No. 1.

To His Most Excellent Majesty WILLIAM the FOURTH, KING of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c. &c. &c.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Chaplain and Churchwardens of the English Episcopal Church in the City of Amsterdam, all British subjects, in our names and in behalf of our Congregation, most humbly beg leave to approach your Majesty with our sincere condolence at the lamented demise of our late Sovereign, your Royal Brother, of blessed memory, and to congratulate your Majesty on the accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, filled by them with so much honour, and under whose auspicious reigns the prosperity and glory of our beloved country have been so much advanced. Though dwelling in a foreign land, our hearts still remain English, and we exult in the name of Englishmen.

We pray Almighty God that your Majesty's reign may be long and increasingly prosperous, and that he would pour down his blessings on your Government for the welfare of our nation, for your own individual happiness, and that of your Royal Consort, our most gracious Queen.

We most humbly claim your Royal protection of our Church Establishment in this City, which has so much conducted by its existence to maintain the character of our country.

To His Most Excellent Majesty KING WILLIAM the FOURTH.

The humble Address of the National Scottish Church in Rotterdam.

Sire,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers, Elders, and Deacons of the National Scottish Church at Rotterdam, in our own name, and as representing the most numerous British congregation in the Netherlands, presume respectfully to address your Majesty on your accession to the British Throne.

Kindled by distance of place, by a proportionally higher glow of loyal attachment to your Royal Person, we approach your Majesty, to offer our most sincere condolence on the lamented death of our late most gracious Monarch, George the Fourth,—a Sovereign, whose personal worth and brilliant reign will be long held in grateful remembrance.

Deprived by Providence of a King so justly dear to us, we heartily bless God for having raised up in the person of your Majesty a Prince so admirably fitted and disposed to maintain and perpetuate the renown of the illustrious House of Brunswick.

Imbued from your earliest years with the best principles, and brought up from your youth in enduring the hardships and in sharing the glory of Britain's most disinterested and meritorious sons; and happily united with a Queen Consort, the possessor and the pattern of every desirable quality in her sex, your Majesty ascends the Throne of your revered Ancestors under the most favourable auspices; and your gracious condescending manners; and the few, but conspicuous and significant acts of your reign, just begun, have already procured for your Majesty a degree of popularity rarely attained by Sovereigns, and which we, with our fellow-subjects at home, hail as the guarantee of increasing usefulness and prosperity.

That the God, by whom Kings reign and Princes decree justice, and who always honours those who honour him, may, by his effectual energy, crown with abundant success your Majesty's pious and patriotic designs; that the choicest blessings of Heaven may descend in rich abundance upon your Majesty and your Royal and beloved Consort; that your reign may be long and glorious, is the fervent prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful Scottish Presbyterian subjects in Rotterdam, whose unremitting exertions shall not be wanting to ensure the approbation of their native Prince, to whose generous and fostering protection they humbly recommend their ancient Ecclesiastical Establishment in this City.

Given at a special meeting of the Scottish Consistory, at Rotterdam, this 30th day of July 1830.

Wm. Macphail, Minister; Wm. Steven, Minister; Alex. Ferrier, Elder; Wm. Jay, Elder; D. Dunlop, Deacon; Archibald Campbell, Deacon.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir Robert Peel, Bart one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

No. 3.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bailiff and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Bewdley, in the County of Worcester, lamenting with the sincerest grief the death of our late most gracious Sovereign, and being truly sensible of the blessings we enjoyed under his glorious reign, humbly beg leave to testify to your Majesty our deepest concern at the affecting loss which your Majesty and the Nation have sustained by that melancholy event, and with hearts full of the sincerest duty and most affectionate zeal, to congratulate your Majesty on your happy succession to the Throne of your Royal Ancestors.

The glorious prosperity and success which have been vouchsafed to us, through the illustrious reign of your Royal Brother, the acknowledged lenity, moderation, and wisdom of his Government, that uniform regard to our Laws and Constitution, which was the invariable rule of his conduct, justly demand our most affectionate remembrance and grateful acknowledgments.

Permit us, Sire, to take this opportunity of assuring your Majesty of our unalterable attachment to your sacred Person, and of our warmest zeal for the support of your Government, being fully convinced that every thing dear and valuable to us will be preserved in its full extent under your Majesty's reign.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall, in the said Borough, this 9th day of August 1830.

