THE following Address from the Mayor and Burgesses of the Borough of Derby, was this day by James Hudson, Esq. Secretary to Earl Howe, presented to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously :

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Borough of Derby, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and affectionate subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Brethren, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Derby, in Common Council assembled, while with feelings of deep regret and sorrow we sympathize in the grief occasioned by the late afflictive dispensation of Providence, the death of our late beloved Sovereign, George the Fourth, whose mild and equal rule will be ever gratefully remembered by his people, we beg leave to express our most heartfelt joy, on your Majesty being ordained by Providence to share the honours of the British Crown, by your happy accession to the Throne of these Realms. We do, with that zeal and sincerity which characterize this nation, humbly assure your Majesty, that as the many virtues and amiable endowments which your Majesty possesses in so eminent a degree, cannot fail to bless our beloved Sovereign with every domestic happiness, so will they ever endear your Majesty to a people not more distinguished for their love of liberty, than for their inviolable loyalty and gratitude to those Princes from whom they derive prosperity and protection.

Long may your Majesty live to share the felicity you are formed to inspire, and may there never be wanting one of the august House of Brunswick to sway the British Sceptre.

Given under the common seal of the Borough of Derby, the 18th day of August 1830.

Wm. L. Newton, Mayor.

By the KING.
