

No. 2.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Bath, beg to express our heartfelt condolence on the loss which your Majesty, the Royal Family, and the United Kingdom, have sustained, by the death of your Majesty's illustrious Brother, our late revered Monarch.

We recall to our minds with gratitude the magnanimous and decisive perseverance with which a protracted war was prosecuted during His late Majesty's auspicious Regency, and the honourable and glorious peace by which it was terminated under his late Majesty's well directed sway.

From your Majesty's well known attachment to the principles of our constitution; and from the active co-operation personally displayed by your Majesty in that service, by the splendid achievements of which the honour, security, and welfare of this nation have been so firmly upheld, we look forward to a continuance of your Majesty's protecting care, and, with confidence, present our most sincere congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of your Ancestors.

We further presume to offer our fervent prayers, that your Majesty, and your august Consort, our most gracious Queen, may long live in the uninterrupted enjoyment of health, and continue a bright example of connubial and domestic happiness; thus promoting, throughout every part of your Majesty's dominions, that sacred regard for virtue and religion so indispensably necessary to the comfort and welfare of all ranks of your Majesty's subjects.

Given under our Common Seal, this 23d day of July, in the first year of your Majesty's reign.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects the Visitor, Governors, and Council of King's College, London, humbly request permission to approach your Majesty with the expression of our unfeigned gratitude for the condescending kindness which your Majesty has evinced, in graciously consenting to become the Patron of that Institution.

We humbly beg leave to assure your Majesty, that the Conductors of King's College, London, will ever consider it their duty to impress upon the minds of those whose education may be entrusted to their care, the principles of loyalty to their Sovereign, of obedience to the laws, and of attachment to the Established Church.

No. 5.

Sire,

CEST avec un vif sentiment de joie, et non sans un mélange de tristesse, que nous osons, au nom des Suisses, dont nous sommes les organes, nous approcher, dans cette circonstance, de votre Majesté: la haute protection, et l'hospitalité, que de tout tems, nous avons éprouvée, dans ces Royaumes, nous ont identifiés, avec leur heureux habitans et nous font participer à leur bonheur comme à leur malheur.

Sire, autant nous avons été affligés du coup, qui a frappé l'auguste Monarque, qui pendant une suite d'années, a régné glorieusement sur ses Royaumes; autant nous sommes réjouis de trouver, sur le trône, un autre Monarque non moins digne de le remplir. Oui, Sire, en voyant votre règne commencer sous d'aussi heureux auspices, tous les cœurs sont ouverts à la joie et à l'espérance; de toutes parts s'élèvent au Ciel, des cris d'allégresse, des vœux et des prières: Veuille l'Être Suprême exaucer celles, que de concert, avec les habitans de ces Royaumes, nous lui adressons pour qu'il daigne, Sire, répandre, sur votre personne sacrée, sur la Reine votre auguste Epouse, sur votre illustre Famille, sur vos peuples, sur vos entreprises, ses plus précieuses bénédictions; les Suisses non moins fiers de la patrie, qu'ils ont adoptée, que de celle, qui les a vus naître, chercheront dans toutes les occasions, à se montrer dignes du nom, qu'ils portent, et à faire connaître, par leur patriotisme, et leur loyauté, les sentimens qui les animent.