No. 4.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Helleston, in the County of Cornwall, beg leave to approach your Majesty with sentiments of the most heartfelt and sincere condolence on the death of your Majesty's most excellent Brother, our late revered and beloved Sovereign, George the Fourth, of blessed and glorious memory.

Whilst we pay a mournful tribute to the memory of His late Majesty, under whose glorious reign this country enjoyed, during a period of long duration, the inestimable blessings of internal concord and external peace, it is with feelings of peculiar satisfaction that we hail your Majesty as the Successor of so beneficent and illustrious a Monarch; and we humbly solicit the acceptance of our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's happy accession to that Throne, which has been so gloriously filled by your Majesty's Royal Ancestors.

We rejoice that your Majesty has declared it to be your determination to maintain the Protestant Reformed Religion, established within these Realms, and to preserve inviolate that toleration, for their attachment to which your illustrious House has ever been distinguished.

Deeply impressed with a sense of that truth, that "Righteousness exalteth a Nation," we rejoice that your Majesty has caused your Royal Proclamation against vice and immorality to be issued; we hail this circumstance as a pledge, that your Majesty's utmost influence will be employed to countenance and encourage the practice of true religion and virtue, and especially to promote a due observance of the sabbath, now so generally and lamentably violated.

That your Majesty's reign may be happy and glorious, and, under the Divine favour, may long continue to diffuse the blessings of peace and prosperity throughout your Majesty's dominions, is the earnest prayer of your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects.

Signed for and on behalf of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Helleston, in public meeting assembled, John Borlase, Mayor.

The humble Address of His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Down, in the County Court by the High Sheriff assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Down, beg leave to approach your Majesty's Throne, and with sincere and deepfelt sorrow to condole with your Majesty on the loss which your Majesty and the Nation have sustained, by the demise of your Majesty's beloved Brother, our late most gracious and august Sovereign, under whose benign and auspicious sway the British Empire had attained to a station of eminence and influence unparalleled in former ages.

To maintain the national character in all its grandeur and elevation, and to hand down unimpaired to your Successors that fabric of civil and religious liberty, on which the Imperial Throne of your Ancestors is based and sustained, will ever be the wish nearest your Majesty's heart.

On your ascent to that Throne, with truth and sincerity, we presume to address to your Majesty the loyal congratulations of free-born subjects.

Our prayers are offered up to the Almighty Disposer of the destinies of Kings and Nations, that your Majesty's reign may be long, prosperous, and happy; and that, with your beloved Consort, our most gracious Queen Adelaide, to whose virtues, through your Majesty, we would desire to pay the humble tribute of our dutiful respect and admiration, you may long, very long, continue to reign in the hearts and affections of your attached subjects, and hold out to the Sovereigns and Nations of the World, the useful and instructive lesson, that in no instance can the personal interest of the Monarch be inconsistent with or separate from that of his people.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Masters, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the City of Wells, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Masters, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the City of Wells, in Common Council assembled, beg leave humbly to approach your Majesty with the expression of our sincere condolence in the severe loss which your Majesty has sustained, by the demise of your Majesty's Royal Brother, our late most gracious and beneficent Sovereign.

At the same time we would, in expression of dutiful obedience, pray your Majesty to accept our most humble and heartfelt congratulations upon your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these Realms, animated as we are with the hope that, under the blessing of Divine Providence, your Majesty may long live to reign over a happy and loyal people, and with the confidence that Great Britain will, under your Majesty's Government, continue to advance in glory and prosperity.

We further pray your Majesty to believe, that there are not in the whole of your Majesty's dominions any subjects more loyal, or more attached to your Majesty's sacred person, or to that illustrious House of which your Majesty is the head, than the Mayor, Corporation, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of this ancient and loyal City.

No. 7.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Magistrates, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the ancient Town and Borough of Gosport, and the Parish of Alverstoke, most respectfully approach your Royal Throne, and, being deeply sensible of the many blessings which were enjoyed under the reign of our late most gracious Sovereign, of illustrious memory, beg leave to offer our sincere and unfeigned condolence on the melancholy event which has at once deprived your Majesty of a kind and affectionate Brother, and this mighty Empire of a great and glorious Monarch.

