Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, JULY 9, 1830.

Earl Marshal's-Office, Whitehall-Yard, July 7, 1830.

THE King has been pleased to command, that the Great Officers of State, His Majesty's Ministers, and the Officers of the Royal Household, who assist at the Interment of His late Most Sacred Majesty King George the Fourth, of blessed memory, do appear in their state uniforms, black waistcoats, breeches, stockings, and buckles, uniform swords with crape, and black feathers in their hats; and that all Officers of the Army and Navy, who attend at the Solemnity, appear in their respective full dress uniforms, pantaloons and boots, with the mourning directed to be worn by them at Court, as notified in the Gazette of the 28th of June last.

The Bishops are to appear in their rochets; and all Peers, Eldest Sons of Peers, Privy Councillors, and others, who may not be included in the above regulations, are to appear in full dress black.

NORFOLK, Earl Marshal.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 28th day of June 1830,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the training and regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewartry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewartry or stewartries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas it is deemed expedient, that such training or exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended; and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

Jas. Butler.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 28th day of June 1830,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot or enrolment for the local militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place, but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order in Council, and from time to time by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension as long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding; and whereas by an Order in Council, made the sixteenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, it was ordered by His late Majesty in Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia should take place for the space of one year from the said sixteenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, but that the ballot or enrolment should remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from the said sixteenth day of July; and whereas it is deemed expedient to continue such suspension of the ballot and enrolment for the local militia for the space of one year from the sixteenth day of July next; it is, therefore, ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place for the space of one year from the sixteenth day of July next, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia do remain and continue suspended, from and after the sixteenth day of July next, for the space of one year.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 3d day of July 1830,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty's Royal Predecessors were pleased, from time to time, by their respective Orders made in Council, to declare and signify their pleasure, that their servants should have and enjoy all ancient liberties, rights, and privileges; and that none of their servants in ordinary with fee should be enforced or obliged to bear any public office, serve on juries or inquests, or be subjected unto any mulct or fine for not submitting thereunto: His Majesty, this day taking the same into consideration, and thinking it reasonable that all His servants in ordinary with fee, should, in regard to their constant attendance upon His Majesty's Person, enjoy the like privileges with those of His Predecessors, doth therefore hereby order, with the advice of His Privy Council, that the Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household, in relation to such of His Majesty's servants who are under his Grace's command above stairs; and the Lord Steward of His Majesty's Household, or in his absence, His Majesty's Officers of the Green Cloth, as to such as are accounted Officers below stairs; and the Master of the Horse, for the servants belonging to the stables, do respectively signify unto the Lord Mayor of London, and to His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, within the city of Westminster, counties of Middlesex and Surrey, and the Mayors, Sheriffs, and Bailiffs, of any corporation, or county, and to all such as may be therein concerned, whensoever there shall be cause for asserting the said privilege, that His Majesty has thought proper, conformably to the example of His Predecessors in this behalf, to order and require, that His servants should have, hold, and enjoy all the said liberties, rights, and privileges; and that henceforward none of His servants in ordinary with fee, be enforced or any ways obliged to bear any public office, serve on juries or inquests, watch or ward, in any place where they dwell, or elsewhere, nor be subjected to any mulct or fine for not submitting thereunto: And the Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household for those servants above stairs, the Lord Steward of His Majesty's Household, and in his absence, His Majesty's Officers of the Green Cloth, for the servants below stairs, and the Master of the Horse for the servants belonging to the stables, are hereby authorised and required to take especial care that this His Majesty's pleasure be duly observed and put in execution; and that His Majesty's Attorney General for the time being be, and he is hereby authorised and required, upon any application made to him by any of His Majesty's servants in ordinary with fee, to cause a stop to be put to all proceedings already had or to be commenced against them, or any of them, for refusing to watch or to serve on juries, or bear or undergo any public office or employment above mentioned; and His Majesty doth hereby further order, that copies of this Order be left with the respective Clerks of the Peace for the cities of London and Westminster, and counties of Middlesex and Surrey, to be kept amongst the records of His Majesty's Sessions, to the intent that due obedience may be given thereunto, and His servants may not be vexed with unreasonable proceedings.

Whitehall, July 7, 1830.

The King has been pleased to present the Reverend Robert Wallace to the old church and parish of St. Michael's, at Dumfries, in the presbytery and county of Dumfries, void by the death of Doctor Alexander Scot.

Whitehall, June 17, 1830.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto William Jeffrey, of Sturton Grainge South Side, in the parish of Warkworth, in the county of Northumberland, Gent. His royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may assume and take the surname of Fenwick, instead of that of Jeffrey, in compliance with a request made by the last will and testament of his late maternal uncle, Joseph Fenwick, late of Sturton Grainge aforesaid, Esq. deceased; provided that such His Majesty's royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms, otherwise to be void and of none effect.

Whitehall, July 8, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Saturday the 3d day of July instant, a barn and out-buildings, belonging to the Rist-land Farm, near Ashdown Forest, in the parish of East Grinstead, in the county of Sussex, the property of the Honourable Mrs. Fuller, were feloniously and maliciously set on fire and burnt to the ground by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said property) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid on application to Mr. Hastie, Solicitor, East Grinstead.

