

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday October 4 to Monday October 8. 1683.

Whitehall, October 6.

THE following Addresses having been presented to His Majesty, His Majesty was pleased to receive them very graciously.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

Great Sir,

WE the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand-Jury, Gentlemen, and Free-holders, your Loyal Subjects of your County Palatine of Lancaster, met at the Assizes at Lancaster, the Twenty seventh of August, in the five and thirtieth year of your Majesties Reiga.

Do with one Heart give and renew our thanks to Almighty God, for all his Wonderful Preservations of your Majesty, and for the mighty Deliverance he hath now wrought for your Majesty and us, in protecting your Sacred Person and Royal Brother from the accursed Cruelty of conspiring Mifcreants, those Canting Pretenders to Conscience and Purity, the Charming Crocodiles of a new Babel, who in Sheepes cloathing are Ravenous Wolves.

— You are Gods Vicegerent, we your humblest Subjects, our words must be few, from raised Retenments, from enflamed hearts, we avow we will readily at all times do all we can contributory to the Safety of your Sacred Person, and to the Ease, Satisfaction, and Tranquillity of your Royal heart, our Allegiance to your Majesty, were you less kind tous, would lead us to do all things in our Power for you as our Lawful Prince, and we can never be otherwise to your Lawful Successor.

We will peaceably, obediently, and faithfully Serve your Majesty, and to our Power preserve the Peace of your Government both in Church and State, as now by Law established, through the whole course of our Lives, with our Lives and Fortunes.

May the King of Kings preserve you, give you a Happy Life, and a Long and Prosperous Reiga over us; and may the hand wither whose heart is not with it, subscribing our selves with greatest Truth, Affection, Duty, and Humility,

Your Majesties most Loyal, and most Obedient Subjects.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Loyal Young Men and Apprentices of Your Majesties Ancient City and Liberty of Westminster.

Dread Sovereign.

WE Your Majesties most Dutiful, Loyal, and obedient Subjects, presume with all Humility, once more to approach Your Sacred Presence, with all Sincerity to declare our Irreconcilable Detestation and Abhorrensy of that Hellish and Damnable Fanctick Plot, (by Gods Providence discovered) designed against the Life of Your most Sacred Person, and the most Illustrious Prince James Duke of York, Your Royal and Dear Brother. We do with thankful Hearts, Bless the King of Kings, by whose All-Ruling Providence Your Royal Person was preserved, and Your good Subjects delivered from the dreadful Consequences that had most certainly followed. And we humbly crave leave to assure Your Majesty, that we are unanimously resolved, as one Man, (with the last drop of our Blood) whensoever Your Majesty shall please to lay Your Royal Commands on us, to oppose all Persons of such Damnable Antichristian Principles, That God Almighty would continue to pour the choicest of his Blessings on Your Majesties Royal Head; and that after

Your Majesties Celestial Coronation, there may never want one of Your Royal Race to sway the Scepter of these Your flourishing Kingdoms, till Time shall be no more: Is, and ever shall be the Prayers of us,

Your Majesties most Dutiful,
most Loyal, and Obedient Subjects.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Young Free-men, and Apprentices of Your Majesties ancient City of London.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE your Majesties most Dutiful, Loyal, and Obedient Subjects, do with all Humility and Submission presume to approach your Royal Presence, with hearts full of unspeakable Joy, to Congratulate your Majesties Happy Deliverance from that most Horrid, Treacherous, and Bloody Conspiracy, lately contrived and carried on by the Hellish Cabals of the Blood-thirsty Fanaticks, against your Sacred Person and Royal Brother; and being highly sensible of the Dutiful Allegiance we owe to your Sacred Majesty, your Heirs and Lawful Successors, and also very apprehensive of the Manifold Blessings we enjoy under your Wife and Gracious Government: We crave leave to assure your Majesty, that with the utmost hazard of our Lives, we will endeavour to defend your Royal Person and Government, against the Wicked and Rebellious Machinations of all open and secret Conspirators.