But, whilst we contemplate with heartfelt sorrow this domestic and national calamity, we cannot but feel animated with a perfect conviction, that the Sceptre has fallen into hands in which it will be wielded with wisdom and discretion, for the prosperity and happiness of this great and powerful nation.

We, therefore, humbly approach your Majesty with our most respectful and cordial congratulations on your accession to the Throne of your Royal Ancestors; and we hail the commencement of your Majesty's reign as an earnest of the continuation and extension of those rights and privileges which have been so long enjoyed under the protection of a mild and constitutional Government, and which have been confirmed and placed on a securer basis in every succeeding reign of the Princes of the House of Hanover.

As inhabitants of a town in the principal sea-port of Europe, we have long witnessed with admiration and gratitude, the patriotic exertions which your Majesty has incessantly made to advance and render more efficient the naval service of our country; and we feel no small degree of pride and of pleasure that this glorious bulwark of the nation should include in the number of her valorous sons so many of the native inhabitants of our town, and that a naval seminary, under the patronage of your Majesty, should have so long and so usefully existed amongst us.

With the sincerest professions of our loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, we unite in fervent prayer to the Supreme Disposer of all Events, that your Majesty's reign may be marked with prosperity and happiness, and that the peace and tranquillity of the empire may be permanently secured, that so your Majesty, with your Royal Consort, our most gracious Queen Adelaide, may long have the felicity of reigning in the affections of a loyal, happy, free, and enlightened people.

To His Most Excellent Majesty KING WILLIAM the FOURTH.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Common Council, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Cardigan, in the Guild Hall assembled, the 9th day of August 1830.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Common Council, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Cardigan, humbly beg leave to tender to your Majesty the expression of our sincere and heartfelt sympathy and condolence on the death of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, a Prince whose memory must ever be endeared to the heart of every Englishman, by the knowledge of his numerous personal virtues, and high qualifications, and by the recollection of the exalted pinnacle of glory and prosperity to which, under His Majesty's auspices, Great Britain has been elevated among the nations of the earth.

We beg, at the same time, to congratulate your Majesty on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these Realms, and to assure your Majesty of our devoted and lasting attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family, sensible, as we are, that the Members of the House of Brunswick, who have successively occupied the high station in which your Majesty is now placed, have ever evinced their ability to appreciate, and their disposition to confirm to their subjects, the blessings of that glorious Constitution which has proved to them a source of happiness and pride, and to surrounding nations an object of envy and admiration.

May your Majesty, with your august Consort, long continue in the uninterrupted enjoyment of health, happiness, and prosperity.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Vicar, Curate, Churchwardens, and other Inhabitants of the Town of New Windsor, in the County of Berks.

WE, the Vicar Curate, Churchwardens, and other Inhabitants of the Town of New Windsor, beg to approach your Majesty's Person with the heartfelt expression of those sentiments of pride and gratification with which we are filled at witnessing the arrival of your Majesty in Windsor Castle, the most venerable, beautiful, and magnificent of the palaces of the earth.

Within its precincts repose the ashes of our Kings, its venerable towers are hallowed in our affections as being coeval with the most classic periods of our history, its halls are filled with the records and emblems of our most glorious victories.

With the fondest recollection we revert to the time, not far remote, when our revered Monarch, George the Third, made Windsor Castle his favoured abode, exhibiting to his people the brightest and most affecting example of benignant regal sway, domestic purity and peace. With more chastened feelings do we now sorrowfully turn to the illustrious Sovereign so recently taken from us, through whose munificent patronage and refined taste this noble fabric was fast rising into more than pristine grandeur. Under your Majesty's most gracious auspices we anxiously anticipate the completion of this splendid edifice; then will the future historian, when he commemorates the glories of these reigns, so immortalized by their public monuments, point amongst the foremost to Windsor Castle, and the passing stranger from other lands, after he has visited our shores, and contemplated this, their noblest work, will spread throughout distant nations the renown of British magnificence.

In this truly regal abode of ancestral glory, possessed of domestic happiness and a nation's love, long may your Majesty continue to enjoy every blessing which this transitory life can bestow. For ourselves, free, loyal, and devoted, we shall ever look up to the Throne of our Constitutional King as the true palladium of our liberties, the basis and support of every order in society. To the Altar and the Throne shall we ever remain inviolably attached, in the firm persuasion, that whatever storms may darken the political horizon of our country, we may confidently rely upon these as the best anchors of our safety here, of our hope and happiness hereafter.

