TUESDAY, AUGUST 17, 1830.

(An alphabetical and numbered List of the Addresses presented to His Majesty, is printed at the end of the Addresses.)

Windsor Castle, August 9, 1830.

THIS day the Mayor and a Deputation of the Corporation of the Borough of New Windsor waited upon His Majesty to present to His Majesty the following Address, which His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously :

No. 1.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of New Windsor, in the County of Berks.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and affectionate subjects and servants, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the ancient and loyal Borough of New Windsor, most humbly presume to approach your Majesty, with our cordial and respectful congratulations on your Majesty's arrival within the walls of your Royal Palace of Windsor, the favoured abode of a long race of Kings ; and to renew to your Majesty the strongest assurances of our devoted and unalterable attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

Entertaining a lively sense of the condescension with which your Majesty was pleased, on a former occasion, to honour us, by permitting your name to be enrolled amongst our Burgesses as High Steward of this Borough ; and deeply interested, from every motive of gratitude, as well as duty, in any circumstance which can afford satisfaction to your Royal mind, we regard, with more than ordinary delight, the happy auspices under which your Majesty has commenced your residence at this superb seat of your Ancestors, recently embellished under the tasteful direction of that venerated Monarch, whose loss (in common with your Majesty) we so deeply deplore, and become the appropriate emblem of the British Monarchy, alike in its fair proportions, its strength, its antiquity, and its grandeur.

Associated as is the "proud Keep of Windsor" with the recollection of the heroic deeds of many of our early Kings, and rendered the depository of the battle trophies, which inscribe the glorious names of Marlborough and of Wellington indelibly in the brightest pages of our history, and record the distinguished valour of British arms in modern times ; we cannot avoid felicitating your Majesty on your accession to the Crown of these Realms at a period when the spirit of peace and internal tranquillity hovers around the British Throne, and which, but for the recent convulsion in a neighbouring kingdom, had promised, for a lengthened period, to pervade the whole Continent of Europe.

We feel persuaded, Sire, that your Majesty, who has ever evinced a heart so peculiarly English, and has ever expressed an ardent attachment to the Laws and Constitution of the Country, which balance so admirably the prerogatives of the Crown with the rights and liberties of your people, will not fail to employ your leisure from the cares of Government in the fullest exercise of the many virtues and amiable qualities with which your Majesty is so eminently endowed ; in illustrating the advantages of domestic happiness ; in the patronage of the arts ; and in cultivating, by your condescending and endearing manners, that affectionate attachment of all classes of your subjects, which will add a lustre to the diadem adorning your Majesty's brow.

It is our fervent prayer, Sire, that your Majesty, and your illustrious Consort, may long live in the enjoyment of every blessing which a domestic life is capable of affording, shedding around you the influence of your bright example ; may your Majesty, the patron of honour, of virtue, and of religion, be long preserved to us to promote the best interests of this great empire in the full enjoyment of its present tranquillity; and may your Majesty's Throne be ever cemented by a King's best glory, the love and veneration of a people at once loyal, happy, and free.

Given at a Court of Common Council, held at the Guildhall in and for the said Borough, this 9th day of August, in the year of our Lord 1830, and in the first year of your Majesty's reign.

James Church, Mayor.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

"I thank you most sincerely for your cordial congratulations on my arrival within the walls of this ancient Castle.

"The assurances of your respect for the memory of my lamented Brother, of your loyalty and attachment to my Person and Government, and of your anxious wishes for my happiness, and that of the Queen, my beloved Consort, have given me the greatest satisfaction.

"I shall always feel the warmest interest in the prosperity of your ancient and loyal Borough."

Whitehall, August 17, 1830.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir Robert Peel, Bart. one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

No. 2.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the President, Vice-Presidents, Directors, and Governors of the Royal Humane Society, impressed with feelings of veneration and gratitude to your Royal Person, most dutifully presume to approach your Majesty with heartfelt condolence on the afflicting loss which your Majesty and the Nation have sustained, in the lamented death of your revered Predecessor, the munificent Patron of this Institution, and with our most sincere congratulation on the accession of your Majesty to the Throne of these Realms.

Recollecting with gratitude that your Majesty graciously condescended to become the Vice-Patron of the Society, and recalling also the lively interest which you have been pleased at all times to evince for its welfare, and your frequent and liberal contributions to its support, we are induced humbly to request that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to permit us to look up to you as the Patron of the Institution; and thereby continue to it that countenance and protection which it has enjoyed for upwards of half a century.

