(An alphabetical and numbered List of the Addresses presented to His Majesty, is printed at the end of the Addresses.)

Whitehall, August 20, 1830.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir Robert Peel, Bart. one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

No. 1.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the President, Council, and Fellows of the Society of Antiquaries of London, most humbly beg leave to express to your Majesty our sentiments of unfeigned condolence, for the heavy loss which your Majesty and the Nation have sustained in the death of your Royal Brother, whose great and exalted virtues, manifested throughout a glorious reign, have left the deepest impressions of reverence and gratitude on the hearts of all classes of people in your Majesty's Dominions.

While we thus presume to testify our sorrow at the death of our late much lamented Sovereign, we humbly beg to offer to your sacred Majesty our heartfelt congratulations upon your happy accession to the Throne of these Realms, persuaded, as we are, that the blessings enjoyed under the paternal Government of our late Monarch will still continue, under the auspices of his august Successor, to be felt and acknowledged by a free, loyal, and happy people.

This Society, which was incorporated by your Majesty's Predecessor, King George the Second, to promote the study of antiquity and the history of former times, cannot without the highest satisfaction reflect, that the objects which it has in view, and which have been more particularly directed to the illustration of the history and antiquities of our own country, have been extended under the fostering influence of your Majesty's revered Father, and Brother; and we humbly hope that your Majesty will graciously condescend to honour our chartered Society with a continuation of the Royal favour and patronage.

We beg to assure your Majesty of our faithful and affectionate attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government; and we earnestly pray that it may please the Almighty to bless your Majesty with length of days, and with a happy and prosperous reign.

Given under our Seal, this 12th day of July 1830.

No. 2.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Stirling, in a General Meeting assembled, beg leave to approach the Throne with the humble offer of our sincere condolence upon the lamented death of His late most sacred Majesty, your Royal Brother; an event by which your Majesty has been bereaved of an affectionate Relative, and we, in common with your Majesty, of a beloved Sovereign, under whose government, in times of difficulty and danger, the honour and best interests of the Nation were preserved, and who, by his kind and courteous demeanour, obtained and secured the love of his people.

We warmly congratulate your Majesty upon your accession to the Throne, and it affords us matter of great gratification, that the British Crown has devolved on a Prince, whose revered Father and beloved Brother had so well governed these Realms; whose first declaration upon his elevation to the Throne, was a voluntary pledge to his people of his intention to follow such bright examples, and we cannot fail to augur well of the government of a Prince, in the exercise of supreme command, whose conduct, while serving his country, had so well taught others to obey.

We embrace this early opportunity of entreating your Majesty to accept of the solemn assurance of our unshaken attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person, to your illustrious Consort Her Majesty the Queen, and to your august House, under whose mild and beneficent government, by the blessing of Divine Providence, our glorious Constitution has been so long preserved, and a lustre has been shed upon the British name unparalleled in history.

Signed in name, and by appointment of the Meeting, at Stirling, this 23d day of July 1830 years, by Henry Home Drummond, Esq., of Blair Drummond, the Member for the County, and Chairman of the Meeting,

No. 3.

To His Most Excellent Majesty WILLIAM the FOURTH, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, KING, Defender of the Faith, and so forth.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Merchants, Traders, and Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Great Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk, assembled at a Public Meeting (called by advertisement), on Tuesday the 10th day of August 1830, humbly approach your Majesty with this expression of condolence on the death of your Majesty's Royal Brother, our late most gracious Sovereign.

But, while we deplore the loss your Majesty has suffered, we rejoice that the prospects which open upon us from your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these Realms are most cheering and consolatory.

Weighed down, as your Majesty's subjects have long been, by an almost overwhelming taxation, we hail with the deepest gratitude the gracious assurance of your Majesty, that prudence and economy shall characterize the financial department of government, and that the public charge shall be diminished.

We rejoice, also, that your Majesty's long connection with the honourable profession, which has ever been esteemed the bulwark and the pride of Britain, assures to us the shipping interests of the country, in which we are so largely concerned, will receive from your Majesty such support and patronage as will highly conduce to the revival and welfare of that important interest, and to the wealth, power, and dignity of the empire.

Nor can we omit to express our firm hope, that, under the paternal reign of your Majesty, that spirit of domestic concord and peace will be cultivated which constitutes the surest basis of our national happiness and strength.

That your Majesty, and your Royal Consort, may long reign in the hearts and affections of your Majesty's loyal and dutiful people, is our sincere and earnest prayer.

Signed by order and on behalf of the Meeting,
George D. Palmer, Chairman.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Stratford-upon-Avon.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses, of the Borough of Stratford-upon-Avon, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to offer your Majesty our sincere condolence on the death of your Brother, our late beloved Sovereign.

But, while we deplore the loss which we have thus sustained, it is our consolation to know that the Crown of these Dominions has descended to your Majesty; and we approach your Royal Person with the most heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of your Ancestors.

