The Ladies to wear black silk, fringed or plain linen, white gloves, black or white shoes, fans and tippets, white necklaces and ear-rings.

The Gentlemen to wear black, full trimmed, fringed or plain linen, black swords and buckles.

The Court to change the mourning further, on Sunday the 29th of August next, viz.

The Ladies to wear black silk or velvet, coloured ribbons, fans and tippets.

The Gentlemen to continue in black, full trimmed, and to wear coloured swords and buckles.

And on Sunday the 19th of September next, the Court to go out of mourning.

N. B. It is not expected that any person should appear in mourning, except at Court, after the 11th of August next.

Earl Marshal's-Office, Whitehall-Yard, July 29, 1830.

IN reference to the Order for a General Mourning for His late Majesty King George the Fourth, of blessed memory, which was announced in the Gazette of Monday the 28th ultimo;

These are to give notice, that it is not desired or expected, that the public should appear in mourning after the 11th day of August next.

NORFOLK, Earl Marshal.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, July 29, 1830.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 4th of August next, at two o'clock.

N. B. Those Gentlemen who attended the last Levee are not expected to be present at the Levee on Wednesday next.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE KING'S LEVEE, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend the Levee to be held on Wednesday next the 4th August, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the King's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to His Majesty. And those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Gentleman who is to present them (not the Lord in Waiting), should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, before twelve o'clock on Monday next, in order that they may be submitted for the King's approbation, it being His Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter take place at the Levee, but in conformity with the above regulations.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

St. James's-Palace, July 28, 1830.

THIS day the following Addresses were presented to His Majesty on the Throne, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, which His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Mayor, Jurats, and Common Councillors of the Corporation of Gravesend and Milton, in the County of Kent, in Court Burghmote assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, and Common Councillors of the Corporation of Gravesend and Milton, in the County of Kent, humbly approach and entreat your Majesty to accept our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of this Kingdom.

We also humbly offer our unfeigned condolence on the loss which your Majesty and the Royal Family, with the whole people, have sustained by the lamented decease of your Royal Brother, our late most gracious Sovereign.

We pray your Majesty to receive this humble assurance of our loyalty to your Royal Person and Family, and to believe that not any portion of your Majesty's subjects are more faithful to the illustrious House of Brunswick, or would be more ready to offer their lives in defence of it, than the Inhabitants of Gravesend.

We pray, with no less sincerity than duty, that your Majesty, and your royal and beloved Consort, may long reign over a devoted and happy people, that England, and her glorious Constitution, may continue to flourish, and to sustain the high character which they have justly acquired among surrounding nations.

Given under our Corporate Seal, this 23d of July 1830.

Matthews, Town Clerk.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Burgesses of the Borough of Newport, in the Isle of Wight.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Burgesses of the Borough of Newport, in the Isle of Wight, most humbly beg leave to approach your Majesty to offer our tribute of condolence on the loss which your Majesty and the Nation have sustained, by the death of your illustrious Brother, our late revered Sovereign, whose mild and gentle rule will be long remembered with affection and gratitude by the present generation, and whose wise and prosperous reign will be honoured by posterity.

Such an awful dispensation of Providence would have been more severely felt, if we had not the consolation of knowing that, in your Majesty, as his Successor, the nation is blessed with a Monarch every way formed to add to its happiness and glory, and, therefore, with the sincerest veneration and respect we beg to offer to your Majesty our unfeigned congratulation on your accession to the Crown of these Realms.

We entreat your Majesty to accept this dutiful expression of our inviolable attachment to your sacred Person, your Royal Consort, and illustrious House, and we fervently pray, that your Majesty may be preserved in the uninterrupted enjoyment of every public blessing and private happiness long to rule over a grateful and loyal people.

Given under our Common Seal, this 20th day of July 1830.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commissioners, Parishioners, and Inhabitants of the Town of Devonport, most humbly approach your Royal presence, to express our deep concern for the severe loss which your Majesty and these Kingdoms have sustained, in the death of your Royal Brother, our late most gracious Sovereign, to condole with your Majesty this affecting event; and, with hearts full of sincere duty and affectionate zeal, to congratulate your Majesty on your happy accession to the Government of a free, loyal, and united people.

We, the Inhabitants of this Town in particular, who have been distinguished by an especial mark of favour, can never be unmindful of our duty and obligations to the Royal Benefactor, who caused the name of Devonport to live on the same page of history with George the Fourth, his name will, on all occasions, raise in our breasts the most lively impressions: and it now prompts us to be among the first, on this occasion, to testify the warmest sense of gratitude towards the present Royal Family.

Being truly sensible of the peculiar blessings we have experienced under the unparalleled and glorious reign of our late King, and having witnessed the protection which all classes have enjoyed in the free exercise of their religious duties, we could not but dread the awful hour when Almighty God should think fit to deprive us of our beloved Monarch—that momentous hour is passed;—and with it the dread. Happily for the world! thrice happily for this kingdom! we behold a Prince ascend the Throne, whose benevolence of disposition is proverbial, whose liberal sentiments are well known and appreciated, and whose zeal for the welfare of England has been uniform. We have the indisputable evidence before us, that when your Majesty held the important situation of Lord High Admiral, time was not regarded,—toil and fatigue were no consideration,—patience was inexhaustible whenever, for the good of the country, information was to be acquired, grievances to be redressed, or claims to be listened to. It is, therefore, with the most sincere love and veneration tion we congratulate your Majesty's accession to the Throne of your Ancestors.

Our eyes are now turned on your Majesty's sacred Person, in the joyful hope that we still have a friend and a father over us. Bred and educated in the naval profession amongst us, and identified as your Majesty has been by the Inhabitants of this Town, we cannot but glory in the name of William the Fourth; and it is our happiness to know that the qualities that endow your Majesty's heart, will had lustre to the Crown, and will give security to your subjects.

We cannot be grateful enough to the Divine Being, when we reflect that He raised to the Throne, in the Person of your Royal Mother, a Queen, whose virtues eminently qualified her to be the Consort of our late Sovereign George the Third, of blessed memory, whose conduct characterized the British Court as the most moral of the age, whose influence through a long and happy life, preserved the Court and the Nation from vicious contamination, and whose protection and support gave additional strength to virtue. We cannot describe how warmly our feelings are interested in this subject, nor express, in sufficient terms, our congratulations upon the auspicious occasion which elevates to the Throne your Majesty's virtuous Consort, Adelaide, distinguished, as she is, by the most eminent graces and endowments, we already regard the Queen with duty and affection, and point to the Throne for a pattern of moral worth and conjugal affection.

May the Almighty bless and protect your Majesty, and render your reign long and happy, and may future ages have reason to admire the justice and equity of your Majesty's Government.

Thomas Husband, Chairman.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

PERMIT, most gracious Sovereign, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Master, Wardens, and Commonalty of Merchant Venturers of the City of Bristol, to tender to your Majesty the assurances of their sincere condolence on the late melancholy event which has bereaved your Majesty of a beloved and affectionate Brother, and this Country of a Sovereign, not less endeared to his subjects by the amiable qualities of his heart, than revered and esteemed for those kingly virtues which shed a lustre over his reign, and rendered it nearly one continued course of prosperity and glory.

But deeply as we deplore this afflicting dispensation of Providence, we are not unmindful of the blessing we derive, in the succession of a Prince, educated from his earliest youth in the service of his country, well acquainted with the principles of our free Constitution, and to whom we look with confidence for the maintenance of those sacred Institutions, for the preservation of which, at a crisis of the utmost peril, that ever memorable change in the Regal line of Succession was effected, which, by the blessing of God, seated the descendants of the illustrious House of Brunswick on the Throne of these Realms.

