(An alphabetical and numbered List of the Addresses presented to His Majesty, is printed at the end of the Addresses.)

St. James Palace, July 25, 1830.

THE following Address from the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the City of Gloucester, was presented to His Majesty, at the Levee, on the 21st July last, by His Royal Highness the Duke of Gloucester. His Majesty was pleased to receive the same very graciously :

No. 1.

To His Most Excellent Majesty WILLIAM the FOURTH, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, KING, Defender of the Faith.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the City of Gloucester, in Council assembled, beg permission to address your Majesty with the deepest sentiments of condolence for the loss which your Majesty and the Nation have sustained, in the death of your Majesty's beloved Brother, and our late lamented Sovereign.

It must, however, be a source of consolation to the loyal hearts of your subjects, that the Sceptre of these Realms has passed into the hands of one, whose accession to the Throne has commenced under such auspicious circumstances, who, having from his earliest days mixed with his countrymen in the service of the state, has learnt their character, has appreciated and obtained their love, and who, when he becomes their King, is graciously pleased to seize the first opportunity of expressing his earnest hope, that his faithful subjects will unite with him in promoting that spirit of domestic concord and peace which constitutes the surest basis of our national strength and happiness.

With such anticipations as these sentiments call forth, we cannot refrain from declaring our conviction, that the reign of your Majesty will be prosperous.

That it may be so—and that health, happiness and length of days may be granted both to your Majesty and to our amiable and gracious Queen Adelaide, will be the constant prayers of us, your Majesty's humble and affectionate subjects.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Tolsey, in the said City, the 11th day of August in the year of our Lord 1830.

Henry J. Wilton, Town Clerk.

Whitehall, August 27, 1830.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir Robert Peel, Bart. one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously :

No. 2.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful subjects, the Provost and Fellows of the Royal College of Eton, beg permission humbly to express to your Majesty our unfeigned condolence upon the death of our late most gracious Sovereign, your Majesty's revered and lamented Brother.

While however, in common with all classes of your Majesty's subjects, we deplore the loss thus sustained by your Majesty, and by your illustrious House, we beg, at the same time, to offer our respectful congratulations upon your Majesty's accession to the Throne of this United Kingdom.

Placed as we are, at the head of a Royal College, founded more especially for the promotion of sacred learning, we hail with peculiar joy, and with the truest gratitude, your Majesty's gracious declarations of attachment to the reformed religion, as it is by law established; and your determination to uphold our ecclesiastical institutions.

With profound veneration for your Majesty's Person, we earnestly pray that it will please the Almighty to mark with his choicest mercies, a reign so auspiciously commenced, and to bless it to a distant period with uninterrupted glory, prosperity, and peace.

No. 3.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral and Metropolitan Church of Christ, Canterbury, humbly approach your Majesty to express our sense of the loss which your Majesty and the United Kingdom have sustained, by the death of your Majesty's Royal and beloved Brother, our late most gracious Sovereign, and to offer our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's happy accession to the Throne of your Ancestors.

It is our comfort and happiness to know, that your Majesty has warmly and repeatedly expressed your affectionate attachment to our pure and venerable Church, and your Royal determination to uphold her in the possession of her undoubted rights and privileges.

We fervently pray that a Merciful Providence may protect and preserve your Majesty and our gracious Queen, that the bright example of domestic virtue and happiness which the Throne affords, may extend its beneficial influence over all ranks of your Majesty's subjects, and that your Majesty may long continue to reign in peace and prosperity over a moral, religious, and loyal people.

Dated in our Chapter House, the 9th day of August, in the year of our Lord 1830.

No. 4.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Great Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Great Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to approach your Majesty with the most sincere expressions of condolence on the much lamented death of your Majesty's most Royal and beloved Brother, our late most gracious Sovereign.

While, in common with the nation at large, we express our deep regret at the demise of His late Majesty, we beg leave to express our firm attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, and are anxious to offer the strongest assurances of allegiance to a Sovereign, who has already graciously assured his faithful subjects of his determination to support our happy Constitution in Church and State, that Constitution which affords the best security for the honour and dignity of the Throne, and for the liberty and happiness of the people.

That your Majesty, and your Majesty's amiable Consort, Queen Adelaide, may long enjoy the blessings of a peaceful and happy reign, is our most ardent wish and prayer.

No. 5.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Bishop of Lichfield and Coventry, and the Dean and Chapter of Lichfield, humbly approach your Majesty with the expression of our sincere condolence on the loss which your Majesty and the Country have sustained by the decease of our late most gracious Sovereign, and at the same time with the tribute of our hearty congratulations upon the accession of your Majesty to the Throne of your Ancestors.

We entertain the strongest confidence that the maintenance of peace, at home and abroad, the promotion of our social comforts, the amelioration of the habits and character of the various classes of the community, and the still progressive, but deliberate and cautious improvement of our admirable institutions, will form the prominent objects of your Majesty's paternal government; and we gratefully rely upon those pledges of regard and protection which your Majesty has been pleased to hold forth towards that Apostolic Protestant Church, which we deem the glory of our land, and those religious principles and establishments, which must ever be the basis and the cement of all our other national privileges.

In conclusion, we entreat your Majesty to accept the assurance that our earnest prayers will ever be offered up to the Throne of Grace for the long and prosperous continuance of your Majesty's reign, and for the preservation of that domestic happiness, and that public benefit, which the character of your Royal Consort is so pre-eminently calculated to afford to your Majesty, and to your loyal and devoted people.

Unto His Most Sacred Majesty WILLIAM the FOURTH, KING of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Defender of the Faith.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and devoted subjects, the President and Members of the Agricultural Society of the Western Division of the County of Ross, request permission to approach your Royal Person, to express the sentiments of devoted loyalty which animate us upon occasion of your Majesty's auspicious succession to the Throne of your Ancestors.