We are further encouraged to present this humble request by the consideration that, at every anniversary meeting of this Institution, the highest honorary distinctions in its power to bestow, have been conferred on officers of the navy, of which your Majesty has been so long the illustrious ornament, to commemorate and record the courage and humanity which they have displayed in all parts of the world in furtherance of the objects of this Society.

With sentiments of unalterable attachment and loyalty to your Majesty, and the illustrious House of Brunswick, we implore for your Majesty, from the Giver of all good, a long, a happy, and a prosperous reign.

In the name of the President, Vice-Presidents, Directors, and Governors of the Royal Humane Society, signed on behalf of the Society, Northumberland, President.

No. 3.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, Francis Lord Elcho, Right Worshipful Grand Master of the ancient Order of St. John's Masonry for Scotland, George William Fox Lord Kinnaird, Deputy Grand Master, John Viscount Glenorchy, Past Grand Master, Sir John Hay, of Hayston and Smithfield, Bart. Substitute Grand Master, Sir David Kinloch, of Gilmerton, Bart. and Archibald Butter, of Pitlochry, Esq. Senior and Junior Grand Wardens, Alexander Lawrie, Esq. Grand Secretary, James Bartram, Esq. Grand Clerk, with the other Constitution Members of the Grand Lodge of Scotland, in the name and on behalf of the Free Masons of Scotland of the ancient Order of St. John,—beg leave to approach your Majesty with the expression of our sincere condolence on the mournful breachment which your Majesty and the Empire have suffered, by the demise of our late revered Monarch George the Fourth,—the illustrious Patron of our ancient Order.

At the same time, however, we have peculiar satisfaction in offering our most hearty congratulations upon your Majesty's accession to the Throne of your Royal Ancestors,—having the fullest assurance that the sceptre of these realms has descended to a Prince who will wield it to his own honour for the glory and happiness of a loyal and a faithful people.

We humbly implore the Great Architect of the Universe to shower down upon your Majesty and your Royal Consort his divine blessings; and that your Majesties may have a long and prosperous reign is the affectionate and fraternal wish of the Free Masons of Scotland.

Signed in name of and by appointment of the Grand Lodge of Scotland, in Grand Lodge assembled, and the Seal of the Grand Lodge appended hereto, at Free Masons' Hall, in the City of Edinburgh, this 2d day of August, in the year of our Lord 1830, and of light 5830,

No. 4.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and affectionate subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of St. Andrews, eagerly embrace the opportunity of our first meeting, since the demise of our late most gracious and beloved Sovereign, to offer to your Majesty the tribute of our heartfelt condolence on this mournful event, and to convey to the Throne our cordial congratulations on your Majesty's auspicious accession to the Crown of your Royal Ancestors, together with the warmest expressions of our devoted and loyal attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person, and to your illustrious House.

We participate deeply in the universal sorrow excited by the death of a Monarch, who was eminently gifted with all those princely and splendid endowments which shed a bright lustre on the diadem, and those amiable and benignant dispositions which so justly endeared him to the hearts of his people. Called to administer the affairs of this great empire, on the part of his revered Father, at an awful and portentous period, when almost every Throne in Europe was shaken under its possessor, he displayed a wisdom, and firmness, and magnanimity, which, by the blessing of Heaven, enabled him to conduct the State in safety and triumph, through that tremendous storm which had desolated the fairest portions of the earth, to crush that gigantic power, before which the nations trembled, and to raise the British name to a height of glory unrivalled in the records of fame. With the liveliest emotions of gratitude we reflect on the manifold blessings which we enjoyed under his mild and beneficent sway, on his anxious and paternal concern to alleviate the burdens of his people, to encourage all the elegant and useful arts of life, to secure the stability and tranquillity of the whole empire, and to extend and perpetuate the blessings of that glorious peace, which, under Providence, he had achieved by the vigour of his counsels, and by the invincible prowess of his arms.

We desire to bow with reverential submission to the will of that God who has seen fit to deprive us of a Sovereign, the recollection of whose great and princely qualities can never be obliterated from our hearts; and our fervent prayer is, that, under this melancholy deprivation, your Majesty, your illustrious Consort, and all the Members of your Royal House, may be cheered by the consolations of Heaven, and sustained by the hope of being finally admitted into those blessed mansions, where no painful sympathies ever wound the affections, and where the anguish of separation is for ever unknown.

