

Whitehall, May 29, 1830.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Edward Barry, of the city of Bristol, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, May 28, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that some person or persons did, on the night of the 15th day of May instant, or early on the following morning, break and enter the workshop of John Cotton, situate near to the Uttoxeter-road, in the parish of St. Werburgh, in the borough of Derby, and did then and there unlawfully and maliciously break and destroy six stocking frames: And whereas it hath been also humbly represented unto the King, that some person or persons did, either late on the night of the 24th, or early on the morning of the 25th day of May instant, break and enter the workshop of Samuel Foster, situate in the Brook-street, in the parish of All Saints, in the said borough, and did then and there unlawfully and maliciously break and destroy five stocking frames;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies before mentioned, or either of them, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid on application at the Police-Office, Derby.

Whitehall, May 28, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Thursday the 20th day of May instant, between the hours of ten and eleven, Mr. Charles Robinson, of Platt, in the township of Rasholme, in the county of Lancaster, whilst proceeding along Oxford-road, on his way home, was met by a man who demanded his money, and fired at him with a pistol, the contents of which entered his body, below the breast, and caused his death on the following day;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the murder before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired the said pistol) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by the Constables of Chorlton-row, Manchester.

Navy-Office, May 24, 1830

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday the 22d of June next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, Commissioner Ross will put up to sale, in His Majesty's Dock-yard at Plymouth, several lots of

Old Stores,

Consisting of old Rope, Shakings, Spun Yarn, Hammocks, Canvas, unmarked Cordage, Hemp Toppings, &c. &c. &c.

all lying in the said Yard.
