

Whitehall, February 13, 1830.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed William Blow Collis, of Cannock, in the county of Stafford, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, February 15, 1830.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed John William Littlewood, of Doncaster, in the county of York, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

The Lord Chancellor has also appointed William Price, of Abergavenny, in the county of Monmouth, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, February 18, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about two o'clock on the morning of Thursday the 21st day of January last, the body of Grace, the wife of William Andrew, was found barbarously murdered, in one of the lower rooms of a house occupied by them at Calenick, near Truro, in the county of Cornwall;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the murder before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the said crime) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by J. H. James, Esq. of Truro.

Whitehall, February 18, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, between seven and eight o'clock on the evening of Tuesday the 9th day of February instant, Mr. Gilpin, surgeon, of Crewkerne, was maliciously and feloniously shot at, near the two mile-stone on the road leading from Crewkerne to Bowgate, in the county of Somerset, by some evil-disposed person unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually shot at the said Mr. Gilpin) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by J. A. Templeman, Esq. of Crewkerne.
