

mise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said property) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED and FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid on application to the Churchwardens and Overseers of the parish of Eye.

Whitehall, May 3, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about one o'clock on the morning of Saturday the 10th day of April last, many persons, to the number of sixty and upwards, did, in a riotous and tumultuous manner, demolish and destroy the windows and doors of certain dwelling-houses, in the occupation of Zophar Lane and others, situate near the cotton-mill and works of Messrs. J. and E. Ashworth, in Sharples, in the parish of Bolton-le-Moors, in the county of Lancaster; and did also, with bludgeons and other unlawful weapons, cruelly and feloniously beat and wound the said Zophar Lane, so as to endanger his life, without any cause or provocation;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the persons who actually committed violence on the said Zophar Lane) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of THIRTY POUNDS is hereby offered by Messrs. J. and E. Ashworth, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Trinity-House, Kingston-upon-Hull
May 4, 1830.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, in pursuance of the powers and authorities vested in this Corporation by law,

have been appointed and licenced as Pilots to take charge of ships and vessels into and out of the port, harbour, and bay of Bridlington, otherwise Burlington, in the east riding of the county of York. And notice is likewise hereby given, that from and after the 22d day of June next, all ships and vessels coming to or departing from the said port of Bridlington, otherwise Burlington aforesaid, within the limits and district aforesaid, piloted or liable to be piloted, are to be conducted and piloted by such Pilots only as have been so appointed and licenced, as aforesaid, and by no other Pilots, nor by any other person or persons presuming to act as a Pilot or Pilots, under the penalties contained as well in an Act, made and passed in the fifty-sixth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for continuing the term, and altering and enlarging the powers of several Acts, passed for rebuilding and repairing the piers of Bridlington, otherwise Burlington, in the east riding of the county of York, and for granting further powers for those purposes;" as of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the sixth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for the amendment of the law respecting pilots and pilotage, and also for the better preservation of floating lights, buoys, and beacons;" which penalties relate both to the Master or Commander and the person acting as Pilot.

By order,

Wm. Bunney, jun. Secretary.
