Whitehall, June 9, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the evening of Tuesday the 1st day of June instant, between the hours of nine and ten, the premises of Mr. Mosyer, a farmer, at Orpington, in the county of Kent, were feloniously and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, by which the stacks, barns, and farm buildings were consumed : and whereas it hath been further humbly represented unto the King, that, on the evening of Sunday the 6th day of June instant, the premises of Mr. Vowles, also a farmer, at Orpington, in the county of Kent, were feloniously and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, and that the greater part of the same were consumed ;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offences, or either of them.—Fifty pounds of such reward to be paid by Joseph Berens, Esq. of Kevington, near Orpington ; and fifty pounds by Mr. Richard Isard, Agent to the Sun Fire-Office, at Orpington.

Whitehall, June 10, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that certain evil-disposed persons, on or about the 5th day of June instant, prepared and charged with a great quantity of gunpowder, a wooden box, so contrived, that on its being opened the contents might immediately explode ; and directed the said box to Mr. William Higginbottom, of Hurst, near Ashton-under-Line, in the county of Lancaster, and delivered the same at a coach-office in Manchester, to be from thence conveyed to the said Mr. William Higginbottom, with the diabolical intent to destroy him, or to do him some grievous bodily harm ;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the act before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who first contrived and proposed to be carried into effect the said plan, and also the person who delivered the said box at the said coach-office, knowing of the aforesaid plan and intent) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And His Majesty being resolved to put down such diabolical attempts, and to bring the offenders to condign punishment, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Mr. William Higginbottom, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall give such information as will lead to the apprehension and conviction of the said offender or offenders.

East India-House, June 2, 1830.

PETER AUBER, Secy.

IN pursuance of an Order of the House of Commons, notice is hereby given, that leave was granted to bring in a Bill to amend an Act, passed in the 41st year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for more effectually improving and maintaining the old Harbour of Rye, in the county of Sussex," and to appoint new Commissioners, and to enable the Commissioners to raise additional funds on the tolls, by way of mortgage, or otherwise.—Dated this 11th day of June 1830. Samuel Miller, Solicitor for the Bill.

Navy-Office, May 24, 1830.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday the 22d of June next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, Commissioner Ross will put up to sale, in His Majesty's Dock-yard at Plymouth, several lots of

Old Stores,
Consisting of old Rope, Shakings, Spun Yarn,
Hammocks, Canvas, unmarked Cordage, Hemp
Toppings, &c. &c. &c.

all lying in the said Yard.

Persons wishing to view the lots, must apply to the Officers for notes of admission for that purpose.

Catalogues and conditions of sale may be had here and at the Yard. G. Smith.

CONTRACT FOR CANADA INCH MASTS AND OTHER TIMBER GOODS.

Navy-Office, June 2, 1830.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 16th instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's several Dock-yards with

Canada Yellow Pine Inch Masts, Yards, and Bowsprits;
Ash Oar Rafters; and
Red and Yellow Pine and White Oak Timber.

Distributions of the articles and a form of the tender may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter, addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £5000, for the due performance of the contract. G. Smith.

CONTRACT FOR MINERAL TAR.

Navy-Office, June 14, 1830.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 23d instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's Dock-yard at Deptford with

20,000 Gallons of Mineral Tar,

to be delivered within six weeks from the day of treaty.

A form of the tender may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party, or an agent for him, attends. G. Smith.

ARMY CONTRACTS.

Commissariat Department, Treasury-Chambers, June 1, 1830.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons desirous of contracting to supply the following articles for the use of the Army, viz.

BREAD, to His Majesty's Land Forces in Cantonments, Quarters, and Barracks, in the under-mentioned Counties,

Monmouth, North and South Wales;

BEEF and MUTTON, to His Majesty's Land Forces in Cantonments, Quarters, and Barracks, in the under-mentioned County,

Monmouth;

OATS, to His Majesty's Cavalry and Artillery Horses in Cantonments and Quarters, in the under-mentioned Counties,

Durham, Monmouth;

FORAGE, viz. Oats, Hay, and Straw, to His Majesty's Cavalry and Artillery Horses in Barracks, in the under-mentioned Counties,

Dorset, Northumberland, Sussex;

And in the several Counties in North Britain;

That the deliveries are to commence on and for the 25th day of July next; that proposals in writing, sealed up and marked "Tender for Army Supplies," will be received at this Office on or before Tuesday the 29th day of June instant; but none will be received after twelve o'clock on that day.

Proposals must be made separately for each county, except for the counties in North and South Wales, all of which must be included in one tender; as also the several counties in North Britain; and each proposal must have the letter which is annexed to the tender properly filled up by two persons of known property, engaging to become bound with the party tendering, in the amount stated in the printed particulars, for the due performance of the contract; and no proposal will be noticed unless made on a printed tender, and the prices expressed in words at length; and should it so happen that during the continuance of the contract no troops should be supplied by virtue of the same, the amount of the stamps on the contract and bond, paid in the first instance by the contractor, will be refunded to him.

Particulars of the contracts may be had upon application at this Office, between the hours of ten and four; and samples of the meal may be seen at this Office.

EDWARD HARRIMAN, ESQ. DECEASED.