Deeply, however, as we are afflicted, on this mournful occasion, our sorrows are mitigated, and our hearts are cheered, by the consoling prospect opened up to us, in contemplating the virtues which adorn the character of your Majesty, and that of the amiable and illustrious Partner of your Throne, satisfied as we are, that the best interests of that country which you have zealously served from your earliest years, will ever be nearest to your heart. Convinced that you will follow the pattern exhibited before you by your lamented Brother and venerated Father, we cherish the hope that your reign will, like theirs, be a reign fraught with honour to yourself, with glory to the empire, and with happiness and prosperity to your people.

As members of that church which has so long experienced the paternal care and protection of the Princes of your august House, we humbly entreat that we may be permitted to convey to the foot of the Throne the assurance that we shall assiduously labour to discharge our sacred functions with fidelity and zeal; to inspire the people committed to our charge with the love of that righteousness which alone exalteth a nation, to inculcate upon them dutiful obedience to the laws of their country; to cherish in their minds loyal attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and veneration for that glorious and happy Constitution, which stands unrivalled in the history of nations.

May Almighty God, by whom Kings reign, pour down his choicest blessings upon your Majesty and your Royal Consort, the Queen; may the Crown long adorn your brow; may your Sceptre be a Sceptre of righteousness, the emblem of national prosperity and glory; may you enjoy to the latest hour of life the sweet satisfaction imparted by the unshaken attachment of a united and an affectionate people; and after a glorious and happy reign on earth, may you obtain an immortal and unfading Crown in Heaven; these are the united and fervent prayers of, may it please your Majesty, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of St. Andrews.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and by our appointment by,

William Nicolson, Moderator of the Presbytery of St. Andrews.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Dunfermline, this day regularly convened, deeply partaking of the national sorrow at the recent death of our late venerated Sovereign, your Majesty's august Brother, George the Fourth, deem it to be our duty respectfully to address your Majesty, and humbly to offer to your Majesty our most sincere and affectionate sympathy; and while we desire to bow with entire submission to the will of the Almighty Disposer of Events, we feel grateful to Heaven that the Sceptre of this United Kingdom has passed into the hand of your Majesty, whose benignant virtues are to us the guarantee that it will ever continue to be wielded by your Majesty for the maintenance of the rights and privileges of the people, as well as for the honour and the dignity of the Crown; and our fervent prayer to God is, that he may be graciously pleased to make the reign of your Majesty, and of your Majesty's Royal Consort, our beloved Queen Adelaide, long and prosperous.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Sovereign, Burgesses, and Inhabitants, of the Town and Neighbourhood of Belfast, humbly approach your Royal Person, to offer our most sim-ere condolence for the great loss your Majesty and the Nation have sustained by the demise of your Majesty's Royal Brother, our late illustrious and well beloved Sovereign, King George the Fourth, and to express how sincerely we participate, in common with all our fellow subjects, in the universal sorrow felt on this mournful and afflicting occasion.

While we offer this heartfelt tribute to the memory of a Sovereign, whom it has pleased the Almighty to remove from this transitory life, we pray your Majesty to accept our congratulations on your Majesty's happy accession to the Throne of these Realms, and the assurance of the most fervent attachment to your Majesty from your loyal subjects of this Town and Neighbourhood, and while we view with feelings of the deepest gratitude the sentiments expressed by your Majesty, in your Majesty's most gracious speech from the Throne, we pray your Majesty to accept our assurances, that we shall, as dutiful subjects, use our utmost endeavours to promote those measures which your Majesty has been pleased to recommend.

And we further beseech your Majesty to accept the purest tribute of respect and affection which we offer to your illustrious Consort, Queen Adelaide (a Princess whom we have long regarded with feelings of respect and admiration, and whom we were prepared to love in her present exalted station) for her virtues and those qualities which render her an ornament and example to her sex; and we humbly offer up our prayers, that it may please the Almighty Ruler of Princes to preserve your Majesty in health, long to reign over an enlightened and grateful people, in peace, prosperity, and happiness.

Signed on behalf and at the request of the meeting, Donegall, Chairman.

