day of December, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, and in the tenth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day
of October 1829,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year
of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled
"An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," the several sorts of goods enumerated or described in a certain table therein contained, denominated "a Table of Prohibitions and Restrictions," are either prohibited to be imported or brought, either by sea or by inland carriage or navigation, into the British possessions in America, or into the Island of Mauritius, or are permitted to be imported or brought into those possessions under the restrictions made in such table; and in and by the said Act provision is made respecting the manner in which vessels and goods shall be entered and cleared inwards and outwards in the British possessions in America, and in the said Island of Mauritius; and for the prevention of smuggling in the said British possessions in America, and in the said Island of Mauritius: and whereas by an Act, passed in the seventh year of His Majesty's reign, intituled
"An Act to alter and amend the several laws relating to the Customs;" and by an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the Customs;" and by an Act, passed in the ninth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to

" amend the laws relating to the Customs;" and by an Act, passed in the tenth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled " An Act to amend the laws relating to the Customs;" the before-mentioned provisions of the Act, so passed in the sixth year of His Majesty's reign, have been altered and amended: and whereas by the said Act, so passed in the sixth year of His Majesty's reign, it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders in Council to be issued from time to time, to give such directions and make such regulations, touching the trade and commerce to and from any British possessions on or near the Continent of Europe, or within the Mediterranean Sea, or in Africa, or within the limits of the East India Company's charter (excepting the possessions of the said Company), as to His Majesty in Council shall appear most-expedient and salutary; and that if any goods shall be imported or exported in any manner contrary to any such Order of His Majesty in Council, the same shall be forfeited, together with the ship importing or exporting the same; His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers so vested as aforesaid in Him in and by the said Act, so passed as aforesaid in the sixth year of His reign, order, and it is hereby ordered, that so much of the said Act, so passed as aforesaid in the sixth year of His Majesty's reign; and so much of the said several Acts of Parliament, so passed as aforesaid in the seventh, and in the seventh and eighth, and in the ninth, and in the tenth years of His Majesty's reign, as impose prohibitions and restrictions on the importation of goods into the British possessions in America, and the Island of Mauritius; and as relate to the entry of vessels and goods inwards and outwards in those possessions and the Island aforesaid; and to the prevention of smuggling there; shall be, and the same are hereby, extended and made applicable to His Majesty's settlements at Sierra Leone, and all other His Majesty's settlements on the Western Coast of Africa:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 16th day of July 1829,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that certain ports, therein particularly mentioned, in the island of Jamaica, and in the provinces of Nova Scotia, Canada, and New Brunswick, and in the island of Barbadoes, shall be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act; and it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America to be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act; and that every such port, so appointed by His Majesty, shall be a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same, in as full and ample a manner in all respects as any of the ports thereinbefore mentioned are free warehousing ports appointed by the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient, that the port of Saint John's, in the island of Newfoundland, should be appointed a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in him vested in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and appoint, that the said port of Saint John's, in the island of Newfoundland, shall be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Sir George Murray, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

War-Office, 4th January 1830.

THE Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having certified to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, in pursuance of the Act, 10th Geo. 4th, c. 27, s. 1, that the actual Surplus Revenue of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, beyond the actual Expenditure thereof, for the year ended the 10th of October 1829, amounted to the sum of £2,274,027 11s. 11½d.;

The Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt hereby give notice, that the following sums will be applicable, under the provisions of the said Act, towards the reduction of the National Debt of the said United Kingdom, between the 5th day of January 1830, and the 5th day of April 1830, viz.

One fourth part of the said Surplus	£568,506	17	11½
Interest receivable on account of
Donations and Bequests	-	2,630	2 7
	£571,137	0	6¾

S. Higham, Comptroller General.

National Debt-Office, January 5, 1830.

Whitehall, December 23, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that some evil-disposed person or persons, during the early part of this month, most barbarously destroyed five valuable farming horses, the property of Mr. Samuel Tovell, of the parish of Geldeston, in the county of Norfolk;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually perpetrated the act which caused the death of the said horses) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

Whitehall, December 28, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about half past ten o'clock on the night of Tuesday the 22d instant, a large number of persons attacked the house of William Springall, in the Boatwain's Call-yard, in the parish of St. Augustine, in the city of Norwich, and with great violence broke open the said house, and several men entered therein, one of whom fired a pistol at the said William Springall, and seriously wounded him in different parts of his body, and afterwards some of them cut the work off seven looms in the said house, and committed other acts of violence;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the offences before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who fired the pistol) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.—The said reward to be paid by the Treasurer of the city of Norwich.

