(An alphabetical and numbered List of the Addresses presented to His Majesty, is printed at the end of the Addresses.)

St. James's-Palace, August 4, 1830.

THIS day the following Addresses were presented to His Majesty on the Throne, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, which His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

No. 1.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble, dutiful, and loyal Address of the President, Vice-Patrons, Vice-Presidents, and Members of the Bath and West of England Society for the encouragement of Agriculture, Arts, Manufactures and Commerce.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majesty's most humble, dutiful, and loyal subjects, the President, Vice-Patrons, Vice-Presidents, and Members of the Bath and West of England Society, beg leave to approach your Royal Person, to mingle our sorrows with those of your Majesty on the loss which these kingdoms have sustained, by the death of your illustrious Brother, our late excellent Monarch, in whom the great and amiable qualities were most happily blended, and the glories of whose reign will be conspicuous among the splendid ornaments of history.

More especially does it become us, the Members of this ancient Society, to bewail the loss of a Sovereign
