

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, MAY 18, 1830.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of April 1830,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," after reciting, that "by the Law of Navigation foreign ships are permitted to import into any of the British possessions abroad, from the countries to which they belong, goods, the produce of those countries, and to export goods from such possessions to be carried to any foreign country whatever, and that it is expedient that such permission should be subject to certain conditions," it is enacted, "that the privileges thereby granted to foreign ships shall be limited to the ships of those countries which, having colonial possessions, shall grant the like privileges of trading with those possessions to British ships, or which, not having colonial possessions, shall place the commerce and navigation of this country, and of its possessions abroad, upon the footing of the most favoured nation, unless His Majesty, by His Order in Council, shall in any case deem it expedient to grant the whole or any of such privileges to the ships of any foreign country, although the conditions aforesaid shall not in all respects be fulfilled by such foreign country:"

And whereas by an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the Customs," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that no foreign country shall be deemed to have fulfilled the conditions so prescribed as aforesaid in and by the said Act so passed in the said sixth year of His Majesty's reign, as to be entitled to the privileges therein mentioned, unless such foreign country had in all respects fulfilled those conditions within twelve months next after the passing of the said Act, that is to say, on or before the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six; and for the better ascertaining what particular foreign countries are permitted by law to exercise and enjoy the said privileges, it is thereby further enacted, that no foreign country shall be deemed to have fulfilled the beforementioned conditions, or to be entitled to the privileges aforesaid, unless and until His Majesty shall by some Order or Orders to be by him made, by the advice of His Privy Council, have declared that such foreign country hath so fulfilled the said conditions, and is entitled to the said privileges; provided always, and it is thereby declared and enacted, that nothing therein contained, extends, or shall be construed to extend, to make void or annul any Order or Orders in Council theretofore issued, under the authority or in pursuance of the said recited Act of the sixth year of His Majesty's reign, or to take away or abridge the powers vested in His Majesty in and by the said Act, or any of those powers, any thing therein contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding:

And whereas His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth deem it expedient to grant the privileges aforesaid to the ships of the dominions of His Majesty the Emperor of Austria, His Majesty doth therefore, by the advice aforesaid, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authority in him vested by the said recited Acts of Parliament, declare and grant, that it shall and may be lawful for Austrian ships to import from the dominions of His Majesty the Emperor of Austria, into any of the British possessions abroad, goods, the produce of such dominions, and to export goods from such British possessions abroad, to be carried to any foreign country whatever:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Sir George Murray, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain. Jas. Buller.

At the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of October 1829,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," the several sorts of goods enumerated or described in a certain table therein contained, denominated "a Table of Prohibitions and Restrictions," are either prohibited to be imported or brought, either by sea or by inland carriage or navigation, into the British possessions in America, or into the Island of Mauritius, or are permitted to be imported or brought into those possessions under the restrictions made in such table; and in and by the said Act provision is made respecting the manner in which vessels and goods shall be entered and cleared inwards and outwards in the British possessions in America, and in the said Island of Mauritius; and for the prevention of smuggling in the said British possessions in America, and in the said Island of Mauritius: and whereas by an Act, passed in the seventh year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to alter and amend the several laws relating to the Customs;" and by an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the Customs;" and by an Act, passed in the ninth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the Customs;" and by an Act, passed in the tenth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the Customs;" the before-mentioned provisions of the Act, so passed in the sixth year of His Majesty's reign, have been altered and amended: and whereas by the said Act, so passed in the sixth year of His Majesty's reign, it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders in Council to be issued from time to time, to give such directions and make such regulations, touching the trade and commerce to and from any British possessions on or near the Continent of Europe, or within the Mediterranean Sea, or in Africa, or within the limits of the East India Company's charter (excepting the possessions of the said Company), as to His Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary; and that if any goods shall be imported or exported in any manner contrary to any such Order of His Majesty in Council, the same shall be forfeited, together with the ship importing or exporting the same; His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers so vested as aforesaid in Him in and by the said Act, so passed as aforesaid in the sixth year of His reign, order, and it is hereby ordered, that so much of the said Act, so passed as aforesaid in the sixth year of His Majesty's reign; and so much of the said several Acts of Parliament, so passed as aforesaid in the seventh, and in the seventh and eighth, and in the ninth, and in the tenth years of His Majesty's reign, as impose prohibitions and restrictions on the importation of goods into the British possessions in America, and the Island of Mauritius; and as relate to the entry of vessels and goods inwards and outwards in those possessions and the Island aforesaid; and to the prevention of smuggling there; shall be, and the same are hereby, extended and made applicable to His Majesty's settlements at Sierra Leone, and all other His Majesty's settlements on the Western Coast of Africa:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

CHARLES CROUCH, Esq. deceased.

THE Next of Kin of Charles Crouch, Esq. a lunatic, lately deceased, may hear of something greatly to their advantage on applying to Messrs. Teesdale, Symes, and Weston, No. 31, Fenchurch-Street, London; the said Charles Crouch came to England in the year 1780, from the Island of Antigua, and his father, Charles Crouch, Esq. who had resided in that Island for many years, died there in the month of March 1783. Dated 19th April 1830.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Menzies versus Rigby, with the approbation of Francis Paul Stratford, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court;

The mansion-house and estate, called Sandown (the house now in the occupation of Hugh Hornby, Esq.), situate in the Township of Wavertree, in the County of Lancaster, comprising a handsome stone dwelling-house and offices, with conveniences for a large family, shrubberies, gardens, and about 45 acres of land, in a ring fence.

The property lies about three miles from Liverpool, near the Village of Wavertree, and the land, from its height, affords several appropriate situations for villas, without injuring the mansion-house.

The Liverpool and Manchester Rail-Road crosses one corner of the estate.

The tenure is copyhold of inheritance of the Manor of Wavertree, under an annual rent of one shilling an acre, and a small fine on admission.

The time and place of sale will shortly be advertised, when printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane; of Messrs. Taylor and Roscoe, Solicitors, Inner-Temple; Mr. Jones, Solicitor, John-Street, Bedford-Row; Mr. Bower, Solicitor, Chancery-Lane, London: also of Messrs. Luce and Sons, Solicitors (where a plan may be seen), Mr. Eden, Mr. Foster, and Mr. Brooke, Solicitors, Liverpool.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Goulston v. Rolls, it is referred to James Stephen, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire and state when Edward Briar Goulston died, and whether he survived Mary Briar, the testatrix, and if he survived the said testatrix whether he left any and what child or children him surviving, and whether he attained the age of 21 years.—It is believed that the said Edward Briar Goulston was a son of Joseph Goulston, of the Grange-Road, Bermondsey, Umbrella-Maker, and Mary his wife, and was born on the 14th day of August 1777, and that he was sent by the Marine Society on board a vessel called the Prince Edward, from which ship he was discharged in 1794.—The said Edward Briar Goulston, if living, or his child or children, if he left any, or his next of kin, living at the time of his death, or in case any of them have died, their personal representatives are to come in before the said Master, on or before the 28th day of May 1830, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and prove their kindred and make out their claim, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.