Upon your Majesty's happy accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, we offer our sincere congratulations. We intreat your Majesty to accept the assurances of our faithful and inviolable attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to your Majesty's amiable Consort, our most gracious Queen Adelaide; and we pray that your Majesty may long enjoy the felicity of presiding over the the councils, and reigning in the hearts of a free, happy, and grateful people.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Magistrates, Dean of Guild, Convener of the Trades, and Remanent Members of the Town Council of Arbroath.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Arbroath, beg leave most humbly to sympathize and condole with your Majesty on the great and afflicting dispensation with which it has pleased Almighty God to visit the nation, in the lamented death of your Majesty's illustrious Brother, our late beloved Sovereign, King George the Fourth. Endeared as His Majesty was to all his people, by a career of unrivaled glory and unexampled success in war, and devoted as His Majesty was to the improvement and melioration of the internal policy of the country, the melancholy event which is now so universally deplored, cannot but be viewed as a national calamity. But while we thus mourn this great and ever-to-be-lamented bereavement, it is consolatory to know that in your Majesty we have a successor sprung from the same illustrious line, a Prince whose whole life has been devoted to the service of his country, whose habits and affections are all British, and to whom we may confidently look forward for a continuance of the same liberal and enlightened policy which has embalmed in the grateful recollection of his faithful subjects, the blessed memory of his late most excellent Majesty. That Almighty God may shower his best blessings on your Majesty's head, and that your Majesty may be long preserved to reign over a free, loyal, and happy people, is our sincere and ardent prayer.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the President, Vice-Presidents, and Council, of the Royal College of Surgeons, in London, humbly solicit your Majesty graciously to receive our condolence on the demise of your august Brother, our late revered Sovereign, who graciously declared himself Patron of the College, conferred on it many royal favours, and, by a munificent token, perpetuated His Majesty's high consideration; and under whose auspices all the designs of science, and the liberal arts eminently flourished.

Turning from the cause of our profound grief to an occasion of joy and lively expectation, we presume to offer our congratulatory homage on the accession of your Majesty to the Throne of these Realms. We are animated by confident reliance on a continuance of royal patronage, and on your Majesty's countenance, in our endeavours for the cultivation and improvement of the art and science of surgery, and for the preservation of the health and lives of your Majesty's subjects.

We further presume, on this congratulatory occasion, humbly to solicit our most excellent Queen graciously to receive our dutiful homage.

We fervently pray that your Majesties may long reign in the affections of a loyal, brave, and happy people.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Address of the Chancellor, Rector, Dean of Faculty, Professors, and Masters of His Majesty's Marischal College and University of Aberdeen.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Dean of Faculty, Professors, and Masters of the Marischal College and University of Aberdeen, beg leave humbly to express to your Majesty our deep condolence on the demise of our late revered and beloved Sovereign, your Majesty's Royal Brother, under whose wise Government the British Empire attained to the highest pitch of prosperity and glory.

Permit us, Sire, at the same time, to offer to your Majesty our heartfelt congratulation on your happy accession to the Imperial Crown of the United Kingdom.

Unalterably attached to your Royal Person and Government, and deeply convinced that in your Majesty those invaluable national privileges which were established under your Royal Ancestors, and every great public interest, will find a firm and impartial Protector, we desire humbly to assure your Majesty of our resolution to continue to inculcate on the youth committed to our charge, those principles of Christian piety, of loyalty, and of zeal for the British Constitution, which, combined with sound learning, will best qualify them for the discharge of every social and public duty.

That your Majesty's reign may be long and prosperous, that you may constantly experience the Divine blessing on your Royal Person, and on the measures of your Government, and that the Sceptre of these Realms may descend in your illustrious House to the latest posterity, is the fervent prayer, may it please your Majesty, of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Dean of Faculty, Professors and Masters of your Majesty's Marischal College and University of Aberdeen.

Signed in the name, and by the appointment of the Faculty of said College, this 16th day of July 1830, by

Gordon, Chancellor ; Charles Forbes, Rector ; Duncan Davidson, Dean of Faculty.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Noblemen, Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Freeholders, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Aberdeen, beg leave humbly to approach the Throne, and to offer to your Majesty our most sincere and heartfelt condolence, on the afflicting event with which it has pleased Divine Providence to visit your Majesty and your Royal House, in the decease of our late much revered and universally beloved Sovereign, the remembrance of whose many exalted virtues and illustrious qualities must ever be cherished with affectionate veneration in the hearts of a faithful people, while his inflexible firmness and genuine magnanimity, in the execution of his high and important functions, will be appreciated by the latest posterity as adding an imperishable lustre to his eventful reign.

Feeling in the accession of your Majesty to the Throne of these Realms, assurances of the most consolatory kind as to the future, we entreat your Majesty's favourable and gracious acceptance of this our humble and dutiful expression of firm allegiance and respectful attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person, and our steady adherence to our free and happy Constitution.

The long-continued and uniform proofs we have experienced of your Majesty's exemplary conduct in the relations of dutiful Son, affectionate Brother, and loyal and faithful Subject, under two successive reigns, inspire us with the confident and animating hope that the Sceptre of the Empire will continue to be swayed with the same regard to the welfare and prosperity of your people, and the security of that Constitution under which we have the happiness to live ; and that the Almighty Ruler of the Universe may, in his infinite goodness, add many years of uninterrupted health and increasing honour to your Majesty's valuable life, and that of your august Consort, to whose exalted virtues the country has long looked up with unfeigned and respectful admiration, and bestow upon your Majesties all the blessings of a peaceful and prosperous reign, is our most fervent prayer.

Signed in name, and by appointment of a General Meeting at Aberdeen, July 22, 1830.

Andrew Murray, Preses.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the High Constables for the City of Edinburgh, beg leave to approach your Majesty with the most lively and heartfelt congratulations upon your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these Realms.

Animated with the most ardent attachment to those great constitutional principles which have ever influenced the government of the House of Brunswick, and which have for so many years been the means, under Divine Providence, of securing the happiness of the people and the glory of the Throne, we hail, with no common feelings of delight, the accession of another Sovereign of that illustrious House.

The page of British history which records the reigns of your predecessors will exhibit to future ages the greatness of Britain ; and amidst those brilliant actions which the valour of her sons have achieved, posterity, in dwelling with admiration on the records of the most distinguished naval glories of the Empire, will proudly recognise the gallant personal services of King William the Fourth.

We have felt, in common with all your Majesty's subjects, the great and melancholy loss which we have sustained, by the lamented death of His late most excellent Majesty. The proud and commanding situation which, under the reign of your august Brother, the nation acquired and maintained, and the unparalleled success under his government, attendant on the British arms, have invested his memory with a greatness and dignity which have rarely been equalled; and we look back with the most grateful recollections on the kind and unvarying solicitude which he manifested in whatever concerned the welfare and happiness of his people. We again beg to assure your Majesty of our unalterable attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and of our determination to preserve, as far as in us lies, the excellent code of laws by which this country, under your Majesty, is governed.

That your Majesty, and your Royal Consort, may long be spared, under Divine Providence, to be a blessing to your affectionate people, is the fervent prayer of your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects.

Signed in the name and on behalf of the Society of High Constables, this 12th day of July 1830. Andrew Leewright, Moderator.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the Borough of New Woodstock, humbly beg leave to offer our condolence on the loss of our late gracious Sovereign George the Fourth, of glorious memory, and our felicitations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these Realms.

May the enjoyment of every blessing, both domestic and public, be the lot of your sacred Majesty, and of your Royal Consort, to a protracted period of life, and the gratitude of an affectionate and loyal people be the reward of your Majesty's exertions to promote the happiness of all ranks and degrees among us; and more especially to support and defend that form of government, and those institutions, civil and religious, under which we were born, and which we justly consider the best and proudest inheritance that can descend to our posterity.

Given at our Council Chamber, this 24th day of July 1830, under our Common Seal.

[Presented by the Duke of Marlborough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the President and Fellows of the Royal College of Physicians, approach your Majesty with a humble request to be permitted to mingle our sorrows with those of your Majesty and the Nation, for the loss we have sustained by the death of a Sovereign who had the happiness, during his rule over this great country, to see its military glory carried to a height which surpassed even that of the Edwards and the Henries at the most brilliant era of British fame, and who promoted the arts of peace with a taste and judgment which will transmit this name to posterity amongst those of the most beneficent and illustrious Princes who have adorned our annals.

Whilst we deplore such a loss, we have the consolation to contemplate in your Majesty's person a Prince who has himself had experience on that element which has contributed so largely to the triumphs of Great Britain, and who has already manifested to us such a determination to maintain the respectability of our institutions as gives rise to a confident hope, that, whilst he has the glory of being the arbiter of Europe, he will desire to find his happiness in the happiness of his subjects, and his real power in their concord and civilization.

Francis Hawkins, Registrar.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the President and Society of Advocates in Aberdeen, incorporated by Royal Charter, beg to approach the Throne, and to offer the tribute of our sincere condolence on the demise of our late lamented Sovereign, whose many good and amiable qualities, the blessings we enjoyed under his truly paternal government, and the glory of his reign, we must ever cherish in grateful remembrance.