With every sentiment of loyalty, affection, and duty, we beg to subscribe ourselves your Majesty's most devoted and most faithful subjects and servants.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Reading, in the County of Berks.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Reading, in the County of Berks, beg leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere condolence on the demise of your Majesty's beloved Brother, our late most gracious Sovereign. It would be difficult for us to express in adequate language our feelings of gratitude for the many blessings enjoyed by this country during his happy and glorious reign, but chiefly that, after a series of victorious successes by His Majesty's arms, both by sea and land, unexampled in the history of the world, we have been favoured, under his auspices, by the establishment of an honourable, and we trust, a durable peace.

We congratulate your Majesty on your accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, and assure your Majesty of our devoted attachment to your Royal Person and Government always bearing in mind that the consolidation of our liberties, both civil and religious, as well as the high rank which our country has assumed and maintains amongst the Nations of Europe, have resulted from the principles which seated your illustrious Family on the Throne of these Realms.

We beg to be permitted to add our congratulation on the accession of your Majesty's Royal Consort the Queen, whose virtues we are persuaded will alleviate the labours of your exalted station, and contribute, in no small degree, to the splendour of your reign. With your Majesty's faithful subjects of every condition and class in society, we unite in fervent prayer, that it may please the Almighty to render your rule prosperous and happy, conducive as well to the honour and dignity of the Throne, as to the best interests and welfare of your people.

The humble Address of the United Brethren, in Great Britain and Ireland, in Union with the Protestant Episcopal Church, known by the name of Unitas Fratrum.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

PERMIT us, though constituting but a small community among your Majesty's subjects, to present our heartfelt congratulations on the joyful occasion of your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these Realms; while we also offer our sincere condolence on the bereavement your Majesty and the Nation have experienced, by the demise of your Royal Brother, our late beloved King and Sovereign.

It is both our religious duty, and our delightful privilege, to express to your Majesty that loyalty and attachment which have ever prevailed in our Church, towards those whom God has appointed to rule over us, and we pray Him to grant to your Majesty every temporal and spiritual benediction, that your reign may be long and prosperous, in the maintenance and exercise of true religion and piety, and that success may crown all your Majesty's councils and transactions for the good of this nation.

While we desire to leave to God's gracious providence to regulate the state and condition of the various classes of mankind, we consider it our duty to endeavour to promote the best interests of those to whom we have access, especially among the heathen in your Majesty's dominions. The experience of nearly a century has proved to us, that the simple preaching of the Gospel of God our Saviour, and of the Cross of Christ, is, through his blessing, made effective in rendering men, under all circumstances, happy and contented, peaceable and virtuous, and likewise capable of every moral and intellectual improvement. We, therefore, rest assured that, in these our humble efforts, we shall receive the same countenance and protection from your Majesty's Government in all places; which we most gratefully acknowledge to have hitherto enjoyed.

May the God of all grace shower down his choicest blessings upon your Majesty's beloved Consort, our gracious Queen, and grant you long to live together in the enjoyment of every felicity, as a blessing to your people, till, through the merits of Christ our Saviour, your Majesties shall exchange an earthly for a heavenly crown in the realms of eternal bliss.

We are, and ever shall remain, may it please your Majesty, most gracious Sovereign, your Majesty's most faithful and devoted servants and subjects.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Recorder, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of Pontefract, presume to approach the Throne, with our respectful condolence on the loss which it has pleased the Almighty to inflict upon your Majesty and the Nation, in the death of our late beloved Sovereign, George the Fourth.

Deeply impressed with the benefits which this country has derived in war and in peace, from the firm and benevolent sway of your Majesty's august Predecessor, and gratefully accepting your Majesty's promise, of governing these realms after the example of your illustrious Father and Brother, we pray God that he may give your Majesty length of years to add new strength to the ties which unite a loyal Nation to a Royal Race.

From the distinguished merits and excellencies of your Majesty's honoured Consort, we anticipate a happy influence upon society at large, in the increased lustre which the example of Her Majesty will shed upon the domestic virtues of the nation, and in the condescending kindness which marks your Majesty's intercourse with your people, we find the surest pledge, that your Majesty will seek in the hearts of your subjects the best and noblest support of the House of Brunswick.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects the Wardens and Elders of the Hebrew Congregation resident at Plymouth, beg leave to approach the Throne to offer to your Majesty the assurances of our loyalty and our attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family.