And as Almighty God has hitherto preserved your Majesty from the innumerable Dangers which by those Villains have been design'd against you, so we pray for the future, that he will protect your Sacred Person and Government, not only from all open Rebellion, but from all Treasonable Intentions whatsoever; and to continue your Majesty in a Long and Peaceable Reiga over us.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The most humble Address of Sir Christopher Philipson Knight, and the rest of the Gentlemen of the Grand-Jury for the County of Westmorland, at the Assizes holden at Appicby, August 18. Anno Dom. 1683.

May it please Your most Gracious Majesty,

WE Your Majesties most Loyal and most Obedient Subjects, being truly sensil how desperately some ungrateful, Atheistical, and Fanatical Traytors had design'd the Destruction of Your Majesty and Your Dearest Brother; think our selves in Duty bound, publicly to testify our exceeding Joy and Thanks to Almighty God, for the defeating of such execrable Contrivances; and though 'tis now late, yet we hope, even that may show, how impossible 'tis for us, in how long a time soever, to forget that we are still obliged so to do. For as we have heretofore declared our infinite satisfaction, in living under the best Prince, and best Government in the World; so we may expect 'twill be necessarily concluded, that we are ready with our Lives and Fortunes to defend the same. Your Majesties Justice has overtaken some of the Conspirators, and we hope it will do more: Not that we are glad to see Your Majesty has so many Enemies, but that those who are so, may be brought to condign Punishment. And we shall pray to God, still to defend Your Majesty, Your Heirs and lawful Successors, with the established Government; and place You in that happy Security, which is most Zealously wished for, and always shall, to the utmost of our Power, most heartily be maintained by us.

We the Justices of Peace, and other Gentlemen of the County of Westmorland, do humbly agree in this Address

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Grand-Inquest for the Body of the County of OXON, at the Assizes held there the Third day of September, in the Five and thirtieth Year of Your Majesties Reign.

Most Dread Sovereign,

THe late Hellish Conspiracy against the Life and Crown of your Sacred Majesty, and Royal Brother, James, Duke of York, carried on (though under the Character of True Protestants) by those Traiterous and Corrupted Spirits, who delight in Blood and Treason (as is most particularly set forth in Your Majesties late Declaration, every part of which, as we entirely believe, so we do with all dutiful Acknowledgments, return our most humble Thanks for Your Majesties Gracious Condescension in Communicating to your Subjects-their own Dangers in that of your Royal Person) hath filled our thoughts with Admiration, That any of your Majesties Subjects (who in the most difficult times have been still covered with your Protection) should be so Impious as not only to Confire the Destruction of the best of Kings, but to leave no marks of Regality to succeed Your Crown; And had not Almighty God then prevented, and your Majesties Prudent Government since suppressed the Violence of those Fanatical and Disorderly Villains, your Majesties Kingdoms had been involved in Blood and Confusion.

To God we give Thanks for this your Majesties safe Deliverance out of the hands of those Damnable Republicans, and at Your Royal Feet with all Humility, we prostrate our Lives and Fortunes, for the Defence of your Sacred Person Your Crown and Dignity, your Government Ecclesiastical and Civil as now Established, and the Succession of the Crown in the right Line, against all your secret and open Enemies; And do humbly implore Almighty God to grant to your Majesty length of days, accompanied with a prosperous and happy Reign over us here, and to preserve Your Sacred Head with a Crown of Glory in the Life to come. To this we all Amen.

We the Justices of the Peace for the said County, do cheerfully and heartily Concur with the Grand-Jury in this Address to His Majesty.

To the King's most Sacred Majesty,

The humble Address of Your Majesty's most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, the Inhabitants of Your Majesty's Ancient Borough of Great Marlow in the County of Bucks.

