THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against James Lucy, of the Parish of Saint John, in Bedwardine, in the County of Worcester, Builder, Dealer and Chapman (now deceased), are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Friday the 12th day of March next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Crown Inn, in the City of Worcester, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing, or joining with any person or persons having a mortgage, lien, or other incumbrance in selling and disposing, of all or any part of the freehold, leasehold, and copyhold estates of the said Bankrupt (or wherein he had any interest, and of such estate or interest only), either by public auction or private contract, and if by public auction, with liberty for the Assignees to buy in and resell the same, without being answerable for any loss or expence, and in such lots, at such time or times, place or places, to such person or persons, whether such person or persons shall have a mortgage, lien, or incumbrance or not, for such price or prices, in money or otherwise; and generally to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees conducting such sale and sales as they shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees ascertaining, adjusting, determining, and settling the amount due to any person or persons by way of mortgage, lien, or other incumbrance of or upon any part or parts of the freehold, leasehold, or copyhold estates of the said Bankrupt; and to the said Assignees releasing, conveying, assigning, or assuring any such estate or estates to any such person or persons so having any such mortgage, lien, or other incumbrance, or otherwise, as they, or any of them respectively, shall direct, in consideration of such mortgage, lien, or other incumbrance, or to or in part satisfaction thereof, and to such extent, or for such other consideration as the said Assignees shall deem right; and also to take into consideration the propriety of having a valuation or separate valuations made of the said freehold, leasehold, and copyhold estates, for the guidance of the said Assignees in making or joining in any sale, release, conveyance, assignment, or assurance as aforesaid, and to determine thereon; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing an accountant, collector, or other person, to investigate the dealings or transactions of the said Bankrupt, to make up, settle, and adjust any of his books or accounts, to collect debts or rents, and make such compensation to such person for trouble as the said Assignees shall see just and proper; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees taking such steps or proceedings as they shall think necessary to get into their possession, or that of their Attorney, the papers in a certain suit, now pending in the High Court of Chancery (and to be named at the said meeting), in which the said Bankrupt was, and his estate now is, interested; and to the said Assignees paying a Solicitor formerly employed by the said Bankrupt certain costs, so far as respects the conducting of such suit on the part of the said Bankrupt, or rejecting the same, or otherwise arranging relating thereto as the said Assignees shall conceive best; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees continuing to prosecute the said suit, or otherwise agreeing relating thereto; also to hear and consider the steps which have or shall have been taken by the Assignees in disposing of the stock in trade, household furniture, and other effects of the said Bankrupt, and as to certain allowances and payments made by them to the wife and family of the said Bankrupt, and as to any future allowance or payments, and on various other matters relating to the burthen of the said Assigneeship, which will be fully stated at the said meeting; and to confirm and ratify any such acts and payments so done or made by the said Assignees, or to assent to or dissent from the same, and the future proceedings to be taken concerning the same; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, or prosecuting or opposing any petition or petitions, for the recovery, discovery, getting in, defending, or protecting any part or parts of the said Bankrupt's freehold, leasehold, copyhold, or personal estate; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Samuel Farmer, of Atherstone, in the County of Warwick, Mercer and Draper, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 10th day of March next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Offices of Mr. Stafford Stratton Baxter, in Atherstone aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling, or joining and concurring with the Mortgagees and Trustees of the freehold messuage, dwelling-house, and premises of the said Bankrupt, situate at Atherstone aforesaid, in the sale of the said messuage, dwelling-house, and premises, by public auction or private contract, and for such price or prices as to the said Assignees shall seem expedient; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling the life estate, or other the estate or interest, of the said Bankrupt of and in certain premises, situate at Atherstone aforesaid, and Witherley, in the County of Leicester, conveyed and assured to, or in trust for, the said Bankrupt by John Sanders, of Atherstone aforesaid, Liquor-Merchant; and of and in the moneys to arise from the sale thereof, by public auction or private contract, and for such price or prices as to the said Assignees shall seem expedient; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees buying in any of the aforesaid premises at any auction, and afterwards reselling the same at any future auctions, although for less money; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing any action or actions at law, for the recovery of any debt or debts due to the said Bankrupt, as they shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees compounding, settling, and adjusting any debt or debts due to the said Bankrupt as they shall think expedient; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees submitting to arbitration any dispute or disputes between the said Bankrupt and any of his Debtors and Creditors as shall seem expedient, and particularly between the said Bankrupt and the Trustees and Executors acting under the will of William Tompson, the father of the Bankrupt's wife, as to the rights of the said Bankrupt under such will, in right of his wife; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country."—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 13th day of February 1830, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by HENRY PAULIN, late of the Borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed, Innkeeper, Dealer and Chapman (and now a prisoner in the King's-Bench Prison), that he is in insolvent circumstances and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.