Sincerely do we condole with your Majesty on the loss which your Majesty, in common with the Nation, has sustained by the death of your beloved Brother, our late revered Monarch, and while we bow with humble resignation to the will of Providence, we rejoice in his goodness that, in the Person of your Majesty, he has granted us a Prince of the same illustrious Family to rule over us.

Permit us, Sire, on this momentous occasion to mingle our congratulations with those of our fellow countrymen on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these Realms, confident that they will continue to advance in glory and pre-eminence under your Majesty's paternal authority, and in assuring you of our most sincere devotion and attachment, we fervently pray that your Royal Person, and your illustrious Consort, the Queen, may long be spared, under Divine Providence, to be a blessing to an affectionate and loyal people.

Sire,

WE, the Mayor and Burgesses of the Borough of Christchurch, in the County of Southampton, and the Inhabitants of that Town and its Neighbourhood, beg leave, in all duty and humility, to lay before your Majesty our most respectful condolence on that afflicting dispensation of the Almighty, which, by calling from this mortal life his late most gracious Majesty, your Majesty's Royal Brother, has filled our hearts with the deepest sorrow and the most unfeigned regret. But whilst, under this most heavy grief, we bow with unrepining submission to the hand that inflicted it, we anxiously embrace that most efficient consolation afforded to us by your Majesty's virtues, by the gracious benignity of your disposition, by those eminent and amiable qualities in the character of your Royal Consort, Her Majesty the Queen, which command our highest respect and veneration, and by the active interest which your Majesty deigns to take in whatever contributes to the weal and to the happiness of those who live under the protection of your Sceptre.

That it may be the will of the Most High to grant that we may long enjoy the blessings of a wise and beneficent rule, and the maintenance of our laws, liberties, and religion, under the auspicious sway of the fifth Monarch of the illustrious House of Brunswick, is the ardent prayer, Sire, of your Majesty's most loyal, devoted, and dutiful subjects.

With these expressions of grief and condolence, we beg leave to join our tribute of cordial congratulation on your Majesty's happy accession to the Throne of this Realm, so long and so gloriously ruled by your Majesty's illustrious Ancestors.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin, deeply sympathising in the general sorrow which the death of our late lamented Sovereign has excited in the hearts of your faithful people, beg leave most humbly to express our condolence on that melancholy event. Whilst we contemplate with affectionate remembrance the various amiable qualities which distinguished the character of our beloved Monarch, and which his gracious condescension gave us an opportunity of personally witnessing, we cannot revert to the splendored events of his glorious reign, without devout gratitude to the Giver of all Good, whose Providence guided his councils and crowned his arms with success, unrivalled in the history of the world.

Permit us, illustrious Sire, with the most profound respect and homage, to offer to your Majesty our humble congratulations on your accession to the Throne of this Realm, and to express our earnest desire and hope, that every blessing which has been hitherto vouchsafed to your illustrious House, may equally attend your Majesty through a long and happy reign.

While we anticipate in your Majesty's exercise of your high office, those virtues which exalt the character of a Sovereign, we especially feel confident, that the interests of our most Holy Faith, shall find in your Majesty a zealous and effectual defender, and we humbly assure your Majesty, that as it is our first duty, so it shall be our uniform endeavour, to train up the youth committed to our care, in the acquirement of sound and solid learning, in loyal regard to their King and the Constitution of the Country, and in the principles of that pure religion, which, through the good Providence of God, has been established amongst us.

It is with unfeigned satisfaction that we behold in your Majesty's august Consort, not only the solace of your cares and the grace of your Court, but also an impressive example of those personal and domestic virtues which are essential to human happiness, alike in every diversity of rank and station.

That your Majesty may long continue to enjoy the highest reward which this life can afford a Monarch, in witnessing the growing prosperity of an attached and faithful people, is our most sincere and fervent supplication.

To His Most Gracious Majesty, WILLIAM the FOURTH, KING of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Lincoln, beg leave to approach your Majesty with the expression of our sincere condolence on the loss which your Majesty and these Realms have sustained by the death of our late lamented Sovereign.