With such recollections, we feel consolation and unfeigned pleasure in the reflection, that the Imperial Crown has devolved on a Prince, who, from having spent the early part of his life in the service of his country, and from having had the example of his venerable Father, and justly revered Brother, constantly before him, while discharging the duties of a loyal and exalted subject, is so well qualified to exercise the functions of royalty with honour to himself, with glory to the British name, and with lasting advantage to the best interests of his people.

Permit us, Sire, on this great and interesting occasion, to mingle our congratulations with those of our fellow countrymen, and to offer the assurance of our loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's person, our veneration for the laws, and our love for the constitution, and to express our heartfelt wishes that your Majesty may long reign in peace, in health, and in happiness, over a free, a loyal and an united people.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, and the Seal of the Society is hereto affixed, at Aberdeen, the 19th day of July 1830 years.

James Blackie, President.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, in Common Council assembled, humbly approach your Royal Person, to express our feelings of sincere condolence on the decease of your illustrious Brother, our late revered and beloved Sovereign George the Fourth, whose memory is most justly endeared to us by his strict adherence to those principles of justice and moderation which have invariably influenced the Royal House of Brunswick in its mild and paternal government, and which have tended to maintain these kingdoms in that exalted station which they hold in the scale of nations. But our feelings of regret for the loss which this kingdom has sustained, in the death of His late Majesty, are greatly alleviated by the recollection, that the same principles which influenced your Majesty's illustrious Ancestors are preserved in the person of your most gracious Majesty, and which we feel assured will continue to direct your Majesty's councils in the government of the British Nation, and in the support of our free and glorious Constitution.

Allow us, therefore, Sire, to proffer to your Majesty's gracious acceptance our unfeigned congratulations on the accession of your Majesty to the Throne of these Realms, and to assure your Majesty, that the loyal inhabitants of your ancient City of Bristol are not exceeded by any of your Majesty's subjects in sentiments of the most firm and devoted attachment to your Majesty, your illustrious Consort, Queen Adelaide, and the several other branches of the Royal Family; and that it is our earnest prayer, that your Majesty, and our most gracious Queen, may be long preserved in the enjoyment of health and every other earthly blessing.

[Presented by the Mayor, accompanied by the Sheriffs, Mr. Alderman Abraham Hillhouse, his Grace the Duke of Beaufort, Lord Lieutenant of the County and City of Bristol, and Mr. Serjeant Ludlow, Town Clerk.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

CONFIDING in the attachment felt by your august Family towards the Residence and Parish of Kew, and of which its Inhabitants have had the most decisive testimonies, we, Proprietors and Principal Residents in Kew, beg leave to approach your Majesty with our humble duty and our congratulation on your Majesty's ascending to the Throne of your Ancestors.

In addressing a Monarch who has repeatedly relinquished the privileges of high station for the purpose of encountering the toils of a naval life in the service of his country, any other language than that of frankness and sincerity would as ill become the Sovereign to whom this Address is presented as the individuals who subscribe it.

If any thing could add to the satisfaction felt by us, in common with your Majesty's other subjects, on the occasion of your Majesty's accession to the Throne, it would be the hope, Sir, which we venture to indulge, that your Majesty may not altogether disregard this once favoured residence of your Family, convinced as we are, that here, yet more if possible than elsewhere, your Majesty would find yourself surrounded by persons long attached to the Royal Family, or treading in the steps of those who were so; and anxious, upon every occasion, to testify to your Majesty the zeal and the devotion with which they have the honour to express themselves.

Your Majesty's most dutiful and most devoted subjects and servants.

[Here follow the Signatures.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal, dutiful, and affectionate subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Bailiff, Corporation, and Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Plympton

Earle, desire humbly to approach your Majesty, and to offer the expressions of our sincere condolence on the dispensation that has lately deprived us of our beloved Sovereign, during whose mild and prosperous reign, as Regent and King, we have obtained a character for splendid achievements, for national integrity, and general happiness, not to be surpassed.

It is now left us to contemplate in your Majesty a Successor descended from the same august Family, possessing the same benevolent and decided abilities to rule over your people, ever anxious to secure our national and individual prosperity.

We also contemplate with pleasure that your Majesty ascends the Throne accompanied by a Princess that will add lustre to her present accomplishments, by establishing a Court equal in character to that of Queen Charlotte, of blessed memory.

We shall never cease to pray that Almighty God will be graciously pleased to pour down his blessings on King William the Fourth, and Queen Adelaide, and that your Majesty may live long in health to reign over your people in happiness and prosperity.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Principals of Colleges, and Professors of the University of St. Andrews, beg leave to approach the Throne on this solemn occasion, with all the sentiments which the liveliest sympathy and the most ardent affection and devoted loyalty can inspire. To the period during which our late lamented and beloved Sovereign administered the government of this great empire, we look back with feelings of exulting patriotism, as to an era of national glory unrivalled in the annals of our country. The amiable and splendid qualities which so conspicuously adorned his character, and shed a bright lustre on the diadem; the magnanimity and dignity with which he maintained the honour of the Crown, and the safety and independence of his people, in seasons of unexampled difficulty and danger; the wisdom and vigour of his counsels, and the invincible prowess of his arms, by which he rescued the nations of Europe from the yoke of the oppressor, and raised Britain to a high pre-eminence over all the kingdoms of the earth; the persevering zeal with which he laboured to extend and perpetuate the blessings of that glorious peace which he had achieved by his arms; the paternal and gentle sway with which he ruled over a beloved people; his munificent patronage of learning, and of all the useful and elegant arts of life; his tender and anxious concern to alleviate the burdens of his people, to extend the commerce and secure the permanent prosperity and stability of the whole empire, will all be remembered by us with admiration and affectionate gratitude to the latest hour of life. His memory is embalmed in the hearts of a whole people, who were proud of such a Sovereign, and it will descend in the records of fame to rouse the emulation of Princes yet unborn.

With deep and unfeigned sorrow we contemplate the removal of the endeared Father of his people from his career of usefulness and glory. Under this great national calamity we bow with humble resignation to the will of Heaven ; and we fervently pray that the God of all grace may in this season of sorrow sustain and cheer your Majesty, your amiable and illustrious Consort, and all the Members of your august House, with those consolations which he alone can bestow.

Yet, while we sympathise in the heartfelt regret manifested by a whole nation, on this mournful occasion, we feel an alleviation of our sorrow in being enabled to look up to your Majesty as the Successor of your illustrious Brother, and we beg leave, with one heart and one voice, to offer our most cordial congratulations on your Majesty's auspicious accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, together with the dutiful assurance of our loyal and affectionate attachment to your sacred Person, and to the illustrious House of Brunswick. From the princely qualities which shed a lustre on your Majesty's character, the benignity of your disposition, your matured talents and experience, and your patriotic attachment to your country, which you have zealously served from your earliest years, we are encouraged to hail the commencement of your Majesty's reign with every happy anticipation, and to entertain the well-founded conviction, that it will be the first and dearest object of your heart to prove yourself the benefactor of your people, and the watchful guardian of their religious and civil rights and privileges, and that, treading in the footsteps of your lamented Brother and revered Father, you will be enabled to maintain the prosperity and glory of the British Empire in undiminished splendour.

As members of this ancient seminary, which has often experienced the favour and protection of your Royal Ancestors, we humbly entreat that we may be permitted to convey to the foot of the Throne, the assurance that, while we employ our unremitting exertions to instruct the youth committed to our care, in all sound and useful learning and science, and to inspire them with sentiments of genuine piety, and with the love of that righteousness which is the only solid basis of national prosperity and honour, we shall never cease to cherish in their minds loyal attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and veneration for that unrivalled constitution which is the glory of Britain, and the envy of surrounding nations.

May that God by whom Kings reign pour down his choicest benedictions on your Majesty and your illustrious Consort the Queen ; may his mighty hand and outstretched arm be ever your defence ; may he render your Sceptre a Sceptre of righteousness, the emblem of national prosperity and glory ; may you be permitted to reap the richest earthly reward of all your labours in witnessing the happiness and calling forth the blessings of an affectionate and a united people ; and after a long reign of glory on earth, may you obtain an immortal and unfading Crown in Heaven, are the fervent prayers of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most dutiful and affectionate subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Principals, and Professors of your Majesty's University of Saint Andrews.

Given under our Common Seal, this 17th day of July 1830.

