(An alphabetical and numbered List of the Addresses presented to His Majesty, is printed at the end of the Addresses.)

Whitehall, September 21, 1830.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir Robert Peel, Bart. one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously :

No. 1.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the undersigned Magistrates, Clergy, Bankers, Merchants, Manufacturers, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Birmingham, earnestly desire to offer to your Majesty an expression of our sincere and dutiful condolence in the affliction so recently sustained by your Royal House, on the demise of your Majesty's illustrious and lamented Brother, our late gracious Sovereign, George the Fourth.

Justly sensible of the excellence of a form of government which binds together the people of these realms in a feeling of common interest, in whatever relates to their Sovereign, we beg most respectfully and cordially to congratulate your Majesty on your accession to the Throne of your Ancestors ; and humbly pray that He by whom Kings reign may vouchsafe to bestow upon your Majesty, and your Royal Consort, health and length of days, the inestimable blessings of domestic happiness, and the affectionate attachment of loyal, happy, and united subjects.

We entreat your Majesty to accept these our fervent wishes for your welfare, and to receive the assurance of our deep and cherished hope, that the British Sceptre may be swayed uninterruptedly by Princes of your Royal House, under whose auspices this empire has been so eminently distinguished for the maintenance of its freedom, and the advancement of its prosperity.

No. 2.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, Commonalty, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Bedford, beg leave most humbly to present to your gracious Majesty the sincere and heartfelt expression of our condolence at the heavy loss which these Realms have sustained, by the demise of our late revered and beloved Sovereign, who, for a long series of years, as our Regent and King, under Divine Providence, directing his councils and the energies of his brave fleets and armies, secured to his dominions the invaluable blessings of peace, we earnestly implore the King of Kings and God of Peace to continue to your Majesty the same Divine protection, so that you may long reign in health and happiness over your loyal and dutiful subjects, and see them flourish as a nation, grateful to Heaven for the constitutional rights which they have inherited, and which it is the glory and delight of your Majesty's august family to protect and to cherish.

We also beg to express our sincere and ardent wishes and prayers, that Heaven may extend to our gracious Queen Adelaide, your Majesty's Royal and beloved Consort, the same providential care, so that your Majesty may be blessed in beholding the uninterrupted health and happiness of her who is most nearly connected with you ; at the same time that you witness the prosperity and security of those sub-
