Whitehall, October 3.

The following Addresses having been presented to His Majesty, His Majesty was pleased to receive them very graciously.

The humble Address of Your Majesty's Lieutenant, Deputy-Lieutenants, and Officers of the Militia for the County of Northumberland.

WE Your Majesties most humble Loyal Subjects from the bottom of our hearts, detesting and abhorring the Devilish Fanatical Caballing Practices of all such as deserve and have lately brought themselves to their Fatal end, for Treasonably Conspiring against the Lives of the best of Princes, Your Sacred Majesty, and of Your Dearest and most dutiful Brother, the best of Subjects, so against the best of Governments in Church and State; For the Miraculous preservation of Which, do humbly offer up our Praises and Prayers to the Almighty. And being fully informed and satisfied of the truth of this Hellish Conspiracy by Your Majesties Royal Declaration, doubt not but such care will be taken to prevent Rebellion for the future, by Your Majesties Princely Wisdom, that the late horrid Scene of Blood acted upon our late Martyr'd King, of Blessed Memory, nor the present Machinations of bloody Milcreants may never be thought of, but to lay their own Confusion and Damnation before their Eyes, by which they may know You live by Authority, and not their Mercy; Then our dreadful Fears will be certainly converted to the joyful hopes, that the devilish thoughts of Traiterous Conspirits will never again be pronounced by the Factious Tongues of seditious Associating Synods; Then Your Majesties Royal Prerogative, Sacred in Your Ancestors, the Lineal Descent, Liberty and Property, together with the best of Religions, as by Law Established, will (by the blessing of Divine Providence) upon Your endeavours, be preserved. To which end we Prostrate our Lives and Fortunes at Your Majesties Feet, Zealously impertuning the great God of Heaven for Your Majesties long and happy Reign, That Monarchy in these Your Majesties Dominions, may continue to the Worlds end.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of Your Majesties most Loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgomasters of Your Majesty's Antient Borough of Westbury, in the County of Wilts.

Dread Sovereign,

WE Your Majesties Loyal and Obedient Subjects, being deeply sensible of Gods great goodness and mercy, in miraculously preserving Your Sacred Majesty, and Royal Brother, from the rage and cruelty of Blood thirsty and deceitful Men; We do cheerfully Congratulate Your wonderful Preservation and therein our own Safety and security; and do with hearts full of thankfulness, bless Almighty God for the same.

And with unfeigned grief, we do afflict our selves, that any of us should give our consents, for the Electing such a Representative for this Borough, who is now Convicted by the Grand Jury, at the last Sessions in the Old-Bayly, for being a Conspirator in that horrid Treason, whose Guilt causeth him to fly from Justice.

And we do hereby assure Your Majesty, that we will never hereafter, make choice of any Person to serve in Parliament, that is any way suspected to be knowing, or abetting, to that devilish Design against Your Royal Person, Illustrious Brother, and happy Government (which was in danger to be overthrowed by the Excluders of the Rightful Heir but shall be of approved Loyalty, and of faithful Integrity to the present Government in Church and State: And as Loyal and good Subjects, we shall ever pray for Your Majesties Safety, Your long and happy Reign over us, and for the utter Confusion of all Your Enemies.

Dated the One and thirtieth day of July, in the Five and thirtieth Year of Your Majesties Reign.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The most humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeses, of the Borough of Newbam, in the County of Gloucester, &c.

May it please Your Majesty,

TO believe that we Your most dutiful and obedient Subjects, holding our selves Obliged, as much as in us lies, to maintain and uphold the Antient Customs, Rights, and Privileges of this Town, which our Predecessors and Ancestors have a long time enjoyed; Do esteem it our greatest Honor and Happiness, that we have not one Schismatical Person, Seditious Inhabitant, or Ill-affected Member to Church or State, within this our Society: by which means we have unanimously undertaken to proclaim to the whole World the truth, and reality of our Loyalty and Obedience to Your most Sacred Majesty, and lawful Successors, for ever; especially considering the great danger to which Your most Sacred Majesty, with your Illustrious Brother, His Royal Highness the Duke of York, have been of late exposed, by the most Hellish and Impious Machinations, Plots and Conspiracies, beyond the Example of former times, or parallel of Ages that are past.

And we do hereby profess and declare our just Detestation and Abhorrence of all, and all manner of Treasonable practices, Plots, and Contrivances against Your Majesties Sacred Person, Crown, Dignity, or Lawful Successor; further assuring your Majesty, that we are and shall be ready and willing to obey and serve Your Majesty with our Estate and Fortunes, Life and Limbs, Prayers and well-wishes that the King of Kings may multiply his Blessings upon You, granting You a long, happy, and prosperous Reign over us, to the glory of his Name, the confusion of Your Enemies, the continuance of Comfort, Safety, and Happiness to the Church and State wherein we live, for which

We shall never cease to pray, &c.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

Most Dread Sovereign,

WE Your Majesties Loyal Subjects, of the County of Worcester, Do with all Humility beseech your Majesty, Graciously to accept our heartiest Congratulation of Your Majesties, and Royal Brothers late Miraculous Deliverance from the most horrid Conspiracies of the ungracious and ungrateful Villains; And though when we seriously reflect how far their Cruelty would have extended, we cannot but Congratulate to our selves, our own Preservation; We do at the same instant assure Your Majesty, that we shall not esteem our Lives and Fortunes of any value, whenever in competition with Your Majesties Safety; To which assurance we can only add our most fervent Prayers, That God will still continue to Infatuate the Councils, detect the Devices, and defeat the Designs of all such as shall for the future adventure to disturb your Majesties, or the Kingdoms peace and quiet.

Dread Sovereign,

We Your Majesties most Dutiful and Obedient Subjects; the Grand-Inquest for the said County, at the Assizes held at Worcester, the 30th day of August, 1683. Do heartily Concur in this humble Address; And do presume to tender Your Majesty our unfeigned Thanks for Your late Declaration, so highly satisfactory to all Your Majesties Loyal Subjects, in the sincere Scheme of that most execrable Conspiracy.