Melville, C. ; Geo. Buist, Rector.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the ancient City of Saint Andrews, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to approach the Throne with sentiments inspired by the most ardent affection for your Majesty's Person, and sympathy for the very great loss which your Majesty and the whole British Empire have sustained by the death of your Royal Brother, His Most Excellent Majesty King George the Fourth, of glorious and blessed memory, who ruled over this kingdom during one of the most difficult and dangerous eras of the world, and who at last, by the splendour of his victories and the wisdom of his counsels, procured for this empire the blessings of a glorious and lasting peace.

It gives us very great consolation to see the British Throne filled by another Prince of the illustrious House of Brunswick, one who has long served his country so ably in many difficult and trying situations, and one who, from the wisdom and experience he has acquired, will add new lustre to the Throne, and promote the happiness and prosperity of the British people.

We feel ourselves called upon, in a most peculiar manner, to express to your Majesty, at this time, these sentiments of loyalty and attachment, as we have, for these many years past, considered ourselves particularly connected with your Majesty as Duke of St. Andrews, and have ever taken the warmest interest in all that concerned our Royal Duke.

That your Majesty may be long spared to rule over this empire, and that every kind of happiness may attend your Majesty, and your illustrious Consort, the Queen, and all the Royal Family, is the earnest prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Council of Saint Andrews.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, at Saint Andrews, the 19th day of July, in the year 1830, and the Common Seal of the City is hereunto affixed.

William Haig, Provost.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Sire,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the ancient and loyal City of Worcester (in Council assembled) most humbly approach your Royal Person, to offer to your Majesty our deep and unfeigned condolence on the loss which your Majesty and these Kingdoms have sustained, in the demise of our late beloved and revered Sovereign.

We also beg to express our heartfelt and warmest congratulations on your Majesty's happy accession to the Throne of these Realms.

We feel assured that our glorious constitution and liberties will ever find in your gracious Majesty their best and surest protector, and that your Majesty's reign will ever be attended with glory and prosperity to these kingdoms, and with uninterrupted happiness to your loyal and devoted subjects.

Accept, gracious Sire, the tribute of our affectionate loyalty and inviolable attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person, Family, and Government, and our fervent prayers that it may please the Almighty Disposer of Events, that your Majesty's reign may be prolonged in health, in happiness, with your illustrious and most amiable Consort, our gracious Queen Adelaide, and in every other blessing which this world can afford.

Given under our Common Seal in the Council Chamber of the said City, the 23d day of July 1830.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, in General Court assembled, beg leave to offer to your Majesty our sentiments of sincere condolence on the death of our late much lamented Sovereign, your Majesty's illustrious Brother.

We are deeply impressed with a sense of the uniform protection and encouragement which the commerce and manufactures of the United Kingdom experienced from our late Sovereign during his prosperous and eventful reign.

At the same time we humbly present to your Majesty our cordial congratulations upon your Majesty's accession to the Throne, confident that the general happiness of your subjects, the security of their rights and liberties, civil and religious, and the advancement of their commercial interests will be unceasing objects of your Majesty's care and attention, and we look forward to your Majesty's gracious protection for the encouragement of our earnest endeavours to promote the credit and commercial enterprize of this great empire.

May the Almighty bless your Majesty and your Royal Consort, our gracious Queen, and give you a long and happy reign over us, may our country continue to enjoy the blessings of peace, may every class of your Majesty's subjects be duly sensible of your paternal care; and may they vie with each other in promoting the prosperity of your dominions, and in loyalty and affection to your Majesty's Person and Government.

By order of the General Court, on Thursday the 22d July 1830.

John Knight, Secretary.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and faithful subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the ancient and loyal Borough of Cambridge, in Common Hall assembled, most humbly lay before your Majesty our most cordial congratulations on your Majesty's happy accession to the Throne of your Ancestors.

Conscious at the same time of the loss which your Majesty and the Nation have sustained by the decease of your Majesty's Royal Brother, our late most gracious Monarch George the Fourth; we venture to condole with your Majesty upon this most afflictive event, and to pay this tribute of our unaffected grief to the revered memory of a Sovereign so justly endeared to his people.

Whilst His late Majesty as Regent presided over the government of this country, its councils were blessed with success, and its arms were crowned with victory in every part of the world. Ere his Regency expired by the accession of His late Majesty to the Throne of his Father, the blessings of a glorious peace were diffused over the land, and from that period our country has enjoyed an almost uninterrupted tranquillity under a mild and paternal reign.

We now rejoice in the assurances which your Majesty's gracious declaration has afforded us of the same protection and support. We anticipate with confidence a continuance of these blessings under the dispensation of that Almighty Being, by whom Kings reign and Princes decree justice.

Your Majesty's numerous and princely virtues, as also those of your Royal Consort, Her gracious Majesty the Queen, become to us the surest pledges of all our hopes, and under the guidance of the same Almighty Providence, will realize our fondest expectations.

That your Majesty's reign may long continue will be our constant prayer. Our duty and our interest will alike stimulate us to make that only return in our power for the blessings we enjoy in a constant obedience to the laws of our country, and in the most steady attachment and affection to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Given under our Common Seal, the 19th day of July 1830.

To His Most Excellent Majesty KING WILLIAM the FOURTH.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Inhabitant Householders of Regent-Street, on His Majesty's most gracious command for an opening to be made from this Street into St. James's Park.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitant Householders of Regent-Street, humbly approach your Majesty to offer our condolence for the loss which your Majesty and the Nation have sustained, by the demise of our late most gracious Sovereign King George the Fourth. At the same time we address our devout thanksgiving to Almighty God for having preserved your Majesty to wield the Sceptre of your Ancestors, and to rule over this great empire.

We humbly present to your Majesty our most grateful and dutiful thanks for the kind consideration and anxious solicitude which your Majesty has manifested for the comfort and welfare of your people, but most especially for that early and spontaneous act of your Majesty's auspicious reign, which commanded the barrier to be removed, and an avenue formed connecting this noble Street with St. James's Park; and with profound deference we humbly solicit that the entrance which your Majesty has thus most graciously ordered to be made, may be called "King William the Fourth's Gate."

That Divine Providence may bless your Majesty and your illustrious and amiable Consort, the Queen, with long life, health, and happiness, is the earnest prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Nobility, Clergy, Gentry, and other Inhabitants of the County of Berks, venture to address your Majesty in terms of sympathy and condolence for the loss which your Majesty, in common with the Nation at large, has sustained, by the death of our late most gracious Sovereign.

If the feelings of paternal sorrow admit of consolation from a view of public events, it cannot but be soothing to your Majesty to reflect, that our late revered Monarch did not, by the ordinance of Providence, resign his earthly crown till he had seen it surrounded by the splendour of unparalleled successes—a war which, after involving some of the most powerful States of Continental Europe in ruin, threatened to extinguish also the liberties and independence of this country, was, during his reign brought to an happy and glorious conclusion; and it is with peculiar pleasure that we acknowledge the heroic services of that branch of the public force which has been honoured by your Majesty's personal association with it, in effecting so happy a termination of so fierce and protracted a struggle. Nor were the arts less fostered and protected by the patronage of His late Majesty, than were the rights and interests of his subjects vindicated, and the British arms rendered triumphant by his unbroken courage and steady perseverance.

To these topics of consolation, under your Majesty's late afflicting loss, we would add also our humble but cordial congratulations on the accession of your Majesty to a Throne, rendered illustrious by the possession of your Ancestors, and on the means afforded you of securing the affection of a grateful people, "Peace hath her victories no less than war," and it will be a pleasing task to your Majesty's mind to restore, by a considerate and economical Government, the resources of a nation, which, in the attainment of never-fading glory, has unavoidably made great sacrifices, and has submitted, with affectionate loyalty, to severe privations.

We earnestly pray that, by the blessing of Divine Providence, your Majesty, together with your Royal Consort, may long continue to reign with uninterrupted glory and happiness over a free, an enlightened, and a loyal people.

John Walter, High Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, High Steward, Recorder, and Freemen of the Town of Kingston-upon-Thames, in the County of Surrey.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bailiffs, High Steward, Recorder, and Freemen of your Majesty's ancient Town of Kingston-upon-Thames, beg leave most respectfully to approach your Majesty, upon the occasion of your accession to the Throne of these Realms.

We feel justly proud that during many distant, as well as recent periods of the history of this kingdom, it has been our happiness to enjoy the presence and neighbourhood of many of your Majesty's Royal Predecessors, to whose bounty we owe the enjoyment of all our ancient rights and valuable privileges; and it has been the especial care of our ancestors and ourselves to be distinguished for a devoted attachment to the person of our Sovereign, and for a deep reverence for the religion and laws of our country.