To His Most Gracious Majesty KING WILLIAM the FOURTH.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Citizens, of the City of Carlisle.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Citizens, of the City of Carlisle, beg leave most humbly and respectfully to present to your Majesty this sincere expression of our condolence, upon the solemn and melancholy event by which it has pleased the Almighty in his infinite wisdom to deprive your Majesty of a beloved Brother, and the Nation at large of an illustrious Sovereign, who had wielded the Sceptre of these Realms with unexampled glory and honour.

We cherish in grateful recollection, that throughout the reign of our departed Sovereign we have, through the favour of Providence, enjoyed the blessings of peace. And we hail your Majesty's accession to the Throne under circumstances so favourable to the prosperity of your Majesty's Government, and the comfort and happiness of your people.

Permit us, gracious Sovereign, to add our sincere congratulations upon your Majesty's accession to the Crown of this Kingdom, and to assure your Majesty of our devoted attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government. It is our earnest prayer that your Majesty, and your illustrious Consort, our gracious Queen, may long be preserved to your faithful subjects, and that the manifold blessings which this Nation has enjoyed under the Government of your Majesty's Predecessors of the House of Brunswick, may, through the blessing of God, be continued to the remotest generations.

Given under our Common Seal, the 28th day of July, in the year of our Lord 1830.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of Stony Stratford and its Vicinity.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE beg leave to approach your Majesty with an assurance of the gratitude we deeply feel towards the House of Brunswick, for the many blessings we have enjoyed under your Majesty's Royal Sire and illustrious Brother, both of immortal memory, and in the confident hope that Great Britain will continue to advance in prosperity and pre-eminence under your Majesty's gracious and paternal authority.

At the same time that we join with the Nation at large in condoling in the severe affliction under which your Majesty is suffering, from the loss of our late much-beloved and most beneficent Monarch, George the Fourth, we pray your Majesty to accept our most humble and heartfelt congratulations upon your Majesty's accession to the Throne of your Ancestors; and we further pray your Majesty to believe that there cannot be in the whole of your Majesty's Dominions, any body of men more loyal or more devoted to the welfare of your Majesty's sacred Person, or to that of your illustrious Consort, Adelaide, our amiable and beloved Queen, than are we, your Majesty's most devoted subjects, the Inhabitants of Stony Stratford and its Vicinity.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter, and Clergy, of the Cathedral Church of Wells, beg leave humbly to approach your Royal Person, with the expression of our sincere and heartfelt condolence on the decease of your Majesty's late Royal Brother, our beloved and honoured Monarch.

Devoid indeed of gratitude should we be, if we did not acknowledge the many and signal blessings poured down upon us throughout the whole of the prosperous and paternal reign of His late Majesty. Never should the situation in which this nation stood, at the time when George the Fourth assumed the reins of empire, be effaced from the memory of the people of this land. Then, with one exception alone, the whole of Europe was subject to the aggressions of the French Usurper. Even the British shores formed no boundary to his mad ambition. When, by the wise councils of the Monarch, and the valour of his troops, the plague, under Divine Providence, was stayed. The veteran army of France and the power of its Ruler were overthrown in the glorious field of Waterloo; and universal peace again blessed the inhabitants of the Globe.

Equally favoured and prosperous was the internal state of this kingdom, during the whole of the period, when our late Monarch was Regent, and King. No one instance of civil commotion or discord disturbed the peaceful tenor of his reign; the prerogatives of the Crown were never exercised, or attempted to be exercised, by George the Fourth, except for the happiness and prosperity of his people.

But, whilst we acknowledge the blessings thus abundantly bestowed during the late auspicious reign, we should be wanting to our own feelings, and the occasion; if we did not express our most sincere and loyal congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these Realms. We hail with pleasure and with hope the reign of another Descendant of the House of Brunswick — another Son of George the Third. Your Majesty's matured experience—your noble, your patriotic feelings, inspire us with the fullest confidence that the reign of the fourth William will not be undistinguished in the annals of our country. Your Majesty is well aware it is by righteousness alone that a nation is exalted—that it is to her character for religion and morals Great Britain stands mainly indebted, under Divine Providence, for the distinguished station which she holds among the nations of the earth.

The Church of England, therefore, whose interests are inseparably connected and interwoven with the best interests of the State, with confidence looks up to your Majesty for countenance and support.