We take this opportunity of assuring your Majesty of our loyalty and firm attachment to your Person, and of our fidelity to the British Constitution, and of declaring our determination to deliver down to posterity the character for loyalty to their Sovereign, for which the Corporation of this ancient Borough has always been celebrated.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Borough, the 6th day of August 1830.

The humble Address of the Master, Wardens, and Brethren of Saint David's Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons, in the City of Edinburgh.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Master, Wardens, and Brethren of Saint David's Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons, in the City of Edinburgh, humbly beg leave to approach your Majesty with those unfeigned feelings of loyalty by which our Order has ever been distinguished.

Most deeply do we sympathize with your Majesty on the demise of our late revered Sovereign, by which afflicting event your Majesty has been deprived of a beloved and affectionate Brother, the people of these Realms of their common Father, and our ancient fraternity of its illustrious Patron and Protector.

But whilst we mourn the loss which we, in common with your Majesty, and the Nation, have thus sustained, we beg leave humbly to offer our united congratulations to your Majesty on ascending the Throne of your illustrious Ancestors, convinced that, under your Majesty's wise and paternal Government, our country will continue to prosper in all her interests, both foreign and domestic; and that in the person of your Majesty, the Ancient Order of Free and Accepted Masons will meet with a kind and condescending Protector.

That the Almighty Architect of the Universe may for ever bless and protect your Majesty and your Royal Consort; that peace, harmony, and happiness, may bless your Majesty's reign; that the sublime and liberal arts and sciences may flourish under your Majesty's fostering and protecting care; and that your Majesty may long rule over a free, loyal, united, and happy people, is the sincere prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Master, Wardens, and Brethren of Saint David's Lodge, in the City of Edinburgh.

Signed in our name, and in our presence, and our Seal attached, in full Lodge assembled, this 31st day of July 1830.

To His Most Excellent Majesty KING WILLIAM the FOURTH, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, KING, Defender of the Faith, &c.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Forres.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Forres, beg leave to approach the Throne with the assurance of our unfeigned condolence on the mournful event of the death of His late Majesty, our revered and most gracious King.

Endeared to his faithful subjects, by the splendid qualities which adorned his character, our lamented Monarch will be ever gratefully remembered for the wisdom and energy with which he wielded the Sceptre of England, during the most eventful period of her fortunes, for the consequent blessings of a durable peace, and for the many salutary measures adopted under his paternal Government for the welfare and happiness of his people.

But, while participating in the sorrow inseparable from so severe a dispensation, it affords us no ordinary consolation to reflect, that the Crown has descended to a Prince whose life has been devoted to the services of his country; and we would beg leave, with all humility, to convey to your Royal presence the expression of our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne, and the dutiful assurance of our loyalty and attachment to your sacred Person.

That a kind Providence may long preserve a life so dear to the nation, and that it may be the glory of your Majesty's reign to perpetuate and extend the blessings of peace, happiness, and security to these kingdoms, is our earnest prayer.

Signed in our name, by our appointment, and in our presence, at Forres, this 31st day of July 1830.

No. 7.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Sire,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and dutiful subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Royal Burgh of Tain, in General Meeting assembled, beg humbly to approach your Majesty with the mingled tribute of sincere condolence and congratulation.

While we contemplate with unfeigned satisfaction your Majesty's accession to the British Throne, we cannot fail to revert, with emotion, to that solemn dispensation, by which it has pleased Almighty God to deprive this Country of a revered Sovereign, and your Majesty of a beloved and affectionate Brother.

We presume, Sire, to mingle our sorrows with your own; and thus, by the indulgence of the best sympathies of our nature, we consecrate at once our veneration for him who is taken from us, our allegiance to his Royal Successor, and our attachment to the illustrious House of Brunswick.

We acknowledge with gratitude the consolation which we derive from the reflection, that the Sceptre is transmitted into the hands of your Majesty, a Prince whose very name awakens recollections of national freedom and renown; whose life has been devoted to the cause of his country, in that department of public service which may be peculiarly termed national; and who is destined, as we humbly trust, to promote, in an eminent degree, the glory and felicity of the British Empire.

Rejoicing in this great event, we cannot deny to our feelings a still further gratification, and with our exultation on your Majesty's succession, we venture to unite our congratulations also, on the elevation, at the same time, of a Princess whose virtues have already won the affections of your Majesty's subjects. In the person of your Queen, Sire, this nation hails an additional pledge of the prosperity of your Majesty's reign.

We offer our earnest prayers, that your Majesty, and your Royal Consort, may be long spared to form the delight and admiration of a free, a loyal, and a happy people.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Haddington, in General Meeting specially assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Haddington, beg leave to approach your Majesty, and to offer sincere condolence on the lamented death of our late Sovereign, the benefits of whose reign endeared him to the nation, while the splendid achievements during the period of his rule, exalted the glory of the kingdom.

While we approach your Majesty with sentiments of grateful remembrance for the benefits of the last reign, we also desire to lay at your Majesty's feet, our most cordial congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these Realms.