We offer to your Majesty our unfeigned condolence upon the demise of your Royal Brother, our late lamented Sovereign, of blessed memory, and we sincerely join in the national grief at the loss of a Monarch whose reign was mild and paternal in peace, as it was honourable and glorious in war. We humbly trust, however, that we may be permitted, at the same time, to lay at the feet of your Majesty the expression of the heartfelt joy with which we have seen this loss sustained by the nation, repaired by your Majesty's succession, convinced, as we are, by the opportunities which, for many years, we have enjoyed of witnessing your Majesty's private and public worth, that whilst your personal virtues will add lustre to the Crown, which a kind Providence has bestowed upon you, your Majesty will find a solid foundation for your Throne in the ardent affection of your people; and we pray that your Majesty's reign may be long, peaceful and prosperous, a source of happiness to yourself and your illustrious Consort, and a blessing to your subjects.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of our said Town, the 6th day of July, in the first year of your Majesty's reign, and in the year of our Lord 1830.

Charles Edward Jemmett, Town Clerk.

Whitehall, August 3, 1830.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir Robert Peel, Bart. one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Inhabitants, Freeholders and Householdors of the Parish of Saint Luke's, Chelsea, in the County of Middlesex.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, humbly approach your most gracious Majesty with our sincere condolence for the loss your Majesty, in conjunction with the whole United Kingdom, has sustained in the demise of our late revered and beneficent King, your Majesty's beloved and affectionate Brother.

The experience the nation has had in your Majesty's domestic and professional life, and in the auspicious commencement of your Majesty's reign, has been highly gratifying, and amply sufficient to inspire and establish the most lively and well-founded hopes of your Majesty's judicious and laudable intentions towards the general benefit and welfare of your dominions.

And we fervently trust that, by the blessing of the Almighty, your Majesty, and your Royal Consort, our most gracious Queen Adelaide, may long live to enjoy the blessings of peace and happiness in the bosom of a united and loyal empire.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Sire,

WE, the Parishioners of the ancient, loyal, and Manor Royal Town of Greenwich, beg leave humbly to approach your Majesty with the assurance of our deep condolence in the severe affliction under which your Majesty is suffering, from the loss of our late most beneficent and gracious Sovereign, King George the Fourth, of glorious and blessed memory.

At the same time we would, in expressions of dutiful obedience, pray your Majesty to accept our humble, but most sincere and heartfelt, congratulations upon your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these Realms, animated, as we are, with the hope that, under the blessing of Divine Providence, your Majesty will long live to reign over a happy, free, and loyal people, and with the confidence that Great Britain will continue to advance in glory and pre-eminence under your Majesty's paternal authority.

We further pray your Majesty to believe, that there are not in the whole of your dominions any subjects more loyal, or more devotedly attached to your Majesty's sacred Person, and to your illustrious Consort, Adelaide, our beloved Queen, than the Parishioners of the ancient Royal Manor Town of Greenwich.

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Stirling.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of your ancient Burgh of Stirling, humbly desire to lay at the foot of the Throne the expressions of our sincere and heartfelt condolence on the lamented decease of the late King, your Majesty's Brother, of blessed and glorious memory.

We, in common with the whole British Empire, must ever remember with feelings of the deepest gratitude, that our late revered Sovereign, under circumstances of great and unexampled difficulty, maintained the high character of the country in war, raising the empire to that proud pre-eminence which it now holds among the nations of Europe, and finally secured to his people the inestimable blessings of an honourable and lasting peace.

We beg at same time to offer to your Majesty our humble and heartfelt congratulations on your accession to the Throne, and to assure you of our most sincere devotion and attachment to your Royal Person, and to your illustrious Consort the Queen; and we fervently pray that, under your Majesty's Government, the Constitution, as by law established, may acquire additional strength, and that you may long preside over and promote the happiness of a free, loyal, and happy people.

Signed in our name, by our appointment, by James Forman, Esq., our Chief Magistrate, and sealed with the Common Seal of the Burgh, this 19th day of July 1830.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble, loyal, and dutiful Address of the Provost, Bailies, Dean of Guild, Treasurer, and Councillors of the Royal Burgh of Dumfries, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Provost, Bailies, Dean of Guild, Treasurer, and Remanent Members of Council of the Royal Burgh of Dumfries, most humbly beg to approach your Throne, and most dutifully to offer to your Majesty the united expressions of our sincere and heartfelt condolence on the lamented death of our late most gracious and most illustrious King, George the Fourth, your Majesty's Brother, of blessed and glorious memory.

And while in accordance with the feelings of every loyal subject of this distinguished empire, we deplore the loss of a Monarch so universally beloved at home, and so extensively respected by the other and surrounding nations, we congratulate your Majesty and ourselves, that the British sceptre has, in the providence of God, descended to another distinguished Member of the illustrious House of Hanover, in the person of your Majesty, to whom we avail ourselves of the present opportunity of tendering our unanimous devotion, attachment, and loyalty.

And we fervently pray that the Almighty Disposer of all sublunary events, may long permit your Majesty to reign over, and promote the interests and happiness of a free, a loyal, and religious people.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and by our appointment at Dumfries, this 22d day of July, in the year of our Lord 1830.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Commissioners of Police for the City of Glasgow, beg leave to approach your Majesty with the most sincere expressions of condolence, on the death of our late beloved Sovereign, George the Fourth, a Monarch under whose reign we enjoyed the inestimable privileges of the British Constitution, and all the rights of free men. Feelingly alive to the value and importance of such privileges, whilst we would condole with your Majesty on the death of such a Brother and such a Sovereign, we would at the same time, with the most sincere loyalty and affection, congratulate your Majesty on your succession to the Throne of these Realms, satisfied that, under your Majesty's sway, we shall still continue to enjoy all the blessings of our excellent Constitution, and that, after the example of your lamented Brother, you will consider the glory of your Crown and Government chiefly advanced by zealously promoting every measure which will not only ensure the rights, but promote the peace and prosperity of your subjects; and we would the more especially entertain the well-founded hope of such blessings being enjoyed by all classes of your Majesty's subjects, from the consideration that a Monarch fills the Throne, who, in early life, mingled with his Father's subjects in the dangers and glories of the nation's bulwark, and who consequently must be well qualified to maintain the glory and independence of his Crown, and rejoice in the happiness, as well as sympathise, with the sorrows of his people.

We beg most respectfully to assure your Majesty of our sincere respect for your Majesty's Person and Government, and of our determination zealously to exert ourselves for the preservation of the peace of your Majesty's city of Glasgow, the second in Great Britain in point of population, commerce and manufactures.

That your Majesty, and your Royal Consort, may long be spared, under Divine Providence, to be a blessing to your affectionate and loyal people, and that your domestic happiness may be unalloyed, and your reign peaceful and prosperous, is our most fervent wish and prayer.

Signed in the name, presence, and by appointment of the Commissioners of Police for the City of Glasgow, at the General Meeting of the Board, held at their Hall, this 22d day of July 1830 years.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and affectionate subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Assistants of the Borough of Leeds, in Court assembled, beg leave to lay before the Throne our address of condolence on the death of our late beloved Sovereign. Sympathising with your Majesty's affliction on account of the loss of an affectionate Brother, we ask permission to join your Majesty in common lamentation for a most beneficent and gracious King. His glorious and successful direction of the nation's energies in war, his fostering encouragement of the arts of peace, and his unceasing cares for the happiness of his people, endear the memory of George the Fourth to our grateful breasts.

Permit us also, Sire, to hail most cordially your Majesty's happy accession to the Throne, and to express our dutiful attachment to your Majesty's Person. A life passed in the service of your country, has afforded to your Majesty above other Princes opportunity of learning the relative duties of Kings and Subjects, and your Majesty's gracious reference to that great exemplar for a constitutional King, your Majesty's revered Father, leads us to hope that your Majesty will succeed in your declared purpose to maintain the reformed religion established by law, to protect the rights and liberties, and to promote the prosperity and happiness of all classes of your people.

May the Almighty bless and prolong your Majesty's reign, may he preserve our gracious Queen, and grant that the virtues which distinguish the Royal Consort, reflected from the Throne, may shed their pure lustre on the Court, and cause the character of the British females to shine with increased splendour. And may the King of Kings protect and keep the illustrious House of Brunswick on the Throne of this united kingdom to its perpetual happiness and glory.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Borough, the 22d day of July, in the year of our Lord 1830.