May it please your most Excellent Majesty,

TO accept the most humble and hearty Acknowledgments of us Your most Obedient Subjects, for the late wonderful Deliverance, which Almighty God, by so many concurring Providences hath vouchsafed to Your Majesty, from that Execrable and bloody Conspiracy against the Life of your most Sacred Majesty, and the Life of the most Loyal and best of Brothers, James, Duke of York; contrived, fomented, and carried on by Fanatics, Atheists, and Men frequenting Conventicles, who the better to colour their Hellish and Damnable Designs, call themselves True-Protestants, and under the specious pretence of having Tender-Consciences, Diligence with Perjuries, and steal Sacraments to serve a turn and further their Republick Interests.

But (thanks be to God) their Treasons are Detected and your Majesty preserved, and may You never want that blessed Providence which hath hitherto attended your Safety; May all your Subjects be endued with the Spirit of Obedience and Resignation; May your Reign be prosperous, and your days many, and every day as Auspicious as that wherein the Fire happened at New-Market.

But we come not only in all humility to Address our Thanks, but to repeat our Vows too, of our continued and resolved Loyalty. And we do again assure Your Majesty, That we are, and will always be ready to protect and defend Your most Sacred Person, your Royal Brother, and lawful Successors, your Imperial Crown and Prerogative, to the utmost of our Lives and Fortunes, against all Plots and Conspiracies whatever. And it is our unanimous Consent, whenever it shall please Your Majesty to call a Parliament, to use our best endeavours to choose such as are truly affected to Your Majesty, the Government, and our Religion as now established by Law: And we hope, such as will never comply with Votes like that of repealing any Laws made against Dissenters, but may be promoters of all further possible means, throughly to extirpate all Conventicles, and other Factions whatever.

These, Dread Sovereign, are the firm Resolutions of us

Your Majesties most obedient Subjects, who though we now come in the Rear of the many more early Congratulatory Addresses, yet we avow with all Sincerity that is possible, there are none ill able more ready to march in the Front against any your Majesties Enemies, than Your Majesties most Loyal and most Obedient Subjects.

Most Dread Sovereign,

WE Your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the high Sheriff, Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace and Grand-Jury of the County of Berks, at the Assizes held at Abbingdon, this Seventh day of August, for the said County; Being thoroughly sensible of our Happiness under your Majesties Government, where Mercy has even overflowed, and Justice been never denied to any but Your Self; Are wonderfully amazed at the Growing Impudence of the Dissenting Party, who from assuming the Name of True-Protestants, and shadowing their Actions under a Specious Opposition to Popery and Arbitrary Power, and by attempting the Abrogation of those Laws, which have hitherto secured us, under pretence of Union, and from being busy in Elections, talking Irreverently, writing seditiously, and acting Tumultuously; did at last arrive to that startling Impiety, that matchless unpresidented Villany, of a tempting Your Sacred Life, and that of your Royal Brother, in whole Breasts they would have stabbed each Loyal Heart, and our Church and Government (The Purest and Best in the World) had dated their Ruines from that fatal Moment; for which unexpressible Deliverance, as in Duty bound, we return our most hearty Thanks to Almighty God, who interposed his watchful Providence, just in the very minute, when Hell was bigg'd with Expectation, and dispersed the blackest Storm that ever hurried rearing over these Three Nations. And we do with all humility assure your Sacred Majesty, That we will all of us in our respective Places, steadily endeavour the Suppression of all Fanatical and Seditious Meetings those fruitful Nurseries where Treason and Rebellion are sown, and by all artful Villanies improved to such a monstrous height; And we will every man of us, dispose our Lives, Fortunes and Interest, for the Preservation of your Majesty and your lawful Successor, and for defence of your present Government both in Church and State, as by Law Established. And we do all humbly pray that as your Majesties Restauration was Miraculous, and Your Goodness ever since no less, and your last Preservation wonderful, That so all your future life may in the unusual length, health and peace of Your days, and the Merited Love of all your Subjects, be equally Remarkable.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

The most humble and hearty Address of Your Majesty's most dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bayliff, Capital Burgessees, and Commonalty of Your Majesty's Ancient Borough and Town of Weymouth and Melcomb Regis, in Your County of Dorset.

