St. James's-Palace, August 4, 1830.

HIS day the following Addresses were presented to His Majesty at the Levce, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, which His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

No. 1.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Dean of the Collegiate Church of Saint Peter, Westminster, together with the Lord High Steward, Deputy High Steward, High Bailiff, Deputy High Bailiff, Chief Burgesses, Burgesses, High Constable, and Burgesses' Assistants of your ancient City of Westminster, and Liberty of the same, most humbly approach your Royal presence with all the feelings which the most ardent affection and loyalty can inspire to condole with your Majesty on the loss which your Majesty and the Nation have sustained, by the death of your illustrious Brother, our late Sovereign, whose wise, just, and fostering rule has constituted the glory and happiness of his people; we can only hope for the alleviation of this severe loss through the prospect of happiness which awaits us under your Majesty's reign.

Impressed, as we are, with a due sense of the national blessings which our forefathers and we have enjoyed under the government of your Royal House, we anxiously hope to transmit them, unimpaired, to our posterity, as the best security to their principles, their virtue, and their happiness; and we cordially unite in the firm determination of supporting, to the utmost of our power, the established laws of the Realm, in Church and State.

We pray that your Majesty, and your amiable Consort, our gracious Queen, may live many years in health and happiness, and that your Majesty may enjoy a long and prosperous reign, ruling in the hearts of a loyal and affectionate people.

Given under our Common Scal, the 19th day of July 1830.