To His Most Sacred Majesty WILLIAM, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, KING.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bishops of the Scottish Episcopal Church, beg leave most humbly to approach the Throne, in our own names, and in the name of all the Clergy and Laity of our Communion, to express our deep sorrow for the death of your Majesty's Royal Brother, our late most excellent King.

No class of men can more sincerely sympathize than we do with the Royal Family, and with all the Inhabitants of this mighty Empire, in grief for the loss of a Sovereign who deserved, as much as any Sovereign ever deserved, to be loved and revered as the Father of all his people, and who, from the commencement of his regency, to the conclusion of his reign, extended as his and your Majesty's Royal Father had done before him, to our primitive and venerable, though small and humble, Church, that paternal protection which for generations before it had not experienced. We feel peculiar gratitude for his bounty, more than once extended to us; and we retain a very deep and heartfelt recollection of the most gracious manner in which we were received into His Royal Presence in Holyrood-House, the Palace of your Majesty's Royal Ancestors.

But, while we lament the loss which this nation in general, and ourselves in particular, have thus sustained, we derive great consolation in the sincere hope and trust, that our loss is his great gain; and we heartily congratulate ourselves in particular, and the British Empire in general, on the happy accession of your Majesty to that Throne which has been so long filled with dignity and honour by your illustrious Father, and by your no less illustrious Brother, in the firm hope and conviction, that, through the grace of Him by whom Kings reign and Princes decree justice, your Majesty will continue to tread in the footsteps of your Royal Predecessors, causing the laws to be administered with justice tempered by mercy to all orders and degrees of men within your widely extended dominions.

Your Majesty will thus prove yourself a worthy Successor of George the Fourth, as he was of George the Third; and by reigning in the hearts of your people you will secure their allegiance by stronger obligations than human laws can ever supply.

That your Majesty, after a long and prosperous reign may be called from an earthly to a heavenly inheritance, is the earnest prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most loyal and devoted subjects.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Royal Burgh of Inverury.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and affectionate subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Royal Burgh of Inverury, humbly crave permission to approach your Throne to bewail and condole with your Majesty for that most afflictive dispensation with which the Almighty has been pleased to visit these kingdoms, in the death of our late gracious and never to be forgotten Sovereign, George the Fourth.

Deep indeed must be your Majesty's grief for that sad event, but we fondly trust your Majesty's grief will be alleviated by the consideration that he died possessed of the warmest and most devoted attachment of his subjects, and that he has bequeathed to them peace and prosperity, which it was the unremitting endeavour of his glorious reign to preserve.

We are truly thankful that Providence has assigned to his Throne a Successor so eminently calculated; as is your Majesty, to secure and maintain the glory of your dominions, and the happiness of your subjects.

We humbly beg to congratulate your Majesty on your accession to the Throne of your illustrious Ancestors, and our fervent prayer is, that your Majesty may be long preserved to reign over a free and a loyal and happy people.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burghesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough and Parish of Totnes, humbly beg leave to approach your Majesty, with feelings of the deepest and most sincere sorrow, on the death of our late revered and beloved King, under whose most auspicious Sovereignty the world has beheld the very rare combination of a complete success of our arms in various parts of the globe, and the arts of peace, under His Majesty's fostering patronage, attaining a degree of excellence heretofore unexampled in this country.

Permit us, Sire, at the same time to offer to your Majesty our most sincere and heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of this mighty Empire, and our devoted and affectionate attachment to your Royal Person. To assure your Majesty that, as ardent supporters of that practical and rational liberty, which our unrivalled Constitution is so admirably calculated to secure, we hail with peculiar satisfaction the accession to the Throne of these Realms of another Member of that illustrious Family, which our wise Ancestors called on to protect it, and who we humbly and earnestly pray, may continue to reign over us to the latest posterity.

Whilst we deplore the loss which the Inhabitants of this Island, in common with all your Majesty's other subjects, have sustained, we humbly beg leave to offer our most cordial congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne; and at the same time most respectfully to assure your Majesty of our unalterable fidelity and attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Sire,

WE, your Majesty's faithful subjects, the Freeholders, Heritors, Commissioners of Supply, and Justices of the Peace of Inverness-shire, in a General Meeting assembled, approach your Majesty with the mingled tribute of our condolence and our congratulation.

While we contemplate with unfeigned satisfaction your Majesty's accession to the British Throne, we cannot fail to revert, with deep emotion, to that solemn dispensation by which it has pleased God to deprive this Country of a revered Sovereign, and your Majesty of a beloved and affectionate Brother.

Round the grave of our departed Monarch we presume, Sire, to mingle our sorrows with your own; and thus, by the indulgence of the best sympathies of our common nature, we consecrate at once our veneration for him who is taken from us, our allegiance to his Royal Successor, and our attachment to the illustrious House of Brunswick.

We acknowledge with gratitude the consolation which we derive from the reflection, that the sceptre is transmitted into the hands of your Majesty, of a Prince whose very name awakes recollections of national freedom and renown, whose life has been devoted to the cause of his country in that department of public service which may be peculiarly termed national, and who is destined, as we humbly trust, to promote, in an eminent degree, the glory and felicity of the British Empire.

Rejoicing in this great event, we cannot deny to our feelings a still further gratification, and, with our exultation on your Majesty's succession, we venture to unite our congratulations also, on the elevation, at the same time, of a Princess whose virtues have already won the affections of your Majesty's subjects. In the person of our Queen, Sire, this nation hails an additional pledge of the prosperity of your Majesty's reign.

We offer our ardent prayers that your Majesty, and your Royal Consort, may be long preserved, to form the delight and admiration of a free, a happy, and a loyal people.

WE, the Provost, Magistrates, and Common Council of the Burgh of Campbell-Town, humbly beg leave to assure your Majesty that we fully participate in the severe affliction which your Majesty is suffering, on account of the death of our late lamented King, of blessed and glorious memory; and that we shall ever remember with affectionate gratitude how the glory of the country in war, and the blessings of concord and peace, have been maintained under His late Majesty's reign.

We also offer your Majesty our humble and heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne, and the assurance of our loyal devotion to your Majesty's sacred Person and Family; and we pray that your Majesty may be long continued, under Divine Providence, to promote the happiness and prosperity of the country, and to reign in the hearts of a loyal and faithful people.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of the Royal Burgh of Kirkcudbright, in Common Council assembled, beg to approach the Throne, to tender to your Majesty the assurances of our loyalty and of our attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family.

Sincerely do we condole with your Majesty on the loss which your Majesty, in common with the Nation, has sustained, by the death of your beloved and affectionate Brother, our late revered Monarch; and while be bow with humble resignation to the will of the Almighty, we rejoice in his goodness, that, in the person of your Majesty, he has granted us a Prince of the same illustrious Family to rule over us, a Prince endowed with the most magnanimous sentiments, whether we view him as a gallant sailor, in maintaining and defending his country's honour and glory, or as a most royal and faithful subject of his King, or as a gracious Sovereign, declaring that he will avail himself of the experience acquired by witnessing the conduct of his late revered Father, and of his beloved Brother, to maintain the laws, to protect the rights and liberties of the people, and, as far as possible, to promote their welfare and happiness.

That your Majesty, and your august Consort, may live long in all happiness and comfort; that your reign may be prosperous, peaceful, and glorious; that your family may, to the latest ages, constitutionally sway the Sceptre of these Realms; that British subjects in every quarter of the world may be distinguished not more for the civil and religious privileges they enjoy, than for loyalty and attachment to their Sovereign, is the fervent wish of,

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Incorporation of Traffickers, or Merchant Company of Leith.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects, the Incorporation of Traffickers, or Merchant Company of Leith, humbly desire to lay at the foot of the Throne the expression of our sincere condolence on the demise of our late most gracious King, your Majesty's Royal Brother.

We, in common with all his subjects, will ever remember with feelings at once of gratitude and pride, that our late revered Sovereign, both as Regent of the kingdom, and as King, maintained in circumstances of unexampled difficulty and danger the high character of this country for prowess in deeds of arms, and finally secured to his people the blessings of a long, honourable, and continued peace.

We beg to offer our cordial congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these Realms; and to express our confidence, that your power will ever be exercised for the advancement of the best interests of your subjects.

We humbly offer to your Majesty, and to your Royal Consort, Queen Adelaide, the assurance of our affectionate and cordial attachment; and we earnestly pray, that your Majesty, and your Royal Consort, may, under the blessing of God, long reign in peace and happiness in the hearts of a free, a loyal, and a prosperous people.

