

gone home; and that the Turks were encamped in small Bodies near Offen, but that most of the Janinaries were gone to Greys Weissenburg. And that the Duke of Lorraine had sent Prince Louis of Baden to the Elector of Bavaria, to desire him to cause his Troops to advance and to join the Imperial Army. Some days ago arrived here the Brother of the Elector of Saxony, and the Duke of Cowland, who are going with some Troops to the Army in Hungary. We are told that the King of Poland has received a reinforcement of 8000 Men of the Troops of Lithuania, and 2000 Brandenburgs, which that Elector by an ancient Treaty is to assist the Poles with when they are in a War against the Turks.

Litz, Octob. 5. The Emperor since his return from Vienna, has been indisposed, but is very well again. The Elector of Bavaria and Prince Waldecke, have been both very ill of the Bloody-flux, but are at present in their former health; His Electoral Highness is at Brun, and Prince Waldecke is expected here to morrow.

Francofort, Octob. 11. From Vienna they write, that the Christian Army was advancing towards Newbussell, and that they doubted not but their next Letters would tell them that they were actually set down before that place. That the Imperial and Polish Cavalry made hard shift to get Forage, many Horses dying for want thereof. That Count Tzeckley was retired with his Troops towards Buda. And that the Magistrates of Vienna had made Count Staremberg a Present of 2000 Ducats, and freed his House from all Taxes and Impositions for ever.

Copenhagen, Octob. 5. The French Fleet does still lie before this place, and the Danish in the Roger-bocht. The King of Denmark is expected here on Saturday next from Holstein. We are told that Count Berka is coming hither in Quality of Envoy Extraordinary from the Emperor. The King of Sweden was at Gottenburg on the 27th past; the day before arrived there Captain Brackell, Commander of a Dutch Man of War, who had the next day Audience of the King of Sweden.

Hamburg, Octob. 12. They write from Berlin, that there would be in few days an interview between the Elector of Brandenburg, and the Elector of Saxony, at a place called Gutterbocke. And that great Endeavours are used for the erecting an East-India Company at Berlin, in order whereunto several Proposals have been made by his Electoral Highness's directions.

Hague, October 15. The Deputies of some of the most considerable Towns, which went home to consult their Principals, being returned, the States of Holland met again on the 13th Instant, and were assembled from nine in the Morning till five in the Evening, the Prince of Orange being present. We do not hear that they have as yet taken a final resolution in the matter of the new Levy demanded by the Council of State. They write from Vienna, that the Count de Staremberg, whom the Emperor has lately made Marechal de Camp, being arrived in the Army, and having taken possession of that Command, the Duke of Saxe-Lauenburg, Count Leslie, and Count Caprara, had thereupon left the Army, they refusing to be under Count Staremberg's Orders, and were gone for Litz to resign their Commands to the Emperor.

Hague, Octob. 19. The States of Holland separated on Saturday last for some days; and on Thursday next they meet again, when we expect to hear what resolution they will take concerning the Levy of 6000 Horse and Dragoons, and 10000 Foot, proposed by the Council of State, which it is said the City of Amsterdam does very much oppose. Our Fleet lies still at Schoonevelt.

Whitehall, Octob. 12. There was lately presented to His Majesty a small Treatise entitled, salt Waters Sweetned (which is since translated into several Languages) being an Account of an Excellent Invention of rendering Sea Water Fresh and Potable in large quantities, with small Charge. In the said Treatise there are full Answers to all the Objections that have been made against it; with an Approbation from the most Eminent Physicians of the Colledge, and other Learned Persons, of the Wholsomeness of the said Water; together with a Letter from the Honorable Mr. R. Boyle, upon this Subject; All Merchants, Owners, and Masters of Ships, or others, who suffer in their Estates or Dwellings for want of Fresh Water, and are desirous to partake of the benefit of so useful an Invention, may repair to the Carolina Coffee-house in Birch Lane, from Eleven a Clock to One; where they will find some of the Undertakers, or their Agents, to make them reasonable Proposals, who do publish this at the desire of several Merchants, and others, as well at home as abroad.

Advertisements.

The Creditors of Benjamin Hinton who have not subscribed, or who do scruple so to do, are desired to meet on Wednesday and Thursday the seventeenth and eighteenth of this instant October by three of the Clock in the Afternoon, at the Marine Coffee-house in Birch Lane, where the Trustees will attend to satisfy their Scruples: And hereof they are desired not to fail, for that the time for subscribing expireth the twentieth instant, and their refusal will be very prejudicial to themselves, and to the rest of the Creditors.

All Persons born in the County of Northampton, are desired to take notice, that there will be held a County Feast on the eighth day of November next, at Drapers Hall, for the promoting of Mutual Society and Charity: Tickets are to be had at the Places following; Mr. Charles Mellers at the Bull-head in Wood Street; Mr. Benjamin Alford at the Angel and Bible in the Poultry; Mr. Wickins at the White Hart over against St. Dunstons Church in Fleet Street; Jonathans Coffee-house in Exchange Alley in Cornhill; Ac Mr. Sheppards at the Hen and Chickens near the Gate on London Bridge; At Mr. Wilkes's Coffee-house near Smock Alley in Spirit-fields; at Mr. Latimers at the George in Milk Street-market; at William Walkers Messenger at the Three Tuns in Aldermanbury.

The Warwick-shire Feast will be kept at Merchant-Taylors Hall, on the Fifteenth day of November next, for putting out Eight Poor Boys Apprentices to good Trades, as hath been done every Year by former Stewards. By good advice the Tickets are raised to Five shillings, for the Honor and Satisfaction of the Society, and not for any advantage to the Stewards, who question not but all the Gentry and others of the County, will frankly Contribute to this Antient and Charitable Design. Tickets may be had of Mr. Richard Ravensolds, at the Fox in St. James's Market; at Mr. Richard Shawcs, at the Goat Tavern in West Smithfield, and at North's Coffee-house in Guild-hall King Street.

Observed from the Part of Arundels Stables, in Swallow-street, an extraordinary large strong Greyhound, of a Fallow or Reddish Colour; who ever has taken him up, is desired to bring him to his Lordships house in Germain Street, and they shall have two Guineas for their Reward.

Observed from the Ground of Sir Ralph Dutton of Sherburn in Gloucestershire, a little black Nag thirteen hands high and an inch, having all his Paces, his Majesty having been thorne the last Summer: Whoever shall give notice of such a Nag to John Mells in Tittle-street Westminster, or to the Kings Arms in Stow 14th Old, shall have Forty shillings reward.

One Richard Perkins about nineteen years of Age, lame of the right Leg, blackish Hair, something fair Complexion, and Thomas Doremae about the same Age, fair Hair, went away from their Master, Walter Phillip, Shoemaker in Bower-street in Southwark at the sign of the Vine; Whosoever gives notice of them to their said Master, shall be well rewarded.