

mission to the sovereign will of the Supreme Ruler of the Universe, we participate in the exquisite feelings of your Majesty, and the other Members of your Royal House, on this melancholy occasion, and beg leave to express our condolence in all that is dutiful and soothing to the heart in the season of sorrow.

At same time we feel grateful to a kind Providence in bestowing upon us a Prince, in the person of your Majesty, possessing so many able and amiable qualities as will insure to us and the nation at large, under the blessing of Heaven, the continuance and increase of that prosperity, independence, and happiness with which these realms have been so long and so highly favoured.

That the invaluable life of your Majesty, and of your Royal Consort, our Most Gracious Queen, may be long preserved, is our sincere and earnest prayer. Signed and sealed in name, presence, and by the appointment of the Members of the Trades House in their Hall, assembled, at Glasgow, this 7th July, 1830 years. John Alston, Convener.