WE, the Magistrates and Town Council of Stonehaven, the head Burgh of the County of Kincardine, beg leave, in due humility, to approach your Majesty with an expression of heartfelt sorrow, on the occasion of the demise of your Majesty's Brother, our late beloved Sovereign, of blessed memory.

We mourn the death of an illustrious Monarch who graced the diadem, and increased the glory of these kingdoms.

But we have the consolation that his Sceptre has passed into the hands of a Prince, whose eminent qualities afford a sure presage that his reign will augment the happiness, confirm the attachment, and excite the gratitude of his people.

We offer your Majesty our most humble congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne. We crave permission to tender the assurance of our loyalty and veneration; and we earnestly pray that your Majesty's reign, so full of promise, may long conduce to the felicity of your Majesty, and the prosperity of the nation.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful, dutiful, and loyal subjects, the Magistrates, Council, and principal Inhabitants of the Burgh of Barony of Peterhead, beg permission most humbly to approach the Throne, and to express our sincere and affectionate condolence on the great affliction with which it has pleased the Almighty to visit your Majesty, and the British Empire, by the death of our late most gracious, beloved, and deeply lamented Sovereign, King George the Fourth, your Royal Brother. We mourn, with heartfelt sorrow, for a Sovereign whose reign was not less glorious in war than benignant in peace, and under whom we have enjoyed all the blessings of liberty, peace, and plenty.

But, while we thus lament the death of our late gracious and beloved Sovereign, we beg leave, with all humility, to offer to your Majesty our most sincere and hearty congratulations on your Majesty's auspicious accession to the Imperial Crown of the United Kingdom, and to assure your Majesty of our firm attachment, loyalty, and fidelity, towards your Royal Person and Government, which we will ever maintain, assured, as we firmly are, that your Majesty will be, as your Royal Progenitors ever have been, the guardian of the laws and liberties of the country, and the protector of your loyal subjects and their interests.

That the Supreme Disposer of all events may, of his goodness, grant to your Majesty health, happiness, and a long and prosperous reign; that he may direct your counsellors, crown with success the measures of your Government, protect you from every arm which may be raised against you, and that the Sceptre of these Realms may never depart from your most illustrious House, is the fervent prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful, dutiful, loyal, and devoted subjects, the Magistrates, Council, and principal Inhabitants of the Burgh of Barony of Peterhead.

Signed, and the Seal of the said Burgh hereto affixed, at Peterhead, the 20th day of July, in the year 1830.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects the Incorporation of Walkers of the City of Edinburgh, beg leave humbly to approach the Throne with our congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Crown of this great Empire.

We deeply lament the death, and beg to be permitted to sympathise with your Majesty's feelings on the loss of our late most gracious Sovereign George the Fourth, your Majesty's illustrious Brother—a Prince whose government and reign will form a bright page in the history of his country, and whose active benevolence and kindness of domestic character established his Throne in the hearts of his people.

It is with the greatest pleasure we take this opportunity of expressing to your Majesty our devoted attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government; and we have observed, with the highest satisfaction, your Majesty expressing your desire and resolution to regulate your administration by following in the footsteps of your late revered Father, and lamented Brother, and which affords to us the best grounded assurance of the continuance of those invaluable blessings which we have enjoyed during the reigns of these illustrious Princes.

It is our earnest prayer that you may long continue to wield the sceptre of the United Kingdom with these dispositions, which equally tend to the security of the Crown, the preservation of the Constitution, and the freedom and prosperity of the people.

Signed by our Deacon, in our name, by our appointment, and in our presence, and the Seal of the Incorporation appended hereto, at Edinburgh, the 8th day of July 1830 years.

Wm. Steven, Deacon.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Royal Burgh of Banff.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Royal Burgh of Banff, in Council assembled, beg leave humbly to approach your Throne, to offer our sincere tribute of sympathy and condolence with your Majesty in the great bereavement which it has pleased the Almighty to inflict, by the death of your illustrious Brother, our late most gracious Sovereign, George the fourth.

That he has left to his wide dominions the heavenly blessing of peace, must be as consolatory to your Majesty as it is gratifying to your subjects, and will enable your Majesty to subdue the poignancy of your grief.

While we mourn the loss of a Monarch so revered and beloved, we cannot, however, forget, that it has pleased Heaven to give him a Successor conspicuous for every quality that adorns a diadem; and we cannot but express our thanks that Providence has so ordered events as to secure to your Majesty, on your accession to the Crown, the sincere and heartfelt prayers of all your subjects for the welfare and happiness of your Majesty and your Royal House.

We beg humbly to lay our congratulations on your Majesty's happy accession to the Throne of these Realms at your Majesty's feet; and that your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free, happy, and contented people, shall ever be our prayer.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, and the Seal of the Burgh hereto appended, at Banff, this 15th day of July 1830 years,
Geo. G. Robinson, Provost; Geo. R. Forbes, Town Clerk.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Magistrates and Council of the united Towns Corporate of Port Glasgow and Newark.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Magistrates and Council of the united Towns Corporate of Port Glasgow and Newark, with feelings of heartfelt sorrow, humbly beg leave to approach your Majesty with our sincere condolence on the lamented event which has removed from us our late most gracious and beloved Sovereign King George the fourth.

In the midst of our affliction we derive the highest consolation in being enabled to congratulate ourselves and this great Nation on the accession of your Majesty to the Throne of your illustrious Ancestors.

We humbly beg leave to offer to your Majesty these our most sincere congratulations on that accession, and to pray that Almighty God may be pleased to preserve your Majesty the full blessing of health, and long spare your Majesty to reign over free, happy, and loyal subjects.

Signed in name, and by appointment of the Magistrates and Council, in Council assembled, within the Council Chambers of Port Glasgow, by me, the Chief Magistrate, the Common Seal of the said towns being also hereunto appended, this 20th day of July, in the year 1830,

David Gilkison.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Incorporation of Goldsmiths of the City of Edinburgh, beg leave to convey to your Majesty our humble expressions of condolence on the death of our lamented Sovereign, under whose prosperous Government, after a protracted and victorious war, the blessings of peace were happily restored to the country, and legislative measures of a just and enlightened policy enacted, which, we trust, will promote the welfare and the union of all classes of the empire.

We congratulate your Majesty on your accession to the British Throne, and, relying on your Majesty's regard for the civil and religious rights and liberties of the people, we sincerely hope that, under Divine Providence, your Majesty may long reign over these realms.

We would humbly congratulate your Majesty's Royal Consort on the exalted rank to which she has been raised, and express our earnest wishes that Her Majesty's life may be spared for many years.

Signed and sealed in the name, and by desire of the Incorporation of Goldsmiths, of the City of Edinburgh, the 16th day of July 1830.

William Marshall, Deacon.

To His Most Gracious Majesty WILLIAM the FOURTH, KING of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, &c.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Huddersfield, beg leave to approach the Throne with feelings of the sincerest condolence on the late melancholy bereavement which it has pleased Providence to inflict upon the Nation, by the death of our late beloved Sovereign, and to avow our deep sense of the many blessings which we have enjoyed under his paternal sway.

We feel our regret enhanced by the recollection of the amiable and excellent qualities which adorned our lamented Monarch, and which had established his Throne in the hearts of his people.

We cannot forget that it was to his wise and vigorous policy, at a period of unexampled difficulty and danger, when every Throne in Europe was shaken, that this country was indebted, under Providence, for that splendid series of victorious achievements which not only secured our own independence, but established on a lasting basis the rights and liberties of Europe.

But while we tender our willing homage to that unshaken energy, which presided over our country in the day of her greatest triumphs, we feel still greater delight in paying the tribute of our admiration to that pacific policy which has since been pursued, and which has gained for us the friendship and confidence of Foreign Powers, and preserved to us for so long a period the blessings of peace.

Nor can we withhold the expression of our gratitude for those benevolent efforts so conspicuous in the reign of our departed Sovereign, to foster merit, to encourage the arts, to extend the commerce, and to advance the general welfare of our country. And while we offer our sincere condolence on the loss which your Majesty and the Empire at large have sustained, by the death of your lamented Brother, we beg to present our most cordial congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of your Ancestors. We ardently pray that it may please Him, by whom Kings do reign, to shower down upon your Majesty, and your Royal Consort, the choicest of his blessings, that your Majesties may long live to enjoy the mild glories of a peaceful reign, the enjoyment of domestic happiness, and, that brightest jewel in the diadem of a British Monarch, the warm attachment of a free and united people.