Humbly sheweth,

THAT calling to mind the still repeated Mercies of the Almighty, whereby Your Sacred Majesty hath been preserved to, and in the Throne of this Kingdom, from open Rebels and secret Conspirators, especially having fresh in our memories, the late Miraculous Manifestation of the Goodness of God, in the happy deliverance of Your Sacred Majesty, and Your Dearest Brother, his Royal Highness, the Duke of York, from the horrid and bloody Conspiracy of ill-affected and desperate Sons of Belial, the worst of Men, Associated together to Destroy the best of Kings and Princes, and by Civil War to Ruine the best Monarchy on Earth for its most Excellent Government in Church and State; We most humbly beseech Your Majesty to be assured, That our mouths are filled with the Praises of the Lord, and our hearts with Joy. That with our Souls we detest and abhor all Conspiracies and Principles that have been productive of, or tending to the same.

That our Prayers to Him by whom Kings Reign, shall be, That as He hitherto hath delivered, so would in Mercy to us, still continue to deliver and preserve your Sacred Majesty, and scatter all your Enemies that delight in Blood.

That our Endeavours shall be, to the utmost of our power, with our Lives and Fortunes, constantly to avow Your Majesty, Royal Prerogatives, and your Heirs, and Successors in a true and right Line.

That whensoever it shall please your Sacred Majesty in your Princely Wisdom, to Summon a Parliament, we shall Elect no Burgeses that we can by any means understand to have been a Contriver or Promoter of, Consenter to, or in the least Approver of the Framing of the late Abominable Bill of Exclusion, but only Persons signally and constantly Loyal to their their King, and Conformable to the Government established in Church and State; And we desire no longer to breathe, than we approve our selves Sincere and Faithful in whatever we have here under our Hands most Solemnly declared and promised.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Borough of Ludgerhall in the County of Wilts.

Most Dread Sovereign,

WE should not presume to add to that Weight of Affairs that attend your Royal Throne, and not the loud cry of Rebellion and Treason Alarm all your Loyal Subjects, and render it a duty in them to declare their Abhorrence of those Bloody Phanatic Principles, that so lately hath laid wast this your Nation with the Martyrdom of your Royal Father, and so sigh compassed our ruine, by Designs against your Person and Government.

We most humbly crave leave to congratulate this your Majesties Deliverance, and the safety of your Illustrious Brother, and to accept of these Protestations as the Duty of us your Poor Subjects, to serve your Majesty and Lawful Successors, with our Lives and Fortunes against all Opposers; and as conducting thereunto, resolve to make this a guide of our Suffrages, in all Elections to choose such men as shall be of undoubted Loyalty to your Majesty, and to the Government in Church and State. And that your Reign may be long over us, and Crowned with Success over all your Enemies, is the Prayers of, &c.

We desire that Colonel Neale and Colonel Clerke would assist our Rector, Mr. John Torbuek, in the Delivery of this Address.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and hearty Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of Your Ancient Borough of Christchurch in the County of Southampton.

WE Your most Loyal and obedient Subjects, having unto Horror and Amazement, been informed and assured of the Trayterous and Execrable Designs of the most wicked and most ungrateful of men in conspiring to murder Your Sacred Majesty, and the most Illustrious James Duke of York, Your Dearest Brother; and to Imbrue Your Majesties Kingdoms in the Blood of Your Subjects, by levying a Civil War therein. To prevent which, we pray unto God, the Protector of Princes, to defend Your Sacred Majesty and Royal Brother, that no villainous Associations nor Plots, forged in private Clubs or Conventicles, may ever disturb the Tranquillity of Your Majesties Reign, or the Right of Your Lawful Successor to the Crown. And we Your Loyal Subjects shall ever be ready to defend to the uttermost of our Power, and Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, Your Gracious Majesty, Your Heirs and lawful Successors, and Government as now most happily is established in Church and State, against all Traitorous Conspiracies and Associations whatsoever: And we pray that Your most Gracious Majesty may always vanquish and overcome all Your Enemies, and also enjoy a Long and Happy Reign over us. This is, and always shall be, the fervent Prayers of

(Great Sir.)
Your Majesties most Dutiful,
and Loyal Subjects.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of Your Majesties dutiful and Obedient Subjects, the Bayliff, Constable and all other Inhabitants of Your Majesties Ancient Borough of Stockbridge, in the County of Southampton.

