No. 1.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Alderman, Comburgesses, and Burgesses, of the Town or Borough of Grantham, beg leave to offer to your Majesty our most sincere and heartfelt condolence on the death of our late revered Sovereign, your Majesty's Royal Brother, for whose person we have always entertained the most dutiful sentiments of attachment, and under whose mild and paternal Government this Country has attained its present exalted station amongst the Nations of Europe.

To your Majesty's sacred Person we respectfully tender our dutiful allegiance and sincere attachment, congratulating your Majesty on your Majesty's ascension to the Throne of these Realms.

We have also the happiness of expressing our most ardent feelings of respectful attachment towards your Majesty's beloved Consort, Queen Adelaide, from whose virtues and benevolence we anticipate the happiest results to all classes of society.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Town of Romsey, in the County of Southampton, beg leave to express our sincere regret at the loss your Majesty and the Nation have sustained in the death of your Royal Brother, our late revered and amiable Sovereign, whose equitable government and paternal solicitude for the welfare of his people have left an indelible impression of gratitude on our hearts.

We have great consolation, Sire, in the reflection, that our late Monarch is succeeded by a Member of his illustrious Family, to whom we are bound by every tie of duty and affection. We offer your Majesty the humble tribute of our allegiance as subjects, and of our attachment as your countrymen.

We are well aware of your Majesty's beneficent character; we look with the most unbounded confidence to your Majesty for the protection of our civil and religious rights; and we hail with high satisfaction your Majesty's gracious declaration of your readiness to concur in every practicable measure of national retrenchment.

While we congratulate your Majesty on your accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, we beseech the Giver of every good gift to bless your Majesty, and your illustrious Consort, granting to you both a long and happy life, and affording to your Majesty an opportunity of giving full effect to your generous and patriotic wishes, of promoting the true glory of the Crown, the honour and integrity of the Bri-