And we humbly supplicate the Giver of all good, that the reign of your Majesty, and your illustrious Consort, may be prolonged in health and honour; and that you may find your own happiness in promoting the happiness of a loyal and a religious people.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Tewkesbury, in the County of Gloucester.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Tewkesbury, in the County of Gloucester, approach the Throne, and present to your Majesty our humble but heartfelt tribute of condolence, on the death of the late King, George the Fourth.

We humbly inform your Majesty that we have felt this loss as the loss of a man whose exercise of the feelings of charity and benevolence—whose wisely discerning and justly liberal sense of his duties as a Sovereign—will, in England's history, give equal lustre to his name and the crown he wore.

We now humbly offer our congratulation on your Majesty's accession to the Throne, and tender this as an assurance of our loyalty to your Crown and affection for your Person, fully anticipating that England's glory will continue to rise, and be cemented by the councils of your Majesty, and fondly; therefore, hoping that your Majesty may live long and happily to sway the Sceptre of these Realms.

Given at the Tolzey, in the Borough of Tewkesbury, under our Common Seal, this 29th day of July, in the first year of your Majesty's reign.

Lewis G. Senior and Wm. Prosser, Bailiffs.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Magistrates and Council of the Royal Burgh of Selkirk, in Council assembled, for ourselves and as representing the Community of the said Burgh, beg leave most dutifully to offer to your Majesty our sincere condolence on the death of your late august Brother, our much beloved Monarch, George the Fourth.

At the same time that we thus express our sorrow at the late mournful event, we beg leave to offer our sincere congratulations on the accession of your Majesty to the Throne of your Ancestors, and we trust and pray that your Majesty may long be spared in good health to reign over a loyal, prosperous, and happy people.

Signed by the Magistrates, in presence of and by authority from the Council, and the Seal of the Burgh affixed, at Selkirk, the 23d day of July 1830 years.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Governors and Guardians of the Hospital for the Maintenance and Education of Exposed and Deserted Young Children, beg leave to approach your Majesty, to express our most unfeigned sorrow on the demise of our late much revered and much lamented King and Patron. But at the same time that we present this our humble tribute of condolence, we most cordially join in the joyful acclamations of an affectionate and grateful people, on your Majesty's happy accession to the Throne of your United Kingdom, which gives them the fullest assurance that the blessings of peace and prosperity will be dispensed to your loving subjects.

Whilst thus conferring these general blessings on your people, deign, most gracious Sovereign, after the example of your Royal Predecessors, to extend your protection to this Institution, by declaring yourself its Patron.

Thus highly distinguished, we shall be the more strongly incited to use our utmost endeavours to send forth the children committed to our care, useful and honest members of society, faithful to their King, their Country, and their God.

And we most fervently beseech the Almighty to pour down on your Majesty all those blessings which attend true piety and charity, and to grant to your Majesty a long, prosperous, and happy reign.

Sealed with the Seal of the Corporation, in the presence of four Governors and Guardians, and attested by us, Wm. Curtis, Vice-President; Sam. C. Cox, Treasurer; Philip Perring, T. Oakes, Thomas West, and Thos. Dyke.

Signed by order, this 28th July 1830,
Morris Lievesley, Secretary.

Windsor Castle, August 9, 1830.

THIS day the Mayor and a Deputation of the Corporation of the Borough of New Windsor waited upon Her Majesty to present to Her Majesty the following Address, which Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

The dutiful Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of New Windsor, in the County of Berks.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of New Windsor, venture humbly to offer to your Majesty the expression of our sincere and dutiful congratulations on the arrival of your Majesty at the Castle of Windsor.

Your Majesty's devoted servants rejoice, in common with their fellow subjects, in the anticipated blessings which the benignant influence of your Majesty's station and character promises to society, and we hail with rapture the approach of a Princess, whose benevolence, already abundantly displayed, awakens the recollection of those days when this chosen seat of Royalty was adorned by the presence of our revered Monarch George the Third, and his illustrious Consort, the domestic virtues of whose extended reign live recorded in the hearts of a grateful people, as the standard of unaffected piety and private worth.

While we presume to offer to our gracious Sovereign and to yourself, our respectful condolence upon the loss which your Majesties have recently sustained, we cannot withhold the tribute of our gratitude to the memory of departed greatness, by whose taste and munificence this favoured Town has been graced with an edifice worthy of the honour of your choice.