We feel that we should, upon this occasion, be wanting in our duty to your Majesty, as well as in the reverence with which your Majesty's immediate Predecessor was regarded in this distant corner of your dominions, were we to suppress the expression of the heartfelt grief and sincere lamentation with which we learned the protracted and afflicting indisposition of our late beloved and admired Monarch, and its fatal termination, an event upon which we cordially sympathize with your Majesty's fraternal and loyal feelings, and upon which we take leave to offer our sincere condolence.

We humbly offer your Majesty the tribute of our unfeigned congratulations upon your accession to the Throne of your Royal Ancestors, an ancestry illustrated in our early northern annals by the imperishable name of Bruce, and in our own recollections endeared to us by the long and virtuous reign of your Royal Father, no less than by the splendid achievements, the refined elegance, and high-minded and active beneficence which signalized the shorter career of your lamented Brother.

We humbly desire to express our cordial felicitations to Her Majesty, your Royal Consort, upon her participation in your Majesty's Throne, confiding in a gracious Providence, that the unsullied example of her amiable and estimable character, will long bear a salutary sway in aid of your Majesty's laudable exertions, in promoting the best interests of your Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects.

At the same time we trust it may be permitted to us to offer our sincere congratulations to your Majesty on your accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, and we pray that you may long continue to reign over a prosperous, happy, and united people.

Unto His Gracious Majesty WILLIAM the FOURTH,
by the Grace of God, KING of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Defender of the Faith.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Master, Wardens, and Brethren of the Lodge of Free Masons, established in the Town of Dingwall, and County of Ross, under the name of the Fingal Lodge, humbly beg leave to approach your Majesty's Person, with the expression of our fervent congratulations upon your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these Realms.

We, as in duty bound, take leave, at the same time, to convey to your Majesty our sincere sympathy and heartfelt condolence with your Majesty, Her Majesty the Queen, and the Members of your august House, upon the signal bereavement suffered by your Majesty, the Royal Family, and the Nation at large, over which your Majesty now bears sway, by the demise upon the Throne which Divine Providence has so lately afflicted us with. We beg to assure your Majesty that we fervently and earnestly participated in your affliction during the lengthened and painful malady of our late gracious and beloved Monarch, whose powerful and fostering patronage our Order had the enviable distinction of enjoying, whose dignified condescension we admired, whose benign government we honoured, whose elegant taste and accomplishments we saw exemplified by, and impressed upon, the improvements in all the arts of civilized life, which form the splendid monuments of his reign, whose liberal and diffusive benevolence his subjects, of all religious persuasions, must reverence with increasing admiration and love, and the signal exploits of whose arms can never be effaced from the proudest pages of our national records.

We humbly congratulate your gracious Majesty upon your auspicious advancement to a Throne so illustrated and so ennobled. We hail in your Majesty not only the worthy Descendant and Representative of a long line of illustrious heroes and patriots, but also a Prince, who have contributed, by your heroic achievements and exalted example, to elevate the character of the British Navy, that invincible bulwark of our defence, and to add to the innumerable trophies of her imperishable glory.

We would farther wish to express our joyous and hearty congratulations with your Majesty, and to felicitate the Nation you rule over upon the elevation to the Throne of Her Majesty the Queen, the example of whose eminent virtues must add splendour to the high station which she adorns, and impose upon all ranks of your subjects the love and admiration of the perfections which she practises.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and affectionate subjects, the West India Planters and Merchants of the City of Glasgow, beg leave to approach your Majesty with every feeling of loyalty and congratulation on your accession to the British Throne.

We most sincerely sympathize with your Majesty on the loss which the Nation has sustained, by the death of your august Brother, whose reign, both as Prince Regent and as Sovereign, while it was marked with mildness and benignity, has shed so much lustre on the country, and added so greatly to the happiness and comfort of the people.

We beg leave most sincerely to congratulate your Majesty on your accession to the Throne of Great Britain and Ireland; and we pray that your Majesty may be long spared to reign over a free and a happy people.

We humbly implore your Majesty's gracious protection to the British West India Colonies, which, from various circumstances, have long been in a state of great depression; and we humbly, yet confidently hope, from the protection formerly afforded by your Majesty to the West India Colonies, and the interest which you have since taken in their welfare and prosperity, that your Majesty, as the father of your people, will extend your protecting hand to restore to them their rights and privileges.

Having long experienced the blessings of the mild and paternal reigns of our late Sovereign, and of his and your Majesty's illustrious Father, George the Third, we cherish the most unbounded confidence in your Majesty, firmly persuaded that the benefits of the foregoing reigns will be continued, and, if possible, increased, under your Majesty's paternal Government.

Henry Monteith, Esq. of Carstairs.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Henry Hime, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, August 19, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on Monday the 9th day of August instant, Mr. Simeon Stuckey, of Chard, in the county of Somerset, carpenter and builder, went on a journey of business about ten miles, intending to return home at night; that about twelve o'clock on that night, his horse was found on the road without its rider, who has never since been heard of; that his hat and stick were found on the road the following morning, about four miles from Stratton, near South Petherton, in the same county, which place he had left at half past nine o'clock on the preceding evening; and that from a considerable portion of blood having been discovered upon the same spot, there is every reason to believe that he was barbarously murdered, and his body secreted by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the murder before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually committed the said murder) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid on application to the Reverend W. B. Whitehead, Vicar of Chard.

Whitehall, August 27, 1830.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the murder before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the said murder) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Churchwardens and Overseers of the parish of Lambeth, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.
