(An alphabetical and numbered List of the Addresses presented to His Majesty, is printed at the end of the Addresses.)

Whitehall, August 13, 1830.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir Robert Peel, Bart. one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

No. 1.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty WILLIAM the FOURTH.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, Justices of the Peace for the City and Liberty of Westminster, in General Quarter Session assembled, humbly beg leave to offer our sincere condolence on the loss which the Nation, in common with your Majesty, has sustained by the demise of our late revered Sovereign.

At the same time, we beg leave to express our warmest congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of your illustrious Ancestors, with the firm assurance of our fidelity and attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and our most earnest wishes that your Majesty may long reign over a free and loyal people, in happy union with your illustrious and virtuous Consort, our gracious Queen Adelaide.

Francis Const, Chairman.

No. 2.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects,

Justices of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, in General Quarter Sessions assembled, humbly beg leave to offer our sincere condolence for the loss which your Majesty and the United Kingdom have sustained by the demise of our late beloved Sovereign.

At the same time we entreat permission to express our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of your illustrious Ancestors, with the firm assurance of our fidelity and attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government, and our sincerest wishes that your Majesty, and our most gracious Queen, may be long preserved to reign over a free and happy people.

We humbly presume further to add, that, as Magistrates, it shall be our earnest endeavour, by a faithful administration of that portion of the laws with which we are intrusted, to impress on the minds of your Majesty's subjects the true principles of loyalty and allegiance, with a due reverence for the inestimable blessings we enjoy under our glorious Constitution.

Francis Const, Chairman.

Sessions-House, Clerkenwell, 21st July 1830.

No. 3.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The loyal Address of the Presbytery of Edinburgh.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and dutiful subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Edinburgh, beg leave to approach your Majesty, for the purpose of expressing our mingled sentiments of condolence and congratulation, on the death of our late beloved King, and your Majesty's auspicious accession to the Throne of the United Kingdom.

Our late Sovereign was eminently endeared to us, both by his princely virtues, and by the national ad-
