Foreign-Office, February 9, 1830.

IT has been notified by the French Minister for Foreign Affairs to His Majesty's Ambassador at Paris, that the French Government, having been informed that doubts existed on the subject of the Blockade of the Ports of the Regency of Algiers, by the Naval Forces of His Most Christian Majesty, think it right to declare, that that Blockade (notified in the Gazette of July 2, 1827), has not been discontinued; and that it extends to the four Ports of Bona, Bugia, Algiers, and Oran.

Whitehall, February 8, 1830.

The King has been pleased to present the Reverend Thomas Waugh to the church at Deerness, in the parishes of St. Andrews and Deerness, in the sheriffdom and stewartry of Orkney and Shetland, and presbytery of Kirkwall.

The King has also been pleased to present the Reverend David Pitcairn to the church at North Ronaldshay, in the united parishes of Cross, Burness, and North Ronaldshay, in the sheriffdom of Orkney and Shetland, and presbytery of North Isles.

Crown-Office, February 9, 1830.

MEMBER returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT,

County of Limerick.

Lieutenant-Colonel Standish O'Grady, of Cahirguillamore, in the said county of Limerick, in the room of Thomas Lloyd, Esq. deceased.

Whitehall, January 29, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Saturday the 9th day of January instant, a seed hay rick, the property of Mr. Thomas Martin, of Compton, in the parish of Enford, in the county of Wilts, was wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said rick) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by the said Mr. Thomas Martin.

Whitehall, January 30, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the morning of Friday the 22d day of January instant, between five and six o'clock, the town-house of the hamlet of Mile End Old Town, situate in the Mile End-road, was burglariously entered by some persons disguised, who proceeded into the mistress's chamber, and, threatening her with violence, took therefrom £125 in silver, a banker's check for £7 8s. 9d. and several other articles;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his accomplice or
