

which has already gained the confidence and affection of your people, rejoice at your Majesty's accession to the Throne of your Ancestors.

We beg leave to unite our congratulatory address to those of your Majesty's loyal subjects in other places of your Majesty's dominion, and to express the sentiments of fidelity and respect which we entertain for your Majesty's Person and Authority.

We hope that Providence will impart to your Majesty, and your Royal Consort, every blessing; that your Majesty's reign, commenced under such happy auspices, may be extended to a distant period; and that it may be accompanied by an uninterrupted course of national glory and prosperity.

On behalf of the Inhabitants,
Daniel Chambers, High Constable.

No. 16.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the President and Governors of the Corporation for Relief and Support of Sick, Maimed, and Disabled Seamen, and of the Widows and Children of such as shall be killed, slain, or drowned in the Merchants' service, beg leave to tender to your Majesty our heartfelt condolence on the death of your Royal Brother, our late beloved Sovereign.

We humbly offer to your Majesty our congratulations upon your Majesty's accession to the Throne of your Royal Ancestors. We beg to express our warmest attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person, and to assure your Majesty that we, in common with all your Majesty's loyal subjects, rely with perfect confidence on your Majesty's known anxiety to promote the interests of institutions for the benefit of British merchant seamen, as well as the general welfare of your people, and the prosperity of the empire at large.

We fervently pray that your Majesty's valuable life may be long preserved as a blessing to your subjects, and that your Majesty's reign may be long and happy.

Given under our Common Seal, this 4th day of August 1830. By order,

Wm. Watson, Secretary.
