WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the evening of Tuesday the 1st day of June instant, between the hours of nine and ten, the premises of Mr. Mosyer, a farmer, at Orpington, in the county of Kent, were feloniously and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, by which the stacks, barns, and farm buildings were consumed: and whereas it hath been further humbly represented unto the King, that, on the evening of Sunday the 6th day of June instant, the premises of Mr. Vowles, also a farmer, at Orpington, in the county of Kent, were feloniously and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, and that the greater part of the same were consumed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offences, or either of them.—Fifty pounds of such reward to be paid by Joseph Berens, Esq. of Kevington, near Orpington; and fifty pounds by Mr. Richard Isard, Agent to the Sun Fire-Office, at Orpington.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that certain evil-disposed persons, on or about the 5th day of June instant, prepared and charged with a great quantity of gunpowder, a wooden box, so contrived, that on its being opened the contents might immediately explode; and directed the said box to Mr. William Higginbottom, of Hurst, near Ashton-under-Line, in the county of Lancaster, and delivered the same at a coach-office in Manchester, to be from thence conveyed to the said Mr. William Higginbottom, with the diabolical intent to destroy him, or to do him some grievous bodily harm;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the act before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who first contrived and proposed to be carried into effect the said plan, and also the person who delivered the said box at the said coach-office, knowing of the aforesaid plan and intent) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And His Majesty being resolved to put down such diabolical attempts, and to bring the offenders to condign punishment, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Mr. William Higginbottom, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall give such information as will lead to the apprehension and conviction of the said offender or offenders.
