Whitehall, July 16, 1830.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir Robert Peel, Bart. one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Banbury, in the County of Oxford.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Banbury, beg leave to approach your Majesty with our sincere condolence on the lamented demise of our late most excellent and revered Sovereign. We desire to assure your Majesty, that we have been deeply impressed with a sense of the advantages which our country has derived from his paternal sway, and cannot but reflect with satisfaction, that some years ago we were permitted the distinguished honour of enrolling His Majesty's name among the Freemen of the ancient Borough of Banbury.

We feel extremely solicitous to tender to your Majesty our earnest congratulations on your accession to the Throne; accustomed to consider the security of our Constitution and Liberties ensured to us under the benignant Government of your Majesty's Family, we cordially rejoice in the present occasion of expressing our loyalty and affection to your Majesty's Person, and our most anxious wishes that you may long continue to illustrate the Sceptre of your Ancestors, and to reign over the hearts and affections of your people in prosperity and happiness.

Done at a Common-Hall, this 5th day of July 1830.

[Transmitted by the Marquess of Bute.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, and Inhabitants of the County of Bute, humbly beg leave to lay before your Majesty the expression of our sincere condolence upon the death of our late beloved Sovereign.

We also desire most humbly to congratulate your Majesty upon your accession to the hereditary Throne of these United Kingdoms; and we trust that you may long live to exercise a power which has been rendered doubly valuable to the subjects of this Realm by the paternal administration of your Majesty's late Brother, and of your Father, of sacred memory. We offer the warmest expression of our duty and respect to your Majesty, and to your most gracious Consort; and we pray Almighty God to grant to you a prosperous and a peaceful reign.

Signed in name, and by appointment of the meeting, at Rothesay, this 2d day of July 1830, by

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and devoted subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Rothesay, humbly offer to your Majesty our very sincere condolence upon the death of your Brother, our late beloved Sovereign.

Proud as we are of belonging to a spot which was once a favoured residence of your Royal Ancestors; we also venture to express to your Majesty our most dutiful congratulations upon your accession to the Throne of this mighty Empire. We have heard with delight of the domestic virtues of your Majesty, and of your illustrious Consort, and we most heartily pray God to bless your Majesty with a long and a peaceful reign.

Signed in name, and by appointment of the Magis-