MAY it please Your most Excellent Majesty, to accept the humble and hearty Congratulations of your mean and unworthy Subjects, who though we did not for ourly bear a part in the many Loyal Addresses that have been made, yet since we never joynd in any of those Petitions that were unmannerly and undutifully offer'd to You, nor otherwise medled with State Affairs; hoped that our silence would be graciously interpreted to signifie our perfect Acquiescence in your Majesties great Willdom and Goodness. But now awakened with the sense of that Danger, which lately threatened the Life of Your Majesties Sacred Person, and that of your Illustrious Brother, James, Duke of York; Cannot but give Your Majesty and the World this Testimony, That we do offer up to Almighty God, our hearty Thanks for your Signal and most Miraculous Preservation from the Designs of Irreligious and Blood-thirsty Men; continuing our Prayers, That no Villanous Plots, Clubs, or Cabals, may hereafter disturb the Tranquillity of Your Majesties Reign, or the Right of your lawful Successors to the Crown; For the preservation whereof, all that is dear unto us, even our very Lives we are ready to Sacrifice.

In Testimony whereof, we have unanimously Subscribed our Names, and caused the Common-Seal of our Borough to be hereunto affixed, the sixth day of August, Anno Dom. 1683. and in the Five and thirtieth Year of Your Majesties Gracious Reign.

Whitehall, October 1. This day the Governor and several of the most Eminent Members of the Fellowship of Merchants Adventurers of England, attended His Majesty, and humbly presented the following Address, which His Majesty received very graciously, and with particular marks of His Royal Favor to that ancient Company.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesties most Loyal and Obedient Subjects, the Governour and Fellowship of Merchants Adventurers of England, residing in London, Hamburg, Dort, and in several Corporations within this your Majesties Kingdom; having lately, to our great Amazement and Astonishment, received the Information of a most Traitorous and Bloody Design against the Life of your Sacred Majesty, and of your Dearest Brother the Duke of York, and since received the Confirmation of the truth thereof, both by the Confessions of several of the said Conspirators, and by many other most clear and undeniable Proofs; do give our most hearty and unfeigned Thanks to Almighty God, for the miraculous Deliverance of your Majesty and His Royal Highness from the same; and therein of us, and all other your Majesties Faithful Subjects, from the inexpressible Calamity and Confusion which must infallibly have overwhelmed your Three Kingdoms, if the said execrable Conspiracy had taken its designed effect, and we do in all Humility assure your Majesty, that it shall be our daily Prayer that you may long Reign over us, and be for ever protected from all the Attempts of wicked, unreasonable, and ungrateful men; and that we shall be always willing and ready to expose our Lives and Fortunes in the defence of your Majesties Sacred Person, your Royal Successors, and your Government both in Church, and State, as now by Law established, against all that shall oppose the same; sincerely professing, that we do believe the Blessings of Peace, Plenty, and Prosperity, which we now enjoy, in a Degree not equalled by any other Nation in the World, cannot be continued to us and our Posterity, under any other Government than that of a Monarchy, which we hope, and pray, may by the Blessing of the King of Kings, be firmly established in all your Dominions, in the Person of your Majesty, and your Royal and Lawful Successors, even to the end of Time.

