

equitable mortgages upon certain leases of part of the said Bankrupt's estate, in the sale of such premises; or to the said Assignees assigning and assuring to such equitable Mortgagees the premises referred to or comprised in their respective leases or securities, with or without a further consideration; or to the said Assignees compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise compromising all disputes and differences with any person or persons in respect of the same, or any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the said Assignees otherwise agreeing to any other matter relating thereto as they may deem most expedient; and also to the said Assignees granting an underlease or underleases of any of the said Bankrupt's leasehold houses or premises, for such period or term as to the said Assignees shall seem expedient, for the benefit of the said Bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, carrying on or prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, of, for, or concerning the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Robert Evans, of Leamington Priors, in the County of Warwick, Wine and Brandy-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 20th day of March next, at Twelve of the Clock at Noon, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, for the purpose of assenting to or dissenting from the said Assignees making such arrangement with a certain person, to be named at the said meeting, or any other person, in respect of the freehold premises, called the Shakspeare Tavern, with the appurtenances, in Leamington Priors aforesaid, now in the occupation of the Bankrupt, but represented to belong to the said certain person, as they may deem proper, or to take such proceedings against the said certain person as the said Assignees shall be advised in respect thereof; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing, by public auction or private contract, or partly by one mode and partly by the other, or by valuation, or otherwise, all or any part of the said freehold messuages, hereditaments, and premises, belonging to the said Bankrupt, or the estate and interest held by him therein at the time of his bankruptcy, at such price or prices, and upon such security and conditions, as the said Assignees shall think fit, and with full power at any such auction to buy in the property offered thereat at the risk and expence of the said Bankrupt's estate, and afterwards to sell the same, by either of the means aforesaid; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of all or any part of the said stock in trade and personal estate and effects of the said Bankrupt to any person or persons whomsoever, including the said Bankrupt, either by public auction or private contract, at such price or prices, and at such times and places, as they shall think advisable, and either for ready money or on credit; and to their taking such bill or bills, promissory note or notes, for any part thereof, on account of the said Bankrupt's estate, as they may deem expedient; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying to the petitioning Creditor the sum of £13, the same having been paid by him to James London, for wages due to him up to the date of the said Commission from the said Bankrupt, and a certain sum, not exceeding in the whole the sum of £10, for the expences incurred by the petitioning Creditor previously to the issuing of the Commission, in ascertaining the state of the said Bankrupt's affairs, and endeavouring to effect an arrangement thereof; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying in full, or in part, the wages due to the servants of the said Bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees allowing the said Bankrupt to take his household goods, or any part thereof, at a valuation, appraisement, or otherwise, and at such price as they shall think fit, and with or without security, as to them may seem advisable; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees continuing to carry on the trade or business of the said Bankrupt, and retaining and employing the said Bankrupt, or any other persons, in the management thereof, and to their paying him or them for such management, and to their discharging the rent now due, if any, for the said premises, and to their continuing the possession thereof at the risk of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects for such time as they may deem conducive to a beneficial sale of the stock and property thereon; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees making such payments to, or arrangements and compromises with, any person or persons having, or claiming to have, mortgages, liens, or other securities upon the real or personal estate of the said Bankrupt, or any deeds and papers connected therewith, as to Assignees may seem advisable; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing the said Bankrupt, or any other person or persons, or an accountant, in the investigation and management of the affairs of the said Bankrupt, or in collecting, recovering, and receiving the debts and effects due and belonging to his estate, and to their making the said Bankrupt, so employed, and such other person or persons as aforesaid, such payment or compensation for his or their services as to the said Assignees shall seem just; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees, with the Solicitor, going to Leamington Priors, or elsewhere, on the affairs of the said Bankrupt, when and as they shall deem necessary, and being paid all and every the expences incurred thereby out of the said Bankrupt's estate, and also to allow, ratify and confirm or disallow all that may have been done, either by the provisional Assignee or by the said Assignees, in carrying on the business of the said Bankrupt, or otherwise, previously to the said 20th day of March next; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying any losses and all expences incurred thereby out of the said Bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, for the recovery of, or in any wise concerning any part or parts of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; and to the said Assignees submitting to arbitration, or otherwise arranging or compounding any dispute, suit, or difference between the said Assignees and any persons relative to any part of the said estate and effects; and to their compromising with any debtor or debtors to the said Bankrupt's estate, and accepting any composition or compositions in full satisfaction and discharge of the debt or debts so to be compromised; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against James Philpott, of Billericay, in the Parish of Great Burstead, in the County of Essex, Coach-Proprietor, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Monday the 22d day of March next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing proceedings at law, for the recovery of certain property alleged to belong to the Bankrupt's estate, and to be particularly named at the said meeting; and generally to authorise and empower the said Assignees as to compounding with or giving time for payment to any debtor or debtors to the estate; and also to the commencing, prosecuting, or defending any other suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovering, defending, or protecting any part of the said Bankrupt's estate or effects, or submitting to arbitration, or agreeing to any matter or thing relating to the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such