

rected to be lodged for such purpose, at the Office of such Clerk of the Peace or other person; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be there provided according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 77, or the Act, 5 Geo. 4, c. 61, sec. 11, as the case may be.

Insolvent Debtor.—Dividend.

WHEREAS the Assignees of the estate and effects of William John Robson, formerly of No. 48, Chiswell-Street, Finsbury-Square, afterwards of No. 177, Church-Street, Shore-ditch, both in Middlesex, and late of No. 48, Chiswell-Street aforesaid, formerly Shopman to a Grocer, and lately Grocer and Tea-Dealer, an Insolvent Debtor, lately a prisoner in the King's-Bench Prison, have caused their account of the said estate and effects, duly sworn to, to be filed in the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors; the Creditors of the said Insolvent are requested to meet the Assignees at the Office of Mr. M'Duff, No. 37, Castle-Street, Holborn, London, on the 1st day of October next, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon precisely, when and where the Assignees will declare the amount of the balance in their hands, and proceed to make a dividend with the same amongst the Creditors whose debts are admitted in the schedule sworn to by the Insolvent, in proportion to the amount thereof, subject to such correction of the rights to receive dividends as may be made according to the statute.—If any person has a demand which is stated in the schedule, but is disputed therein, either in whole or in part; or if the said Insolvent, the said Assignees, or any Creditor, object to any debt mentioned therein, such claims and objections must be brought forward at the said meeting, in order that proceedings may be had for the examination and decision of the same according to the statute.

Insolvent Debtor.—Dividend.

WHEREAS the surviving Assignee of the estate and effects of Philip Smith, late Paymaster of His Majesty's 25th Regiment of Foot, formerly of Weedon, near Daventry, Northamptonshire, afterwards of Hilsea, near Portsmouth, Hampshire, an Insolvent Debtor, lately a prisoner in the King's-Bench Prison, and who was discharged on or about the 13th of October 1819, hath caused an account of the said estate and effects, duly sworn to, to be filed in the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors; the Creditors of the said Insolvent are requested to meet the said Assignee at the Wheat Sheaf Inn, in Daventry, in the said County of Northampton, on Tuesday the 28th day of September next, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon precisely, when and where the Assignee will declare the amount of the balance in his hands, and proceed to make a dividend with the same amongst the Creditors whose debts are admitted in the schedule sworn to by the Insolvent, in proportion to the amount thereof, subject to such correction of the rights to receive dividends as may be made according to the statute.—If any person has a demand which is stated in the schedule, but is disputed therein, either in whole or in part; or if the said Insolvent, the said Assignee, or any Creditor, objects to any debt mentioned therein, such claims and objections must be brought forward at the said meeting, in order that proceedings may be had for the examination and decision of the same according to the statute.

WHEREAS the Assignee of the estate and effects of William Gale, late of No. 88, Broad-Street, Ratchiffe-Cross, in the County of Middlesex, Baker, an Insolvent Debtor, lately a prisoner in Whitecross-Street Prison, in the City of London, has caused his account of the said estate and effects, duly sworn to, to be filed in the Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors; the Creditors of the said Insolvent are requested to meet the Assignee at Jack's Coffee-House, Corn-Exchange, Mark-Lane, in the said City of London, on Wednesday the 29th day of September next, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon precisely, when and where the Assignee will declare the amount of the balance in his hands, and proceed to make a Dividend with the same amongst the Creditors whose debts are admitted in the schedule sworn to by the Insolvent, in proportion to the amount thereof, subject to such correction of the rights to receive dividends as may be made according to the statute.—If any person has a demand which is stated in the schedule, but is disputed therein, either in whole or in part; or if the said Insolvent, the said Assignee, or any Creditor, objects to any debt mentioned therein, such claims and objections must be brought forward at the said meeting, in order that proceedings may be had for the examination and decision of the same according to the Statute.

John Hopkinson's Insolvency.

THE Creditors of John Hopkinson, of Littletown, in the County of York, Stone-Mason, an Insolvent Debtor, lately discharged from the Castle of York, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Insolvent, at the House of Mr. David Smith, the Stag Inn, in Littletown, on Friday the 3d day of September next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, for directing and authorising the said Assignees to make sale and disposal of the said Insolvent's real estate, either by public auction or private contract, as may be determined upon by the said Creditors; and likewise to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or suit at law or in equity, for the recovery of, or in any wise regarding, any part of the estate and effects of the said Insolvent; and to the said Assignees compounding with any debtors or accountants to the said Insolvent, where the same shall appear necessary or reasonable, and taking any such reasonable part of any such debts as can, upon such composition, be obtained in full discharge of such debts and accounts; and to the submitting to arbitration any difference or dispute between such Assignees or any person or persons, for or on account of, or by reason of, any matter, cause, or thing relating to the estate and effects of the said Insolvent; and on other special affairs.