Deeply sensible of the many difficulties which await your Majesty in the execution of the awful trust confided to your care, we implore the Divine blessing, which can alone sustain your Majesty in the government of this great empire, and crown with success your efforts for the spiritual and temporal welfare of the realm; that, under your Majesty's auspices, the dawn of a brighter day may beam upon the prospects of the nation, and effectually dissipate that oppressive gloom which has so long obscured the great interests of the country; that a rigid economy may pervade every department of State; that, fostered by the patronage of your Majesty, and our most gracious Queen, our domestic manufacturers may again flourish; and that prosperity, happiness, and concord, may be diffused among all classes and conditions of your Majesty's loyal and faithful subjects.

Signed on behalf of the meeting,
Jno. Sutcliffe, Chairman.

Unto His Most Excellent Majesty WILLIAM the FOURTH, by the grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, KING, Defender of the Faith, &c.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects, the Magistrates and Council of the Royal Burgh of Dunbar, in Common Council assembled, humbly request permission to express our sincere and heartfelt condolence on the much lamented demise of our late most gracious and much loved King, your Majesty's Brother, of blessed and glorious memory.

We must ever remember with feelings of the deepest gratitude, that our late revered Sovereign maintained the high character of this country in war, and in circumstances of great difficulty, and at last secured to his people the blessings of a long, honourable, and lasting peace.

Yet, while we deplore the loss of so beloved a Monarch, we have at the same time the consoling reflection, that the Crown of the British Empire is again placed on the head of a distinguished Member of the illustrious House of Brunswick, under whose benign sway this country has long flourished. Permit us, therefore, to offer our heartfelt congratulations, and respectfully and dutifully to approach your Majesty with assurances of our fidelity and affection, and praying that your Majesty's reign, and that of your august Consort, Her Majesty the Queen, may be long, happy, and prosperous.

To His Gracious Majesty the KING.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Magistrates and Treasurer of the ancient Burgh and Regality of Canongate, and Monastery of the Holy Cross, near Edinburgh.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Magistrates and Treasurer of the ancient Burgh and Regality of Canongate, and Monastery of the Holy Cross, near Edinburgh, beg leave humbly to approach the Throne, and to congratulate your Majesty on your Majesty's accession to the Crown of this great Empire, and to assure your Majesty of our firm and inviolable attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

We deeply lament the death of our late most gracious Sovereign, whose virtues endear his memory as the father of his people; but though we deeply lament the loss of a Monarch thus entitled to our veneration and affectionate remembrance, our grief is not unattended with alleviations.

Your Majesty ascends the Throne no stranger to your people; sprung from the same illustrious House, and trained in the same generous sentiments, your loyal subjects have the best assurance that your Majesty will walk in the steps of the late illustrious Monarch, earning, like him, by every public and private virtue, the reverence and love of an affectionate and loyal people.

Under the mild and paternal administration of your Majesty, may the arts of peace long flourish in our country; may a just reverence for religion and the laws ever dignify your Majesty's Government; and perpetuate the loyal attachment of your people.

Sealed with the Seal of the Burgh, and subscribed by us, within the Court House of Canongate, this 20th day of July 1830.

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Borough of Devizes in the County of Wilts.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor and Burgesses of the Borough of Devizes, in Common Council assembled, humbly beg to approach your Majesty to express our sincere condolence on the loss which your Majesty and the Nation at large have sustained, by the death of your illustrious and Royal Brother, our late most gracious and revered Monarch, King George the Fourth.

But while we thus sympathize with your Majesty on this dispensation of Divine Providence, which has deprived us of a Sovereign under whose reign this nation has enjoyed so many and inestimable advantages and blessings, we at the same time beseech your Majesty to accept our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these Realms, and the assurance of our firm attachment to your Royal Person and Government.

That your Majesty and your Royal Consort, our illustrious Queen Adelaide, may long live to enjoy the exalted station to which it has pleased the Almighty to call you, and to ensure the welfare and happiness of your people, by maintaining the established religion and laws of the kingdom, and by protecting the rights and liberties of all classes of your subjects, is our earnest and fervent prayer.

Given under our Common Seal, in the Council Chamber of the said Borough, the 28th day of July, in the first year of your Majesty's reign.

Henry Butcher, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Ministers and Elders of the General

Synod of Ulster, beg leave to approach the Throne, and offer to your Majesty the tribute of our sincere condolence.

Whilst here assembled to deliberate on the concerns of that portion of the Church of Christ committed to our charge, we heard the afflictive intelligence of the death of our late lamented and beloved Sovereign, under whose auspices, as Regent and as King, Divine Providence was pleased to deliver the nations of Europe from the horrors of a desolating war, and to bless these countries with the enjoyment of uninterrupted peace.

We now beg leave to congratulate your Majesty on your accession to the Throne of your illustrious Ancestors, and we humbly pray that God, by whom Kings reign and Princes decree justice, may be pleased to endow your Majesty with grace, and bless you with a long and prosperous reign; that He may "counsel your Counsellors and teach your Senators wisdom,"—that peace may dwell in our land, and pure and undefiled religion be extended among a united, loyal, and happy people.

We beg leave to assure your Majesty that we shall continue earnestly to inculcate on our people a firm attachment to the Constitution, a willing obedience to the Laws, and an affectionate attachment to your Majesty's Person.

Signed, in our name and by our order, in Omagh, this 3d day of July 1830.

Robert Winning, Moderator.

THE following is Her Majesty's most gracious Answer to the Address of the Religious Society of Friends, presented to Her Majesty by a Deputation on Wednesday, July 28:

"I feel grateful to you for this dutiful and loyal Address, and for the assurance of your interest in my happiness and welfare.

"It will ever be my anxious wish to encourage the exertions made in the cause of benevolence, religion, and morality, which are the most certain means of obtaining the Divine protection for our country."

St. James's Palace, August 3, 1830.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to Earl Howe, Lord Chamberlain to Her Majesty, was by him presented to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Mayor and Burgesses of the Borough of Devizes, beg to approach your Majesty with the expressions of our hearty congratulations on the accession of your Majesty's Royal Consort, our present most gracious King, to the Throne of his Ancestors.

We desire to assure your Majesty of our entire Thomas Bilcliffe Fyler, Esq.

Edward Ellice, Esq.

Whitehall, July 28, 1830.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Francis Hammond, of Chepstow, in the county of Monmouth, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

IN obedience to an order of the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen, dated the 27th day of July 1830, made in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-second year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, ch. 209, intituled "An Act for building a new prison in the city of London, for removing thereto prisoners confined under civil process in the Gaol of Newgate, &c.;" and of a certain other Act of Parliament, made and passed in the said fifty-second year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, ch. 183, intituled "An Act for increasing the fund for watching, lighting, cleansing, watering, and repairing Blackfriars-bridge;" I do hereby give notice, that between the hours of ten in the forenoon and two in the afternoon, on the 27th day of January next ensuing, at my Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, in Guildhall, London, the principal sums of money, together with all interest due on the said 27th day of January next ensuing, upon the under-mentioned bonds, being part of the sum of £95,000, raised by the authority of the aforesaid Act of the fifty-second of George the Third, ch. 209, under the common seal of this city, and made payable to Richard Clark, Esq. his executors, administrators, or assigns (by indorsement), will then be paid off, at my said Office at Guildhall, to the several and respective person or persons respectively entitled to receive the same; and that from thenceforth the interest on the said bonds will cease and determine. And, in further obedience to the said order, I do hereby give notice, that if the said several persons respectively entitled to the said bonds, or any of them, shall be minded to be paid the said several principal sums, with such interest as may become due in respect thereof, at any time previous to the said 27th day of January, and will severally declare such their intention, in writing under their hands, and deliver such declaration at my said Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon, ten days previously to the day on which they, or any of them, shall elect to receive the same (the usual holidays of the said Office excepted); I will, on the day expressed in such declaration, at my said Office, pay to the several persons the principal sums respectively due to them in discharge of the said bonds, together with all interest as shall on the day specified in such declaration for the payment thereof have become due thereon; and which interest or annuity will, upon the said day expressed in such declaration for payment, cease and determine, viz.

One hundred and sixty-nine bonds, of one hundred pounds each, numbered 543 to 711, both inclusive.

Richard Clark, Chamberlain.