We joyfully hail the many virtues of your Majesty's character, as a pledge, that, under your reign, the glory of the Empire, as well as the happiness of the people, will be enhanced.

It is our earnest prayer that Providence may grant your Majesty a long and prosperous reign, and that your Majesty may be gifted with wisdom to preserve our public and private rights, as the best security of the Throne, and the truest benefit to the Nation.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Deacon and Remanent Members of the Incorporation of Candlemakers of the City of Edinburgh, beg leave to express to your Majesty our feelings of condolence on the death of our late most gracious Sovereign, George the Fourth, whose reign will be long remembered by its success, while the country was engaged in a war unexampled in its duration and consequences, as well as by the encouragement shown towards the fine arts and useful pursuits while in a state of peace.

While so expressing our sorrow at the loss sustained by the country, we do not sorrow as those having no hope, it being in our power to congratulate a Prince on his accession to the Throne, who, when the first subject in the kingdom, fulfilled so well his duty to the state, thereby encouraging us to hope that the duties of the Sovereign will be performed in such a manner as to preserve and increase the internal comforts, as well as to command the respect of the other nations of the globe, either in engaging in the useful pursuits of peace, or in defending our rights as a nation in a state of war.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's ever dutiful and loyal subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Kilmarnock, beg leave to approach the Royal presence, and congratulate your Majesty upon your happy accession to the Imperial Crown of these Realms; and at the same time to condole the loss and sincerely lament the death of our late most gracious Sovereign, George the Fourth, whose splendid reign and princely virtues endeared him in the hearts of his people.

It must be truly gratifying to your Majesty to know, that you have ascended the Throne with the entire approbation of the whole nation, and convinced, as we are, that you have the good and interest of the United Kingdom truly at heart, and will be the guardian of the rights and liberties of your subjects; we sincerely pray that your Majesty's reign may be long and prosperous, and that the Crown of these Realms may descend to one of your illustrious Family to the latest posterity.

We desire to convey to your Majesty the strongest expression of our ardent attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family, and our unalterable devotion to our glorious Constitution, which recognizes your Majesty as the Chief of the Three Estates to which the Government of this great and powerful Empire is committed.

It is our sincere and earnest prayer that your Majesty may long continue to wield, in happiness and peace, the Sceptre of the United Kingdom; and that your councils may be influenced by those principles which tend equally to the dignity and security of the Crown, and to the freedom and prosperity of the people.

To His Most Excellent Majesty WILLIAM the FOURTH, KING of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Dalkeith, beg leave thus to approach your Majesty and to express our most sincere and deep condolence on the death of your Majesty's Royal Brother, our late most beloved Sovereign, King George the Fourth; and to congratulate your Majesty on your succession to the Throne of your Ancestors. Much happiness and great prosperity has this country enjoyed under the illustrious House of Brunswick, and under no Member of it perhaps more, in proportion to the time he ruled over us, than under His late Majesty's reign. We hope and trust that it may be the will of Divine Providence, that similar prosperity and happiness may be enjoyed under the reign of your Majesty; and we pray that you may be long spared to rule over and to protect us from evil; and that your Majesty may be most happy, and, under Providence, the blessed means of rendering all those happy over whom you reign.

We beg leave to assure your Majesty that your Majesty has not any subjects more loyally disposed than we are, and that it shall be our constant study and care to impress the minds of those to whom we have been appointed pastors or teachers, or with whom we are in any way connected, the propriety and absolute necessity of submitting to lawful authority, if they would be happy, or entitled to the name of true Christians,—nothing being more expressly inculcated in the Gospel of Christ.

That He, by whom Kings reign and Princes decree justice, may bless and prosper your Majesty, preserving you long to reign over these happy realms, and bestow upon your Majesty all happiness here, and eternal life hereafter, is the sincere prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most dutiful, most faithful, and most loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Dalkeith.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Dean and Chapter of Rochester, your Majesty's loyal and faithful subjects, humbly tender to your Majesty our most sincere condolence on the loss which your Majesty and the Nation have sustained, in the demise of our late lamented Sovereign, by whose wisdom and firmness the war that had so long afflicted the nations, was, after a succession of brilliant and glorious achievements, brought to a happy termination, and under whose paternal regard for the interests and welfare of his people, the blessings of peace have been so long preserved.

To this our most sincere condolence, we humbly beg leave to add the homage of our respectful congratulations to your Majesty on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these Realms. In common with the rest of the nation, we look forward with confidence to a reign in which the just rights and liberties of all ranks will be effectually protected and secured, and our Constitution, in Church and State, be firmly maintained and upheld; and in the history of which, we fondly trust will be recorded, amidst numerous acts of benevolence and goodness, your Majesty's unceasing anxiety that true religion and sound learning should flourish and abound.

Be pleased, most gracious Sire, to accept this our unfeigned tribute of condolence and congratulation, with the assurance of our fervent prayers, that your Majesty, and your Royal Consort, may, amidst the enjoyments of domestic happiness, continue many years to rule wisely and prosperously over a free, loyal, and affectionate people.