That your Majesties may long live in the peaceful enjoyment of the attachment and devotion which your private virtues, no less than your Regal station, must always command from a loyal, brave, and affectionate people, is the ardent and constant prayer of your Majesty's most faithful subjects and servants.

Given at a Court of Common Council, held at the Guildhall, in and for the said Borough, this 9th day of August, in the year of our Lord 1830, and in the first year of His Majesty's reign.
James Church, Mayor.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

"I am much gratified by the expression of your satisfaction on my arrival at the Castle of Windsor, and I thank you sincerely for the assurances of your attachment to the King, and to me, and of your good wishes for our joint welfare and happiness.

"I am sensible that the memory of the Monarch, whose loss we deplore, must ever be connected with this splendid monument of his taste, and with the benefits which your ancient and loyal Borough derives from his munificence, and I assure you that your continued enjoyment of those benefits, and your prosperity, will engage my cordial interest."

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of Wednesday the 4th instant, Charles Saunders, the Assistant of William Toomer, the Under-keeper of Broomy-walk, in the New Forest, when in the discharge of his duty, was violently attacked by five or six men, armed with sticks, and severely beaten;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the outrage above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his accomplices therein, so that they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person who shall discover the said offenders, so that they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.—The said reward to be paid on conviction by the Lord Warden's Steward, at the King's-house, Lyndhurst.

Whitehall, August 16, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King's Most Excellent Majesty, that, on the night of Monday the 2d day of August instant, three barns, with stables and out-buildings, belonging to Portley Farm, in the parish of Caterham, in the county of Surrey, in the occupation of Stephen Stock Gower, were feloniously and maliciously set on fire and burnt to the ground, by some evil-disposed person or persons at present unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the property) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, and give evidence so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted.—Such reward, upon conviction, to be paid on application to Thomas Moore, constable of the manor of Caterham.

Whitehall, August 17, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Tuesday the 29th day of June last, a faggot stack, belonging to Mr. Love, sen. of Shoreham, in the county of Kent, was feloniously and maliciously set on fire and destroyed by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stack) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by Mr. Love, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Trinity-House, London, August 12, 1830.

WHEREAS representations have been addressed to the Corporation of Trinity-House, on behalf of the owners of vessels employed in the limestone trade in the Bristol Channel, on the subject of the duty of one penny per ton of the register tonnage of such vessels, payable for the light on the Island of Caldy, for each time of passing the same, and soliciting that the said duty may be reduced, and modified by the establishment of an annual commutation in lieu thereof; and the said representations having undergone consideration, the said Corporation, having had regard to the especial circumstances attaching to vessels engaged in the limestone trade in the Bristol Channel as aforesaid, have resolved to comply with the wish of the owners of those vessels, and have, by virtue of the authority vested in them by the 4th section of the Act of Parliament 3d Geo. IV, cap. CXI, submitted certain propositions thereupon for the assent and confirmation of His Majesty in Council; and His Majesty having been graciously pleased by an Order in Council, bearing date at the Court at St. James's, the 3d July 1830, to signify His Majesty's royal assent to and confirmation thereof;

Notice is hereby given, that, under the authority of the said Order of His Majesty in Council, the following sums, by way of commutation for the duty to the light on the Island of Caldy, are to be paid annually by all ships or other vessels entering into, or going out of, any of the ports or places situate between Worm's Head and St. Gowan's Head, in the Bristol Channel, with cargoes of limestone only, viz.

First.—For every limestone vessel which shall carry it's ballast with it's cargoe, being of the description commonly called ballast vessels, twenty shillings per annum.

Second.—For every limestone vessel exceeding the burthen of thirty tons, and discharging it's ballast every time of loading, fifteen shillings per annum.

Third.—For every limestone vessel not exceeding the burthen of thirty tons, and discharging it's ballast every time of loading, ten shillings per annum.

Fourth.—For every limestone vessel not paying either of the foregoing annual commutation sums, one shilling per voyage, if laden with limestone.

All limestone vessels, whether they shall or shall not have paid either of the before specified annual commutation sums, to be charged with the full rate of duty of one penny per ton for the Caldy Light, when navigating to or from any port or place between the Worm's Head and St. Gowan's Head, and not carrying cargoes of limestone, unless such vessels shall be in ballast only.

By command of the Corporation,

J. Herbert, Secretary.