We beg leave, at the same time, humbly to congratulate your Majesty on your accession to the Throne of your Ancestors; and to add to our congratulations the expression of the lively satisfaction which we have derived from your Majesty's gracious declaration, that you have succeeded, not only to the Crown formerly worn by your revered Father, but also to the affection and zeal for the Protestant Reformed Religion established by law, which, through a long and eventful reign, he uniformly manifested. The public declaration of your Majesty's intention to maintain that religion to the utmost of your power, cannot but excite in us the warmest feelings of gratitude, and stimulate us to use greater diligence in inculcating upon all with whose spiritual interests we are entrusted, those principles of true religion, to the influence of which, under the Divine Blessing, your Majesty has so justly ascribed the present happiness and glory of this United Kingdom. We beg leave respectfully to assure your Majesty, that while we feel it our bounden duty steadily to maintain and earnestly to inculcate the doctrines of our pure and Apostolic Church, we feel it equally our duty to maintain and inculcate them in the spirit of meekness and charity towards those who differ from us; and carefully to avoid all language which can tend to revive former animosities on account of religious distinctions.

That, through the protection of the Supreme Disposer of all events, your Majesty may be long preserved to reign over the people of these realms, and to witness the continual improvement of their temporal condition, and their continual advancement in piety and virtue, is the sincere prayer of your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects.

THE following is a copy of an Order of His Majesty in Council, assigning a district, under 16th section of 59 Geo. 3, c. 134, to the chapel at Low Harrogate, in the parish of Pannal:

At the Court at St. James's, the 19th of July 1830, present, the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," it is amongst other things enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act, shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his or their consent, to make such division, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto, under his or their hand and seal, and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments, which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain, and be within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if thereupon His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;" And whereas by the said Act it is further enacted "that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish or extra parochial place into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the Bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendance of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein, the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division:" And whereas by an Act passed in the 59th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session.

of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," and by another Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect; and whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to His Majesty in Council, stating that in the year 1821, when the last census was taken, the parish of Pannal, in the county and diocese of York, contained a population of 1314 persons, which has since considerably increased, that there is besides the parish church, one chapel, which is situate at Low Harrowgate, in the said parish; that the parish church affords accommodation for 250 persons, and the said chapel at Low Harrowgate for 800 persons, and divine service is regularly performed therein; that the said Commissioners have further represented to His Majesty, that having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the said last-mentioned chapel, under the provisions of the 16th section of an Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes;" and that christenings and churchings should be performed therein, but that the whole of the legal fees and dues should be reserved to the incumbent for the time being of the said parish church of Pannal; and that such district should be named the district of Low Harrowgate, with boundaries as follows: the boundary to commence at a certain spring called Cold Well, and to proceed in a direct line in an eastwardly direction, crossing the Knaresbro' and Otley road, to a certain stone called Gam's Gate; and from thence north easterly, crossing the Leeds and Ripon turnpike road, to an ancient spring called Tewitt Well, on Harrowgate-common, thence southwardly down a small watercourse called Hewkstone Beck, until it crosses the road from Pannal to Knaresbro', called the Lime-road or Lead-lane (which above described line is the boundary between the townships of Bilton with Harrowgate and the parish of Pannal); from the intersection of Hewkstone Beck with Lead-lane or Lime-road, the boundary proceeds south westwardly up the said road to Rosset-green; thence north westwardly up Green-lane to Pannal High Ash; thence south westwardly down the centre of the road to Lund's-green; from thence up the centre of the road in a northerly, westwardly, and north westerly direction to the Otley and Knaresbro' road, up the said road to the intersection of the Ripley and Otley road; thence northwardly up the said road to Ockbeck; thence down Ockbeck past Irongate-bridge to the point where the township of Bilton with Harrowgate, the parish of Ripley, and parish of Pannal meet; thence in a south westwardly direction to the Springhead of Low Harrowgate Beck (following the boundary of Pannal parish and Bilton with Harrowgate township); then down the said Beck or Runner to Cold Well Beck in Low Harrowgate; and from thence up the said Beck to the Cold Well Spring, from whence the boundary commenced, which boundaries are more particularly described in the plan hereunto annexed: that the consent of his Grace the Lord Archbishop of York has been obtained thereto as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third; and humbly praying, that His Majesty would be graciously pleased to take the premises into his royal consideration, and to make such order therein as to His Majesty shall seem meet; His Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed division be accordingly made and effected, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.
