AT the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of April 1830,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," after reciting, that "by the Law of Navigation foreign ships are permitted to import into any of the British possessions abroad, from the countries to which they belong, goods, the produce of those countries, and to export goods from such possessions to be carried to any foreign country whatever, and that it is expedient that such permission should be subject to certain conditions," it is enacted, "that the privileges thereby granted to foreign ships shall be limited to the ships of those countries which, having colonial possessions, shall grant the like privileges of trading with those possessions to British ships, or which, not having colonial possessions, shall place the commerce and navigation of this country, and of its possessions abroad, upon the footing of the most favoured nation, unless His Majesty, by His Order in Council, shall in any case deem it expedient to grant the whole or any of such privileges to the ships of any foreign country, although the conditions aforesaid shall not in all respects be fulfilled by such foreign country:"

And whereas by an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the Customs," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that no foreign country shall be deemed to have fulfilled the conditions so prescribed as aforesaid in and by the said Act so passed in the said sixth year of His Majesty's reign, as to be entitled to the privileges therein mentioned, unless such foreign country had in all respects fulfilled those conditions within twelve months next after the passing of the said Act, that is to say, on or before the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six; and for the better ascertaining what particular foreign countries are permitted by law to exercise and enjoy the said privileges, it is thereby further enacted, that no foreign country shall be deemed to have fulfilled the beforementioned conditions, or to be entitled to the privileges aforesaid, unless and until His Majesty shall by some Order or Orders to be by him made, by the advice of His Privy Council, have declared that such foreign country hath so fulfilled the said conditions, and is entitled to the said privileges; provided always, and it is thereby declared and enacted, that nothing therein contained, extends, or shall be construed to extend, to make void or annul any Order or Orders in Council theretofore issued, under the authority or in pursuance of the said recited Act of the sixth year of His Majesty's reign, or to take away or abridge the powers vested in His Majesty in and by the said Act, or any of those powers, any thing therein contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding:

And whereas His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth deem it expedient to grant the privileges aforesaid to the ships of the dominions of His Majesty the Emperor of Austria, His Majesty doth therefore, by the advice aforesaid, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authority in him vested by the said recited Acts of Parliament, declare and grant, that it shall and may be lawful for Austrian ships to import from the dominions of His Majesty the Emperor of Austria, into any of the British possessions abroad, goods, the produce of such dominions, and to export goods from such British possessions abroad, to be carried to any foreign country whatever:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Sir George Murray, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

The King has been pleased to direct letters patent to be passed under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, constituting and appointing His Grace Arthur Duke of Wellington, K.G.; the Right Honourable Henry Goulburn; Granville Charles Henry Somerset, Esq.

(commonly called Lord Granville Charles Henry Somerset); Edward Granville Eliot, Esq. (commonly called Lord Eliot); and George Banks, Esq.; and also Edmund Alexander McNaghten, Esq. to be Commissioners for executing the offices of Treasurer of the Exchequer of Great Britain and Lord High Treasurer of Ireland.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that, on the night of the 28th March last, a violent assault was committed near Hell's-bay, within the port of St. Ives, in the county of Cornwall, upon the persons of two Officers, belonging to the Coast Guard Service at Portreath and Hayle, in the said county (while employed in the execution of their duty in endeavouring to seize and secure a large quantity of foreign spirits, which had been smuggled on shore at or near Hell's-bay), by a number of men, who severely ill-treated them, and fired a pistol at and wounded one of the said Officers, so that he is now lying dangerously ill;

His Majesty, for the better discovering of the offenders concerned in the said outrage, is hereby pleased to offer His most gracious pardon to any one or more of the said persons present at and aiding in such outrage (save and except the person who actually fired the pistol at the said Officer), who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and brought to justice.

ROBERT PEEL.

And the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby offer a reward of THREE HUNDRED POUNDS to any person or persons who shall make such discovery (save and except as aforesaid); the same to be paid by the Collector of His Majesty's Customs at the port of St. Ives, in the said county of Cornwall, on the conviction of the offenders, or any of them.

By order of the Commissioners,

T. Whitmore, Secretary.

Whitehall, April 6, 1830.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that, about two o'clock in the morning of Wednesday the 31st ultimo, a large party of armed smugglers feloniously assembled on the sea shore, near Dymchurch, in the county of Kent, and were aiding and assisting in the illegal landing, running, and carrying away of uncustomed goods; and that in opposing this felonious act, and in seizing part of the said goods, Lieutenant Gustavus Spicker Baker, and Martin Donovan, seaman, both of His Majesty's ship Talavera, were attacked, violently beaten with clubs, and severely bruised;

His Majesty, for the better discovering the persons who have been guilty of this felony, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one or more of the persons so assembled (except those who actually committed violence on the said Lieutenant and seaman on this occasion), who shall discover his accomplices, so that they may be apprehended and brought to justice.

ROBERT PEEL.

And the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty hereby offer a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, to be paid to or distributed amongst any person or persons (except as aforesaid) who shall give such information to Captain Pigot, of the Talavera, or to any of the Officers of the said ship, as shall lead to the discovery, apprehension, and conviction of the said offenders.—Such reward to be payable by Mr. Charles Jones, the Solicitor of the Admiralty and Navy, on the conviction of the said offenders, or any of them.
