To the King's Must Excellent Majest j.

The humble Address of the Grand-Inquest for the Body of the County of Oxon, at the Assizes beld there the Third day of September, in the Five and thirtieth Year of Your Majesties Reign.

Most Dread Soveraign,

The late Hellish Conspiracy against the Life and Crown of your Sacred Majetty, and Royal Brother, James, Duke of York, carried on (though under the Character of True Protestants) by those Traiterous and Corrupted Spirits, who delight in Blood and Treason (as is most particularly Constants of the Protestants of the P fer forth in Your Majetties late Declaration, every part of which, as we entirely believe, so we do with all dutiful Acknowledgments, return our most humble Thanks for Your Majellies Gracious Condescention in Communicating to your Subjects their own Dangers in that of your Royal Person) hath filled our thoughts with Admiration, That any of your Majelties Subjects (who in the most difficult times have been ttill covered with your Protection) thould be so Impious as not only covered with your Protection) thould be so Impious as not only to Conspire the Deltruction of the best of Kings, but to leave no marks of Regality to succeed Your Crown; And had not Almighty God then prevented, and your Majesties Prudent Government since suppressed the Violence of those Fanarical and Disorderly Villains, your Majesties Kingdoms had been Reinvolved in Blood and Confusion.

To God we give Thanks for this your Majesties safe Deligrations of the hands of the Daylor Branches.

verance out of the hands of those Damnable Republicans, and at Your Royal Feet with all Humility, we profitate our Lives and Fortunes, for the Defence of your Sacred Person Your Crown and Dignity, your Government Ecclesiallical and Civil as now Bitablished, and the Succession of the Crown in the right Line, against all your secret and on E emies; And do humbly Implore Almighty God to grant to your Majesty length of days, accompanied with a prosperous and happy Reign over us here, and to I teircle Your Sacred Head with a Crown of Closuria I teircle Your Sacred Head with a Crown of Glory in the Life to come. To this we all

We the 3 Slices of the Peace for the faid County, do chearfull and heartily Concur with the Grand-Jury in this Address to His Majesty.

To the King's most Sacred Majesty,

The bumble Address of Your Maj Ris noft Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, the Inhabitants of Your Majesties Antient Borough of Great Marlow in the County of Bucks.

May it please your most Excellent Majesty,

To accept the most humble and hearty Acknowledgments of us. Your most Obedient Subjects, for the late wonderful Deliverance, which Almighty God, by so many concurring Providences hath vouchsafed to Your Majetty, from that Execrable and bloody Conspracy against the Life of your most Sacred Majetty, and the Life of the most Loyal and best of Brothers, Jumes, Duke of York; contrived, somened, and carried on by Fanaticks, Athelits, and Men frequenting Convenieles a who the better to colour their fomented, and darr ed on by. Fanaticks, Atheilfs, and Men frequenting Conventicles a who the better to colour their Hellish and Damnable Daigus, call themfelves True-rote-stants, and under the specious pretence of having Tender-Consciences, Dispence with Perjuries, and steal Sacraments to serve a turn and surther their Republick Interests.

But (thanks be to God) their Treasons are Detected and your Majesty preserved, and may You never want that blessed Providence which hath hitherto attended your Safery; May all your Subjects be endued with the Spirit of Obedience and Resignation; May your Reign be prosperous, and your days many, and every day as Auspicous as that wherein the Fire happened at New-Market.