Vienna, September 26. Our Advices from Hungary do all speak of the great Consternation that is among the Turks, which the King of Poland and the Duke of Lorraine seem resolved to make use of, and to besiege Gran or Buda; Several pieces of Cannon for Battery were sent from hence yesterday to the Army, and our Governor the Count de Starenberg, intends to follow to morrow. Count Tekeley, as we are told, does apply himself to the King of Poland, by whose Interposition he hopes to make his peace with the Emperor; but it's said that King has let him know, that to manifest his Sincerity, he must immediately employ his Arms against the Turks, and that otherwise he will not appear on his behalf. We are hard at work here to demolish the Enemies Approaches, to cleanse the Town, and to repair our Fortifications.

Vienna, Sept. 30. We have an account from Presburg, that the King of Poland arrived there the 24th instant, and that having seen the Town, and been complimented by the Governor and Magistrates, he returned in the evening to his Camp; and that the next day his Army passed the Danube, over a Bridge of Boats, about a mile below Presburg, and marched into the Island Schurz; That the 27th the Imperial Army likewise passed that River at the same place, and when these Letters came away away from Presbourg, the Polish and Imperial Armies were encamped in the said Island, within a mile of each other, but were preparing to decamp, in order, as was said, to their going to besiege Gran, or some other important place. We cannot hear that the Turks are any where together in a body, their Forces being perfectly broken and dispersed. It is confirmed that the Grand Visier has caused the Bassa of Buda and two other Bassa's to be strangled.

Frankfort, October 5. We expect our next Letters from Vienna, will inform us that the Christian Army is set down before Gran, or some other place. Our last told us, The Desolation which the Turks and Tartars made wherever they came, is hardly to be expressed; it is reckoned they burnt 3000 Villages, Towns, and Castles, and that they carried away 20000 Persons, besides the great number they destroyed. We have an account, that since the raising of the Siege, a great many people have died at Vienna, the Air being corrupted by the stink of the Turkish Camp.

Cologne, Octob. 8. We are every day more and more sensible of the great defeat the Turks received at Vienna. Our Advices from Hungary tell us, that their Forces are so broken, that they will not be able to appear again this year in any considerable Body. And from Vienna they write, that there were taken in the Turkish Camp 104 Pieces of Cannon great and small, 4000 Barrils of Powder, 18000 Cannon Bullets, 2000 hand Grenadoes, a great quantity of Lead, Match, and Saltpeter, with all sorts of Instruments, and other things necessary in an Army and a Siege; and that the King of Poland had found in the Grand Visiers Tent to the value of a Million of Crowns, greatest part thereof being in ready money and Jewels. The Elector of Saxony is gone home with his Troops.

Hamburg, October 8. They write from Rensburg, That the King of Denmark, parted from thence on Thursday last in his return to Copenhagen. The last Danish Letters told us, That the French Squadron, which lay then before Copenhagen, was expecting Orders to return home; and that the King of Sweden, having taken a review of his Troops near Gottenburg, was gone back for Stockholm, where a great Embally was arrived from Moscow.

Hague, O. E. 12. The States of Holland have not yet agreed to the new Levy of 16000 men, demanded by the Council of State; and the Deputies of the most considerable Towns are gone home to consult their Principals therein. The Fleet of this State lies still at Sclonevelt. Our Letters from Vienna, of the 30. past, give an account, That the Christian Army had passed the Danube near Presbourg, and that it was the general opinion they would Besiege Gran or Buda, the Turks being in so great a Consternation, and their Forces so scattered, that according to all appearance, they will not be able to appear in the Field again this year.

Paris, October 13. The King has given out Commissions for 10000 men, and when these are raised, there will be another Levy of 10000, and so on, till the 40000 men, which his most Christian Majesty has resolved to raise, are completed. The Court is at present at Versailles, the Dauphiness having been carried thither in a Chair, because of her being with Child. The French Gallies that were before Argiers, are returned to Marseilles. and we expect to hear very suddenly that Monsieur du Quefne, is arrived at Toulon. We have an account of the death of the King of Portugal.

