Foreign-Office, February 20, 1830.

THE King has been graciously pleased to nominate and appoint William Sharp Macleay, Esq. to be His Majesty's Commissary Judge, in the room of Henry Theophilus Kilbee, Esq. and Charles Mackenzie, Esq. to be His Majesty's Commissioner of Arbitration, in the room of William Sharp Macleay, Esq. to the mixed British and Spanish Commission established at the Havana, under the Treaty between Great Britain and Spain, of the 23d of September 1817.

Crown-Office, March 9, 1830.

MEMBER returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.

County of Waterford.

The Right Honourable George Thomas Beresford, commonly called Lord George Thomas Beresford, of Curraghmore, in the said county of Waterford, in the room of Henry Villiers Stuart, Esq. who has accepted the Chiltern Hundreds.

Whitehall, February 17, 1830.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed William Blunt Fosbrooke, of Loughborough, in the county of Leicester, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, March 2, 1830.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Blackmore Wilcocks, of the city of Exeter, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, February 25, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Thursday the 18th day of February instant, two stacks of hay, the property of John Ruddock, Esq. of Okerland, near Hexham, in the county of Northumberland, were wilfully and maliciously set on fire and consumed by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stacks) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL,

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by Mr. Ruddock, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, March 1, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Thursday the 18th day of February last, five valuable horses, belonging to Mr. Nathaniel Holmes, of Monks Eleigh, in the county of Suffolk, farmer, were wilfully and maliciously poisoned, by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, who administered to them arsenic mixed with bran;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of
