By the KING.
A PROCLAMATION.

WILLIAM, R.

WHEREAS by the advice of Our Council, We did ordain a certain Parliament to be holden at Our City of Westminster, on Tuesday the fourteenth day of September next; We, with the advice of our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that Our said Parliament shall be prorogued, from the said fourteenth day of September next, to Tuesday the twenty-sixth day of October next; and We have given order to Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a writ patent for proroguing the same accordingly; and We do further hereby, with the advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, that the said Parliament shall, on the said twenty-sixth day of October next, be held and sit for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said twenty-sixth day of October next.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the twenty-sixth day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty, and in the first year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

(An alphabetical and numbered List of the Addresses presented to His Majesty, is printed at the end of the Addresses.)

Whitehall, September 7, 1830.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir Robert Peel, Bart. one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

No. 1.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Sire,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of the County Palatine of Durham, assembled at a general meeting, convened by the High Sheriff, on the 26th day of August 1830, pursuant to public notice, beg leave to approach your Majesty with expressions of the deep regret we feel at the loss of a Sovereign, whose Government was distinguished by a triumphant display of the energies of this country in its conflict with foreign Powers.

We still more deplore our bereavement, when we reflect that His late Majesty consented to extend to all classes of his subjects those civil and religious liberties which legitimately result from that Constitution which the House of Brunswick have laboured to protect.

We entreat your Majesty to accept the assurances of our genuine sympathy in your Majesty's private affliction, and in the shock which your Majesty's fraternal feelings have sustained.

It is, however, with equal sincerity, and with perfect confidence, that we hail your Majesty's accession to the Throne.