Whitehall, Octob. 4. Mr. Attourney General acquainting His Majesty, That Judgement was entered upon the Quo Warranto against the City of London; according to His Majesties Command, His Majesty out of His Princely Care to provide for the Peace and Government of the City, commanded the late Lord Mayor and Sheriffs of the City, to attend him in Council, who attended accordingly, and being called in, Sir William Pritchard was sworn Lord Mayor, and Peter Daniel, and Samuel Dalwood Esquires, took the usual Oaths of Sheriffs; and His Majesty then delivered to them their Commissions under the Great Seal, to hold their respective Offices during His Pleasure.

His Majesty was likewise pleased to confer the Honor of Knighthood upon Thomas Fenner of the Inner Temple, Esq; and to constitute Him Recorder of the City of London.

Whitehall, October 4. This day the Right Honorable Sir George Jeffreys, Knight and Baronet, Lord Chief Justice of the Kings Bench, was Sworn of His Majesties most Honorable Privy Council, and accordingly took his place at the Board.

Whitehall, Octob. 5. The Chevalier de Ballati, Envoy Extraordinary from the Duke of Hanover, has had his Audiences of Leave of their Majesties, their Royal Highnesses, and the Prince and Princesses, being conducted therunto by Sir Charles Costerel Master of the Ceremonies, in the usual manner.

Advertisements.

Whereas on Friday night last, being the Fifth of this present October, Jackson the Maxfield Carrier was Robbed near Barnet of a parcel of Silk, Dyed into Cloth-colours. If any Person shall bring or proffer such Silk to sell; It's desired you secure both the Silk and the Person, and give Notice thereof to Mr. Dalwood near Bishopsgate London, and they shall be well Rewarded for the same.

The Creditors of Benjamin Hinton who have not subscribed, which are not many, are desired to repair forthwith to the House of Mr. Edward Ambrose Attorney in the Stocks Market, there to Sign a Writing of Agreement between the said Hinton and his Creditors, for that the time for subscribing will be expired on the 20th of this instant October, and farther delay or neglect therein will be irreparable Damage to themselves and to the rest of the Creditors.

Stolen out of a Stable in Nuneaton in Warwickshire, on the second of October, a Black Nag, inclining to a Mouse Dun, with a short Mane, comes seven years old, about fourteen hands and a half high, with a bob Tail, and a Star in the Forehead, and with a blemish in the far Eye; by a man of a big tall Stature, with Pock-holes in his Face, about forty years old, with ltrait brown Hair, with a pair of Buck-skin Breeches, and high-coloured Cloaths: If any one can apprehend or give tidings of him or the Horse to Mr. Christopher Shiers at the old Castle in Smithfield London, or to Mr. John Parker Mercer in Nuneaton in Warwickshire, shall have a Guinea for their pains.

All Persons born in the County of Northampton, are desired to take notice, that there will be held a County Feast on the eighth day of November next, at Drapers Hall, for the promoting of Mutual Society and Charity: Tickets are to be had at the Places following; Mr. Charles Mellers at the Bull-head in Woodstreet; Mr. Benjamin Alfop at the Angel and Bible in the Poultry; Mr. Wickins at the White Hart over against St. Dunstons Church in Fleetstreet; Jonathans Coffee-house in Exchange-Alley in Cornhill; At Mr. Sheppards at the Men and Chickens near the Gate on London-Bridge.

On the 26th past, one Cox was apprehended at Charing in Kenr, on suspicion of stealing a Bay Mare near fourteen Hands high: He or they that has lost such a Mare, may live her prying the Charges. The said Cox broke away that night from the Constable, and is supposed to have taken with him a Sorrel Gelding about fourteen Hands and a half high, with a bald Face, two white Feet, and a long flag Tail, from one John Abdey of the same Parish of Charing, on the 26th of September last. Whosoever gives notice of the said Gelding to Mr. Charles Harper Bookseller at the Flower de Luce in Fleetstreet over against St. Dunstons Church, or to the said John Abdey at his House in Charing, shall be very well rewarded, and their Charges borne.