FREEMASONS' TONTINE.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Meeting of the Proprietors of shares in the Freemasons' Tontine will be holden at the Society's-hall, in Great Queen-street, Lincoln's-inn-fields, London, on Tuesday the 20th day of July instant, at three o'clock in the afternoon, for the purpose of electing two new Trustees, in the room of those who have died or declined to act in the Trust.

William H. White, Register.

ARMY CONTRACTS.

Commissariat Department, Treasury-Chambers, July 1, 1830.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons desirous of contracting to supply the following articles for the use of the Army, viz.

BREAD, to His Majesty's Land Forces in Cantonnements, Quarters, and Barracks, in the under-mentioned Counties,

Cumberland,	Northampton,
Lancaster,	Surrey,
Middlesex,	York;

FORAGE, viz. Oats, Hay, and Straw, to His Majesty's Cavalry and Artillery Horses in Barracks, in the under-mentioned Counties,

Lancaster, Northampton;

That the deliveries are to commence on and for the 25th day of August next; that proposals in writing, sealed up and marked "Tender for Army Supplies," will be received at this Office on or before Thursday the 29th day of July instant; but none will be received after twelve o'clock on that day.

Proposals must be made separately for each county, and each proposal must have the letter which is annexed to the tender properly filled up by two persons of known property, engaging to become bound with the party tendering, in the amount stated in the printed particulars, for the due performance of the contract; and no proposal will be noticed unless made on a printed tender, and the prices expressed in words at length; and should it so happen that during the continuance of the contract no troops should be supplied by virtue of the same, the amount of the stamps on the contract and bond, paid in the first instance by the contractor, will be refunded to him.

Particulars of the contracts may be had upon application at this Office, between the hours of ten and four; and samples of the meal may be seen at this Office.

CONTRACT FOR SLATES.

Navy-Office, June 29, 1830.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 14th of July next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to 'contract' for supplying His Majesty's Dock-yards at Deptford, Woolwich, Chatham, Sheerness, Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Pembroke, with Slates.

Specimens of the slates and a form of the tender may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty; nor any noticed unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter, addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £500, for the due performance of the contract.

J. W. Morton.

TAKE NOTICE,

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given to the said Prisoner, in writing, three clear days before the day of hearing, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of giving such notice and of the said day of hearing.

2. But in the case of a Prisoner, whom his Creditors have removed, by an order of the Court, from a gaol in or near London for hearing in the country, such notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

3. The petition and schedule will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, at the Office of the Court in London, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, between the hours of Ten and Four; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 76.

N. B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-Street, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields.

4. The duplicate of the petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced for inspection and examination by the Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other person with whom the same shall have been directed to be lodged for such purpose, at the Office of such Clerk of the Peace or other person; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be there provided according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 77, or the Act, 5 Geo. 4, c. 61, sec. 11, as the case may be.

THE Creditors of George Anlaby Allison, late of Bridlington, in the County of York, Glazier, an Insolvent Debtor, lately discharged under an Act for the relief of Insolvent Debtors in England from the Castle of York, in the County of York, are requested to meet on Wednesday the 21st day of July instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Britannia Inn, in Bridlington Quay, in the said County, in order to choose an Assignee or Assignees of the said Insolvent's estate and effects.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Creditors of William Henry Fishwick, late of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Land-Surveyor, an Insolvent Debtor, now deceased, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Insolvent's estate and effects, at the Office of Mr. Charles Haworth, Attorney at Law, in Burnley, in the said County, on Tuesday the 10th day of August next, between the hours of Ten and Twelve in the Forenoon of the same day, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees carrying into effect certain proposals for sale, by private treaty, to such person as will be named at the said meeting, of all the said Insolvent's equity of redemption, right, and interest in and to certain leasehold dwelling-houses, situate on the North Parade, within Burnley aforesaid, with the fixtures therein; and also of all other the property and effects late of the said Insolvent, upon such terms as will be submitted at such meeting; and on other special affairs.

Insolvent Debtor.—Dividend.

WHEREAS the Assignee of the estate and effects of Thomas Mawson, an Insolvent Debtor, lately a prisoner in the Gaol of the Town of Kingston-upon-Hull and County of the same Town, hath caused an account of the said estate and effects, duly sworn to, to be filed in the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors; the Creditors of the said Insolvent are requested to meet the Assignee at the House of William Burland, known by the sign of the Grapes, in Micklegate, in the City of York, on the 9th day of August next, at Three in the Afternoon precisely, when and where the Assignee will declare the amount of the balance in his hands, and proceed to make a Dividend with the same amongst the Creditors whose debts are admitted in the schedule sworn to by the Insolvent, in proportion to the amount thereof, subject to such correction of the rights to receive dividends as may be made according to the statute.—If any person has a demand which is stated in the schedule, but is disputed therein, either in whole or in part; or if the said Insolvent, the said Assignee, or any Creditor, objects to any debt mentioned therein, such claims and objections must be brought forward at the said meeting, in order that proceedings may be had for the examination and decision of the same according to the Statute.