But we come not only in all humility to Address our

But we come not only in all humility to Address our Thanks, but to repeat our Vows too, of our continued and resolved Loyalry. And we do again assure Your Majesty, That we are, and will always be ready to protect and defend Your most Sucred Person, your Royal Brother, and lawful Successors, your Imperial Crown and Prerogative, to the unsult of the processors of the proc most of our Lives and Fortunes, against all Plots and Conspiracies whatever. And it is our upanimous Consent, whenever it shall please Your Majesty to call a Parliament, to use our best endeavours to choose such as are truly affected to Your Majelty, the Government, and our Religion as now eltablished by Law: And we hope, such as will never comply with Votes like that of repealing any Laws made against Dissenters, but may be promoters of all further possible means, throughly to extirpate all Conventicles, and other Pactions

These, Dread Soveraign, are the firm Resolutions of us

Your Majetties most obedient Subjects, who though we now come in the Reer of the many more early Congra-tulatory Addresses, yet we awow with all Sincer ity that is possible, there are none if all be more ready to march in the Front against any your Majesties E-emiss, than Your Majellies most Loyal and molt Obenient Subjects.

Most Dread Soveraign,

E Your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the high Sheriff Departy-Lieutenants. Justices of the Peace and Grand-Jury of the County of Berks, at the Alizes held at Abbingdon, this Seve th day of August, for the faid County; Reing throughly lensible of our Happiness under your Majetties Government, where Mercy has even overflowed, and Justice been never denied to any but Your Selr; flowed, and Justice been never denied to any but Your Selt; Are wonderfully amazed at the Growing Impudence of the Dissenting Party, who from assuming the Name of True-Protestants, and shadowing their Actions under a Specious Opposition to Popery and Arbitrary Power, and by attempting the Abrogation of those Laws, which have his herto secured us, under pretence of Union, and from being busic in Elections, talking Irreverently, writing Seditionsly, and acting Tumultuously; did at last arrive to that startling Impiery, that matchless unpresidented Vislany, of a tempting Your Sacred Life, and that of your Royal Brother, in whose Breasts they would have Stabb'd each Ly Heart, and out Church and Government (The Purett and E sieft in the World) had dated their Runnes from that hatal Moment; for which unexpressible Deliverance, as in Dory bound, we return our most hearty Thanks to Almighty God, who interposed his watchful Providence, just in the very minute, when Hell was bigg: It with Expectation, and dispersed the blacket Hell was biggett with Expectation, and dispersed the blackett Sorm that ever hus. T rearning over these Three Nasions. And we do with all humility affure your Sacred Mijest. That we will all of us in our respective Places, steadily endeavour the Suppression of all Fanatical and Seditions Meetings those the suppression of all Fanatical and Seditious Meetings those fruitful Nursewies where Treason and Rebellion are sown, and by all artful Villanies improved to such a Monstrous height; And we will every man of us, dispose our Lives, Fortunes and Interest, for the Preservation of your Majett, and your lawful Successor, and for defence of your present Government both in Church and State, as by Law Established. And we do all humbly pray that as your Majetses Reslauration was Miraculous, and Your Goodness ever since no less, and your last Preservation wonderful, That so all your stuture litemay in the unusual length, health and peace of Your days, and the Merited Love of all your Subjects, be equally Remarkable.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

The most bumble and bearty Address of Tour Majeslies most dutifil and Loya: Subjects, the Mayor. Aldermen, Bayliff, Capital Burgesses, and Commonalty of Tour Majesties Ancient Borough and Town of Ways mouth and Melcomb Regis, in Your County of Dorset.

Humbly Sheweth,

That calling to mind the still repeated Mercies of the Almighty, whereby Your Sacred Majelty bath been preferved to, and in the Throne of this Kingdom, from open Rebels, and secret Conspirators, especially having fresh in our memories, the late Miraculous Manifestation of the Goodmemories, the late Miraculous Manifeltation of the Good-ness of God, in the happy deliverance of Your Sacred Ma-jetty, and Your Dearest Brother, his Royal Highness, the Duke of York, from the horrid and bloody Conspiracy of Ill-affected and desperate Sons of Belial, the worst of Men, Associated together to Destroy the best of Kings and Princes, and by Civil War to Ruine the best Monarchy on Barth for its most Excellent Government in Church and State; We most hun bly beseech Your Majesty to be assured, That our mouths are filled with the Praises of the Lord, and our hearts with Joy. That with our Souls we detell and abhor all Conspiracies