THE Executors of the last will and testament of Edward Harriman, formerly of Workington, in the County of Cumberland, a Commander in the Honourable East India Company's Service, and late of Holloway-Road, Islington, in the County of Middlesex, Esq. and who died on the 31st day of March 1829, intend to divide the residue of his personal estate among the residuary Legatees named in his said will, on the 23d day of November next. The Creditors (if any) of the said Edward Harriman, are therefore required to send forthwith the particulars of their demands to Mr. John Thomas, Crane-Court, Fleet-Street, London, Solicitor to the Executors, in order that the same may be examined, and (if found correct) discharged.

TO be sold by auction, pursuant to an Order of the Court of Chancery of the County Palatine of Lancaster, made in a cause Webb v. Webb, before William Shawe, Esq. Registrar of the said Court, at the Albion Hotel, in Manchester, in the said County, on Wednesday the 30th day of June 1830, at Six o'Clock in the Evening;

Sixty-five Huddersfield Canal shares, in lots, to be stated at the time of sale.

Thirty shares in the Manchester Assurance Company.

A share in the Manchester Portico.

A pew in St. Luke's Church, Chorlton-Row.

Printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the Registrar's Office, in Preston; and at the Office of Messrs. R. R. and C. Jackson, Solicitors, Fountain-Street, Manchester.

TO be sold by private contract, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Lombe against Soughton, with the approbation of William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, on the premises, at Bylaugh, in Norfolk;

One hundred and twenty well seasoned oak trees, and a large quantity of oak beams and oak scantlings, of various dimensions, all in a good state of preservation, lying on an estate at Bylaugh aforesaid, late of Sir John Lombe, Baronet, deceased, and now occupied by Mr. Freeman, and being part of the materials some time since provided and intended for the erection of a mansion-house at Bylaugh aforesaid.

The terms and conditions on which the said timber will be sold may be known on application to Mr. Corby, at Willingham, near Norwich, Land-Surveyor; and the same may be viewed on application to William Barrett, at Bylaugh-Lodge.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Willoughby v. Fowler, with the approbation of James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Bell Inn, in Burgh in the Marsh, in the County of Lincoln, on Thursday the 24th day of June 1830, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, in 14 lots;

Certain freehold and copyhold estates, situate in the several Parishes of Burgh in the Marsh aforesaid, Orhy, Wrangle, and Friskney, in the said County of Lincoln, late the property of Robert Fowler, of Burgh in the Marsh aforesaid, Gentleman, deceased.

Printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; of Messrs. Ellis and Walmsley, Chancery-Lane aforesaid; of Messrs. Walker and Sons, Solicitors, Spilsby; and of Mr. Robinson, Solicitor, Alford.

TO be sold pursuant to a decretal Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Simmons v. Bradley, with the approbation of Francis Paul Stratford, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale Room of the said Court, in Southampton Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, in lots;

Well secured annuities, policies of insurance, land tax, and leasehold property, late the property of Mr. Benjamin Thomas, deceased.

The time of sale will shortly be advertised, when printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Office, in Southampton-Buildings aforesaid; of Mr. Atkins, Solicitor, Nicholas-Lane, Lombard-Street; and of Mr. Barton Greenwood, Solicitor, Manchester-Street, Manchester-Square.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Trueman v. Smith, it was referred to James Trower, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire and state to the Court, whether any and what First Cousin or First Cousins of John Shepherd, formerly of Gosport, in the County of Hants, Esq. (the testator in the pleadings of the said cause named), were living at the date of the indentures of lease, appointment, and release of the 20th and 21st days of December 1822, in the said pleadings also mentioned, and whether any and which of such first cousins were living at the death of Mary Shepherd, the widow of the said John Shepherd (which happened on the 20th day of February 1829), and whether there were any and what such first cousins living at the date of the said indentures, and who died since, before the death of the said Mary Shepherd, and whether any and which of them have or hath left children or a child living at the death of the said Mary Shepherd, and who were or was such children or child, and whether there were any and what first cousins or first cousin of the said John Shepherd died at the date of the said indentures, leaving children or a child then living, and who was or were such children or child, and whether any such children or child were or was living at the death of the said Mary Shepherd, and who were or was such children or child; therefore all persons claiming to be such first cousins, and children of such first cousins, are, on or before the 16th day of August next, to come in and prove their relationship, and make out their claims, before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Fowler v. Garlike, it is declared that the defendants William Bennett Garlike and Thomas Brown, the Executors and Trustees of the last will and testament of Sarah Hatrell, of Great Malvern, in the County of Worcester, Widow, formerly Sarah Coke, of Derby, Spinster, the Testatrix in the pleadings of the said cause named (who died in the month of November 1828), are Trustees of the residue of the said Testatrix's personal estate for the benefit of her Next of Kin, according to the Statute of distribution of the personal estate of persons dying intestate: and all persons claiming to be next of kin of the said Testatrix were to be at liberty to come in before the Master and prove their kindred.—Therefore, all persons claiming to be such next of kin of the said Testatrix are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 30th day of June instant, to come in and prove their kindred, and make out their claims before James Trower, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Fowler against Garlike, the Creditors of Sarah Hatrell, late of Great Malvern, in the County of Worcester, Widow, formerly Sarah Coke, of Derby, Spinster (who died in the month of November 1828), are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 30th day of June instant, to come in and prove their debts before James Trower, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.
