Crown-Office, March 16, 1830.

MEMBER returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.

County of Essex.

Thomas Gardiner Bramston, of Skreens, in Roxwell, in the county of Essex, Esq. in the room of Admiral Sir Eliab Harvey, deceased.

Whitehall, March 13, 1830.

The King has been pleased to grant unto Robert Wellbeloved, of the Middle-temple, London, Esq. Barrister at-Law, and unto Sarah his wife, only child of John Scott, of Stourbridge, in the county of Worcester, and of the Red-house in Great Barr, in the parish of Aldridge, in the county of Stafford, Esq. His royal licence and authority, that they may henceforth, in compliance with a clause contained in a certain deed of settlement, made and executed by the said John Scott, Esq. take and use the surname of Scott only; that the said Robert Wellbeloved may also bear the arms of Scott; and that the said surname and arms of Scott may, in like manner, be borne and used by the issue of their marriage; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

MULL OF GALLOWAY LIGHT-HOUSE.

THE Commissioners of the Northern Light-houses hereby give notice, that a Light-house has been erected upon the Mull of Galloway, in the county of Wigton; the light of which will be exhibited on the night of Friday the 26th day of March instant, and every night thereafter, from the going away of day-light in the evening till the return of day-light in the morning.

The following is a Specification of the Position of the Light-House, and the Appearance of the Light, by Mr. Stevenson, Engineer to the Commissioners:

The Mull of Galloway forms the southern extremity of the Mainland of Scotland, situate in lat. 54 deg. 38 min. N. and in long. 4 deg. 50 min. W. By compass, the Light-house bears from the largest of the Scare Rocks, W. $\frac{1}{4}$ N. distant 6 miles; from Barrowhead, W. by N. $\frac{3}{4}$ N. distant 18 miles; from the Point of Ayre Light-house, in the Isle of Man, N.N.W. distant 21 miles; from the Calf of Man Lights, N.N.E. distant 36 miles; from the South Rock, or Kilwarlin Light-house, in Ireland, E.N.E. $\frac{3}{4}$ E. distant 26 miles; and from Copeland Light-house, also in Ireland, S.E. by E. $\frac{1}{4}$ E. distant 21 miles. The light will be open or visible seaward from N.N.E. to N.W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W.; but the high lands of Dunman shut the light from the view of the mariner in coasting along the Portpatrick shores.

This light will be known to mariners as an intermittent light, suddenly appearing like a star of the first magnitude, and continuing in view two and a half minutes, when it is suddenly eclipsed for half a minute, thus producing its entire effect once in every three minutes.

The lantern is elevated 325 feet above the medium level of the sea, and in clear weather the light will be seen at the distance of seven or eight leagues, and at lesser distances, according to the state of the atmosphere.

By order of the Commissioners of the Northern Light-houses, C. Cunningham, Secretary.

Edinburgh, March 9, 1830.

CONTRACT FOR LINSEED OIL.

Navy-Office, March 13, 1830.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 31st instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying 35,000 Gallons of Linseed Oil.

To be delivered at His Majesty's Dock-yards within six months from the day of treaty, according to a distribution which, together with a sample and form of the tender, may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter, addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £1000, for the due performance of the contract. G. Smith.

All persons indebted to the said John Jessup Garrard's estate, are requested to pay the amount of their respective debts to the said Isaac Last, to whom the Creditors of the said John Jessup Garrard are requested to send an account of their respective debts.—Hadleigh, March 9, 1830.

IN ATKINSON'S BANKRUPTCY.

WHEREAS at a meeting of the Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt, bearing date at Westminster, the 10th day of August last, awarded and issued forth against William Atkinson, now or late of Cleckheaton, in the Parish of Birstal, in the County of York, Wool-stapler, Woollen-Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman, held at the Sessions-House, in Wakefield, in the said County, on the 13th day of March instant, pursuant to notice in the London Gazette for that purpose, the whole of the Creditor present at such meeting did agree with the said Bankrupt and his friends to receive a composition in full of their respective debts and claims against the said William Atkinson and his estate; now, in order to carry this resolution into effect, and as is by law required, notice is hereby given, that another meeting of the said Creditors who have proved their debts under the said Commission, will be held at the Sessions-House, in Wakefield aforesaid, on Thursday the 8th day of April next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, in order that the Creditors assembled at such meeting may agree to accept or decline to receive such offer of composition.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Wild, of Mumps, within Oldham, in the County of Lancaster, Cotton-Spinner, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said