Whitehall, January 4, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, between the hours of four and five o'clock on the morning of Monday the 28th ultimo, a fire was discovered in the thatch of a small house occupied by a farmer, in the parish of Fontmell Magna, in the county of Dorset, which was entirely destroyed; and whereas it hath also been represented to the King, that, on the following morning, about the same hour, a fire was discovered in an out-house belonging to a dwelling-house near to the former, which destroyed all the out-buildings; and that there is every reason to believe, that the said fires were the acts of some evil-disposed person or persons;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felonies, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his or her accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Rector and inhabitants of Fontmell Magna, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover his or her accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.—The above reward to be paid by the said parties.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Parkinson the elder, of Mill-Place, in the Parish of Scawby, in the County of Lincoln, Thomas Parkinson the younger, of the Town of Kingston-upon-Hull, and John Lilley, of the Parish of Sculcoates, in the County of York, Raff-Merchants, Dealers and Chapmen (carrying on trade at Sculcoates, under the firm of Parkinson, Son, and Lilley), are requested to meet the Assignee of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 28th day of January instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Kingston Hotel, in the said Town of Kingston-upon-Hull, to take into consideration an application which has been made to the said Assignee by the Mortgagee of a messuage or dwelling-house, situate in Dock-Street, in the said Parish of Sculcoates, which belonged to the said Bankrupts, to release to him the equity of redemption therein, without further consideration; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee executing, upon those or such other terms as may be then prescribed, such release to the said Mortgagee, or his order, accordingly; and on other affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Parker, late of Vigo-Street, Regent-Street, in the County of Middlesex, Jeweller, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignee of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 28th day of January instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee returning the deposit money paid by the purchaser of an annuity of fifty pounds per annum, to which the Bankrupt had become entitled for life, under the will of William Bailey, deceased, in consequence of such purchaser refusing to complete the purchase, for reasons that will be stated at the meeting, and to authorise the said Assignee to resell such annuity, either by public auction or private contract, in manner, at such time as may then be agreed on; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity concerning the said annuity, or the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to any matter or thing, relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Charles Henry Stavenhagen, of Fenchurch-Street, in the City of London, Merchant and Commission-Agent, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 27th day of January instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the whole or any part of the said Bankrupt's leasehold estate, stock in trade, furniture, fixtures, and other effects; either by public auction or private contract, for ready money or upon credit, upon such terms and conditions, and to such person or persons as the said Assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from Joseph Talwin Foster, one of the Assignees, retaining and repaying to himself the salary which was due and owing to one of the clerks of the said Bankrupt at the time of the Bankruptcy, and which the said Joseph Talwin Foster became liable for, previously to the said clerk giving his testimony under which the said Charles Henry Stavenhagen was found Bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing a person to make up the accounts of the said Bankrupt, and to allow him a reasonable compensation for the same; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying the costs, charges, and expences of the Solicitors who were acting, under the direction of the major part of the Creditors, in and about the affairs of the Bankrupt, from the period when a meeting of the said Bankrupt's Creditors was called, and subsequently to certain resolutions signed by the major part of the Creditors, up to the time of the Commission of Bankrupt being issued; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees abandoning and giving up any property belonging to the said Bankrupt which it may be, in the opinion of the said Assignees, disadvantageous or prejudicial to hold, and as the said Assignees shall think most advantageous to the said estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery, protection, or defence of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, or any part thereof; and particularly as to the said Assignees prosecuting a certain action commenced in His Majesty's Court of Common Pleas, wherein the said Bankrupt was plaintiff, and John Seaward and Samuel Seaward defendants; and also to the said Assignees compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing the said action, or any debt, demand, or thing relating thereto, or to the said estate; and to authorise the said Assignees to take any security or securities from any debtor or debtors of the said Bankrupt, and to realize any such securities, by sale or otherwise, as well as any security or securities which the said Bankrupt may hold or be entitled to from any debtor or debtors; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees empowering such person or persons as they may in their discretion think fit to collect and get in any outstanding property, moneys, or effects belonging to the said Bankrupt, or his estate, in Russia, America, or elsewhere; and also to the said Assignees making an allowance to the said Bankrupt for his services since the issuing of the Commission, and up to the passing of his last examination and afterwards, so long as the said Assignees shall see fit, and whilst the said Bankrupt is assisting in the management of the said estate; and also generally to authorise the said Assignees to act for the benefit of the estate of the said Bankrupt in such manner as shall seem most beneficial; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Henry Hacker, late of Colchester, in the County of Essex, but now of Harwich, in the same County, Linen-Draper, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 27th day of January instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing and prosecuting any action or actions, at law, or suit or suits in equity, against certain persons, to be named at the meeting, to recover back the proceeds of an execution levied on the Bankrupt's property, under a warrant of attorney given by the said Bankrupt to the said persons, shortly before the issuing of the Commission; or to the said Assignees compounding or submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any other action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, for the recovery, defence, or protection of any part of the Bankrupt's estate and effects; and to their compounding with any debtor to the Bankrupt's estate, and taking any reasonable part of the debt in discharge of the whole, or giving time or taking security for the payment of such debt; or submitting any dispute between the said Assignees and any persons, concerning any matter relating to the Bankrupt's estate, to arbitration; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing any person or persons in or about the selling, management, collecting, and getting in of the debts, estate, and effects of the said Bankrupt, and to their making such compensation to such person or persons as they may think reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying and discharging, out of the Bankrupt's estate, the costs and charges incurred by the petitioning Creditors, previous to the choice of Assignees, in and about the examination of the Bankrupt and certain other persons, to be named at the meeting, touching and concerning the validity of the before-mentioned execution; and generally to authorise the said Assignees to act for the benefit of the estate of the said Bankrupt in such manner as to them shall seem most advisable; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt, bearing date the 9th day of March 1820, awarded and issued forth against John Austin, of Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, Brick-Maker, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignee of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 28th day of January instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Messrs. Higson, Bagshaw, and Higson, Solicitors, in King-Street, in Manchester aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing and prosecuting such proceedings at law or in equity, as may be deemed expedient, against certain parties, to be named at such meeting, for the recovery of divers sums of money alleged to be due and owing from them to the said Bankrupt's estate, for and in respect (amongst other things) of certain lands and tenements, situate in or near Great Ancoats-Street, in Manchester aforesaid, and of various payments and disbursements made by the said Bankrupt and by the said Assignee, or by the late Assignee of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on account of such lands and tenements, or the chief rents thereof, and for compelling such parties to execute to the said present Assignee a proper conveyance of certain privileges of the said premises, in pursuance of a contract for that purpose; or to assent to or dissent from a certain contract made, or about to be made, by the said Assignee with such parties for a final arrangement of all disputes between them; or to the said Assignee compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing or compounding all claims upon, and all disputes with, such parties in respect of the premises, upon such terms and conditions, and in such manner and form as he may deem most expedient; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee taking such proceedings as he may deem expedient, for further prosecuting, defending, or dismissing a certain suit now pending in the High Court of Chancery, concerning certain other hereditaments and premises of the said Bankrupt, situate in and near Charlotte-Street, in Manchester aforesaid, or adopting such other proceedings, in respect thereto, as he may think proper; or to his compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise compromising all disputes and differences with any person or persons, in respect thereof, or to his otherwise agreeing any other matter relating thereto, as he may deem most expedient; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee paying off a certain equitable mortgage or lien upon the title deeds to lands and premises of the said Bankrupt, situate in Higher Ardwick, in the said County, or adopting such proceedings at law or in equity, in respect thereof, as he may think fit; or to his compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing such equitable claim or lien in such manner as he may deem best; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling, or otherwise disposing of, all or any part of the said Bankrupt's lands or tenements, by public auction, private contract, or valuation, or on chief rents, or otherwise, as he the said Assignee may think fit, and to such person or persons, and at such price or prices, and for ready money or on credit, and upon or without security as he may think best; and to adopt such measures as he may deem fit and proper for procuring proper conveyances of the said Bankrupt's lands and tenements, or any of them, or otherwise perfecting the title of the said Assignee thereto; and generally to act in all or any of the said Bankrupt's affairs in such manner as he may in his discretion deem to be most expedient for the interest of the said Bankrupt's estate; and also to his reimbursing himself certain law and other expenses incurred by him, with a view to the removal of the said late Assignee; and to his commencing, prosecuting, or defending any proceedings at law or in equity, for the recovery or protection of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, or any part thereof; or compounding any debt or debts due to the said Bankrupt's estate, or submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement; unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such act of

" Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country :"—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 2d day of January 1830, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by

HENRY JOSEPH WILKINSON, late of the Borough of Leicester, in the County of Leicester, Printer and Publisher, and Dealer in Patent-Medicines, Dealer and Chapman, that he is in insolvent circumstances and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

And on the 4th day of January 1830, by RICHARD ROWE, of Crediton, in the County of Devon, Tallow-Chandler and Starch-Maker, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

SAMUEL JACOB and JACOB JOSEPH, of Gun-Square, Houndsditch, in the City of London, Furriers, Dealers and Chapmen (trading under the firm of Jacob and Joseph), that they are in insolvent circumstances and are unable to meet their engagements with their creditors.
