

hithor from France to the Hague, to give the States and the Prince of Orange an account how he left Affairs at Paris. We were yesterday informed by Letters from Lille, that the Marechal d'Humieres was going to decamp from Leslignes, when he received new orders from Court; that thereupon a Council of War was held; and that the Young Princes who were returning to Paris, are all come back to the Army, which makes us believe some sudden Action is intended. The Letters from Germany confirm the Particulars we gave you in our last, of the Victory at Barkau, but do not speak with any certainty, either of the Siege of Gran or Canisla.

Brussels, November 2. We have an account from Mons, that on Friday last 15 or 16 Squadrons of French Horse appearing within Cannon Shot of that place, the Governor caused several Pieces of Cannon to be discharged at them; and sent out a Party of Horse and Dragoons, who skirmished with them, and some were killed and wounded on both sides; but in the mean time the French raised their Contributions in the adjacent Villages, and pillaged those that refused. The Marechal de Humieres decamped on Sunday last very early in the Morning from Leslignes, and marched towards Leuze and Renay: He sent out a great Detachment towards Audenarde, and another towards Courtray; which last place it's believed will be attacked: This is certain, that great Preparations are made at Tournay for a Siege, and that all the Carriages on that side of the Country, have been summoned thither. Upon this news the Prince de Vaudemont parted from hence yesterday Morning by break of day with 400 Spanish Horse, and having joyned the Dutch Horse and Dragoons at Humbeck, continued his march towards Flanders; and our Maistre de Camp General, is likewise abroad with the Troops he has drawn out of Ghent, to observe the motions of the French. We have Letters from the Imperial Camp in Hungary of the 18th instant, which tell us, that they had not yet undertaken the Siege of Gran, the Garrison whereof has been lately considerably reinforced: That they as well as the Poles were still encamped on this side the Danube, not far from Barkan; that 3000 Horse had passed the River, and advanced to the Suburb of Gran, and set fire to it; that the Turks made a Sally out of the Town, and skirmished with the Christians, but were beaten home again, and several of them taken Prisoners. And that they had advice that the Grand Visier being reinforced with a considerable Body of fresh Troops, was encamped between Buda and Stoel-Weiffembourg.

Hague, October 30. The Sieur Roucke Envoy Extraordinary from the Elector of Brandenburgh, parted from hence two days ago for Berlin, where, if not at Potsdam, there will be very suddenly an Entertainment between their Electoral Highnesses of Brandenburgh and Saxony. The Master of a Vessel which arrived the 28th instant at Amsterdam from the Eastward, reports, he met the Fleet of this State, consisting of twenty Sail, off Sebagen, and that they took their course towards Gottenburg. Our Letters from Vienna tell us, that there being a great Scarcity of Forage in Hungary, 20 or 22000 Horse would be sent towards the Rhine to winter there.

Hague, Novemb. 2. The States of Holland are again Adjourned till Thursday next, and in the time the Deputies are gone home; when they meet again it's believed they will come to a final Resolution in the matter of the new Levy. The Prince of Orange is gone to the Veluwe to Hunt, but will be back against Thursday. It's said our Fleet is arrived at Gottenburg, Paris, October 30. We have advice that the Chevalier de Breuille is arrived at Brest, with the Squadron of Men of War under his Command from the South. The Marechal de Crequi is gone to his Government of Lorraine. The Sieur Heintius Envoy Extraordinary from the States General of the United Provinces, had two days since, his Audiences of leave of the King, the Dauphin, &c. being conducted thereunto by Monsieur de Boneil Introducer of Ambassadors.

Westminster, Octob. 27. This day Aron Smith, who was some time since convicted, upon an Information, for contriving and delivering most scandalous and libellous Instructions in Writing, to Stephen Colledge, to be used at his Trial at Oxford; and for speaking very scandalous and ledition Words in the Court at the said Trial, and fled for the same; being lately apprehended, was brought to the Kings-Bench-Bar to receive the Judgment of the Court, upon his said conviction; which was, That he pay a Fine of 500 pounds, and stand in the Pillory before Westminister-Hall gate, and before the Royal Exchange in London; That he find Sureties for the Good-behavior for a Year; and that he remain in Prison till this be done.

HIS Majesty has been graciously pleased, upon the surrender of the Charter of Northampton, not only to Regrant them their former Liberties, Priviledges, Lands, Tenements, Goods and Chattels, but likewise as a particular Instance of his Royal Favour, to Grant them a Market for all sorts of Cattel, to be held the first Thursday of every month throughout the year, and the said first Market is to be held and begun on the first Thursday in January next. The Loyal Society who did keep their meeting at the Sign of the White Horse in Fullers Kents, have thought fit to remove from thence to the Kings Arms Tavern over against St. Clements Church in the Strand, of which the Members of the said Societ., who were absent on the 26th instant, when this Resolution was taken, are desired to take notice.

Advertisements.

Emblemata Amatoria, - Emblems of Love in Four Languages, curiously Engraven on Copper Plates: Sold by R. Bentley in Covent-Garden, and S. Tidmarsh at the Kings head in Cornhill.

These are to give Notice to all Lovers of Musick, concerning the new Musical Compositions called SONATA's, lately published by Mr. Henry Purcell, that (the Subscribers being satisfied) they are now to be sold at these following places, viz. at Mr. John Playford's and Mr. John Carr's Shops in the Temple, and at Mr. Henry Rogers Bookseller in Westminister-Hall.

The late Horrid Fanatical Conspiracy, Lively represented in a Pack of Cards, curiously Engraven on Copper-Plates, is now published: And are Sold by Dan. Browne at the black Swan and Bible without Temple bar; Arthur Jones at the Flying-Horse in Fleet-street, and Walter Davies in Amen-Corner, Price 1 s a Pack.

Notice is hereby given, that the Annual Eaton Schollars Feast will be kept at Stationers-Hall near Ludgate, on Thursday the 22th of November next, for which Tickets may be had at Mr. Mans's the Royal Coffee-house at Charing-Cross, the Rainbow Coffee house near Temple-bar, Sam's Coffee-house in Ludgate street, and at Jonathan's Coffee-house in Exchange-Alley near Cornhill.

The Trustees for the Creditors of Benjamin Hinton have thought fit, for that some of the Creditors are in the Country, and the Habitations of others are yet unknown, to enlarge the time for the signing the Instrument of Agreement between the said Mr. Hinton and his Creditors (which is lodged with Mr. Edward Ambrose Attorney in the Stocks-market) till the 20th of November next.

On the 24th instant from Cleveland Stables, a large white French Spaniel, with Liver-colour Ears, a little red spot on his Fore-head, and a large one on his right side, and another on his Tail; whoever gives notice of him to the Porter of Arlington House, shall have a Guinea reward.

Stolen or strayed the 15th of this instant October, out of the Grounds of Sir Henry Bedingfield of Oxburgh in Norfolk, ten Scotch Store-Bullocks, branded in the right Horn with H. B four were all black, two were black, and white faced; one black and flecked on the back bone, two were brown, and one brindled: Whoever gives notice of the Person or Persons that has sold the said Bullocks, or where they are, to Mr. John Cafe at the Crown Inn in Swafham in Norfolk, or to Mr. Edward Greenbery at the Kings-Arms in Smithfield, they shall be well rewarded, and charges borne.