Bankrupt, on Wednesday the 7th day of April next, at Three o'clock in the Afternoon, at the Palace Inn, in Manchester, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the machinery, stock and implements of trade, furniture, fixtures, effects, and other personal estate of the said Bankrupt, either by public sale or private contract, at a valuation or otherwise, or partly by public sale, and partly by private contract, and in one or more lot or lots, as the said Assignees in their discretion shall think fit; and to the said Assignees appointing a person or persons to bid on the behalf of, and at the risk of the said Bankrupt's estate, at any sale or sales by auction of the said machinery, stock in trade, implements, furniture and other personal estate of the said Bankrupt, or of any part or parts thereof, and again offering for and reselling the same by public sale or by private contract, or otherwise; and also to the said Assignees giving and allowing to the purchaser or purchasers thereof, at any sale, either by public auction or private contract, time for the payment of the purchase money, or any part thereof, with or without taking security for the payment, as the said Assignees shall think expedient; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Sir Matthew Bloxam, Knight, Thomas Wilkinson and William Bloxham, of Gracechurch Street, in the City of London, Bankers and Copartners, Dealers and Chapmen, are desired to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on Wednesday the 7th day of April next, at Eleven o'clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing and prosecuting a suit or suits in the High Court of Chancery, in Ireland, or taking and instituting such other proceeding or proceedings, either at law or in equity, as they may be advised or deem expedient against a certain person, who will be named at the meeting, for the recovery of and in relation to a large claim which the said Bankrupts' estate have against such person, and to direct and indemnify the said Assignees therein; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Henry Lloyd, of George Street, New Road, in the County of Middlesex, Jeweller, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 7th day of April next, at One o'clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall Street, in the City of London, for the purpose of assenting to or dissenting from the said Assignees proceeding to a sale of the stock in trade, household furniture, goods, fixtures and other estate and effects belonging to, in, and about the dwelling-house and premises occupied by the said Bankrupt, and claimed by a certain person, who will be named at the said meeting, under a bill of sale from the Sheriff of Middlesex, or to their giving up the same to the said certain person; also for the purpose of assenting to, or dissenting from the said Assignees taking such proceedings for compelling the payment to them of a certain sum of money now in the hands of the said Sheriff of Middlesex, or of his officer, arising from one or more levy or levies made upon the said Bankrupt's estate and effects at the suit of another certain person, who will also be named at the said meeting, or some other person or persons; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing a proper person to get in and receive the outstanding debts due and owing to the said Bankrupt's estate, and paying such person such reasonable allowance and compensation for his services as they may think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing or prosecuting and defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, or to their preferring, answering, or opposing any petition or petitions in the courts of law, or equity, or any of them, which they may think necessary, proper or advisable for the recovery, obtaining and keeping possession of any part of the said debts, stock in trade, estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; or to their compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Hoykett Broads, of Hastings, in the County of Sussex, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Thursday the 8th day of April next, at Twelve o'clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees carrying on the said Bankrupt's trade or business, for the benefit and at the risk of the said Bankrupt's estate, for such time as may be deemed necessary, and of buying such materials and things, and paying such expences of rent, or otherwise, as shall be needful for that purpose; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of, or concurring in the selling and disposing of, the Bankrupt's freehold estate, ships, stock and implements of trade, leasehold property, furniture, fixtures, and effects, either by public sale or private contract, at a valuation, or otherwise, or partly by public sale, and partly by private contract, and in one or more lot or lots, and at such time or times as they may think fit; and to the said Assignees giving such time or credit, and on personal credit, or taking such securities for the payment thereof, or of any part thereof, either by bills of exchange, or otherwise, as to the said Assignees shall appear proper or expedient, but at the risk of the said Bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees bidding and buying in all or any part of the said Bankrupt's property, at the risk, and on account of the said Bankrupt's estate as they in their discretion shall think proper and expedient, and afterwards reselling the same by public auction or private contract; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing the said Bankrupt, and such accountants, clerks, and other assistants, as may be necessary, to assist the said Assignees in disposing of the said Bankrupt's property, stock in trade and effects, and to arrange and adjust the books and accounts, and collect, get in and receive the outstanding debts due to the said Bankrupt's estate, and to the said Assignees making, allowing, and paying to the said Bankrupt, and such