The Earl Marshal's Order for a General Mourning for His late Majesty King George the Fourth.

In pursuance of an Order of His Majesty in Council, the 28th of June 1830, these are to give public notice, that it is expected, that all persons, upon the present occasion of the death of His late Majesty, of blessed memory, do put themselves into decent mourning; the said mourning to begin upon Wednesday next the 30th instant.

NORFOLK, Earl Marshal.

GENERAL ORDER.

Horse-Guards, June 28, 1830.

Orders for Mourning for the Army, for His late Majesty King George the Fourth.

His Majesty does not require that the Officers of the Army should wear any other mourning, with their uniforms, on the present melancholy occasion, than black crape over the ornamental part of the cap or hat, the sword knot, and on the left arm, with the following exceptions, viz.

Officers on duty are to wear black gloves, black crape over the ornamental part of the cap or hat, the sword knot, and on the left arm; the sash covered with black crape; black gorget ribband; and a black crape scarf over the right shoulder.

The drums are to be covered with black, and black crape is to be hung from the pike of the colour staff of infantry, and from the standard staff and trumpets of cavalry.

When Officers appear at Court in their uniforms,