accountants, clerks and other assistants, such commission, allowance, compensation, or salary for their time, trouble, attention and services as to the said Assignees shall appear reasonable and proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the said Bankrupt's household furniture, plate, linen, china, pictures, fixtures and other effects, either by public sale or private contract, at a valuation or otherwise, and on credit, and for bills of exchange or otherwise, at the risk and expence of the estate; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees letting, or joining with the mortgagees in letting, such of the houses and premises belonging to the said Bankrupt's estate, either furnished or unfurnished, and by the year or otherwise, until the same shall be sold or disposed of, and to the said Assignees continuing the furniture now on the premises called Bohemia, and in Wellington Square, Hastings, and receiving from the mortgagees or tenants such rent or compensation for the use of the same as they may deem proper; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees doing and performing, or making an arrangement with the mortgagees of that part of the said Bankrupt's estate as is under mortgage for the necessary repairs and insurance of the several premises and furniture, and for the allowance of the same from the Bankrupt's estate, as they may consider advisable; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees cropping and cultivating, or concurring in the cropping and cultivating such part or parts of the said Bankrupt's estate as has been in cultivation, but at the risk and expence of the said Bankrupt's estate, or to their making an arrangement with the mortgagees for so doing at the risk of the Bankrupt's estate; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying, or making an arrangement with the Solicitors of the said Bankrupt for the discharge, settlement, or arrangement of their bills of costs and accounts, or taxing such bills of costs as they in their discretion shall think proper, or otherwise settling such costs with the said Solicitors to enable the said Assignees to obtain possession of the bills of exchange, deeds, abstracts, papers and documents in the hands of the said solicitors, and on which they claim a lien for such costs and accounts; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying and discharging, out of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, the salaries and wages due to the captains, officers, seamen and apprentices of the ships belonging to the Bankrupt's estate, and also the said Bankrupt's clerks, workmen, labourers and servants, and also all rent, rates, taxes and outgoings for the said Bankrupt's premises; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying and discharging, out of the said Bankrupt's estate, the costs, charges and expences incurred by the provisional Assignee in carrying on the said Bankrupt's business, and as to the said Assignees paying the costs and charges of convening and attending meetings of the said Bankrupt's Creditors previously to his Bankruptcy, and of putting in bill to an action at law in which the said Bankrupt was arrested when attending a meeting of his Creditors, and payments made incident to such arrest, and also the extra costs of the Solicitor to the petitioning Creditor up to the choice of Assignees, and of and attending the choice of Assignees; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees joining and concurring with the mortgagees, or persons claiming liens as equitable mortgagees, in the sale and disposal of such parts of the said Bankrupt's property as have been deposited or pledged, either by public sale or private contract, and conveying and assigning the same to the purchaser or purchasers thereof, subject to such mortgages or liens respectively, or otherwise, as may be thought most expedient and for the benefit of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, and to the Assignees making such arrangements for the collection of the rents and debts due at the time of the Bankruptcy, or that may hereafter become due, and also concurring with the said mortgagees in the collection of such rents as they the said Assignees may think proper, and to their paying such mortgagee's claims, or parts thereof; and to their selling the Bankrupt's interest in all or any mortgaged property at such prices, and on such terms as they may think proper, and deem most for the benefit of the said Bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits at law or in equity for the recovery or protection of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effect; or to their compounding, or permitting the holders of all or any bills to compound, and to the said Assignees submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to any matter or thing relating thereto; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees carrying into execution all and every contract or contracts entered into with Government, or the Commissioners of the Woods and Forests, and with any person or persons whomsoever, and to pay the consideration therein-mentioned, or otherwise act in the performance of such contracts, all, any, or either of them, or abandoning them to the mortgagees, or otherwise, or completing them, or any of them, by themselves, or a Trustee for them, as they shall think proper, but at the risk and on account of the said Bankrupt's estate, or to their effecting a sale or sales of such contract or contracts, either by public sale or private contract as the said Assignees shall think most expedient; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees making such allowance to the said Bankrupt as shall seem meet, and to their allowing him to retain and keep possession of the household furniture and effects in the house occupied by him for his own use and benefit, not exceeding in value the sum of £130, and to their continuing the allowance directed by the Commissioners to be made to him; and on other special affairs.
