The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1830.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, September 30, 1830.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 27th of October next, on Wednesday the 3d, and on Wednesday the 10th of November next, each day at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE KING'S LEVEES, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend the Levee to be held on Wednesday the 27th of October next, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the King's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to His Majesty. And those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Gentleman who is to present them (not the Lord in Waiting), should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, before twelve o'clock on Monday the 25th of October next, in order that they may be submitted for the King's approbation, it being His Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter be made at the Levee, but in conformity with the above regulations.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

Those Gentlemen who are to be presented at the Levee, on Wednesday the 3d of November next are to send their names to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, according to the above regulations, before twelve o'clock on Monday the 1st of November.

Those Gentlemen who are to be presented at the Levee, on Wednesday the 10th of November next, are to send their names to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, according to the above regulations, before twelve o'clock on Monday the 8th of November.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

WILLIAM, R.

WHEREAS by the advice of Our Council, We did ordain a certain Parliament to be holden at Our City of Westminster, on Tuesday the fourteenth day of September next; We, with the advice of our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that Our said Parliament shall be prorogued, from the said fourteenth day of September next, to Tuesday the twenty-sixth day of October next; and We have given order to Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a writ patent for proroguing the same accordingly; and We do further hereby, with the advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, that the said Parliament shall, on the said twenty-sixth day of October next, be held and sit for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said twenty-sixth day of October next.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the twenty-sixth day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty, and in the first year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 28th day of June 1830,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the training and regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewartry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewartry or stewartries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas it is deemed expedient, that such training or exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended; and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 28th day of June 1830,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot "or enrolment for the local militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place, but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order in Council, and from time to time by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension as long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding; and whereas by an Order in Council, made the sixteenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, it was ordered by His late Majesty in Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia should take place for the space of one year from the said sixteenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, but that the ballot or enrolment should remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from the said sixteenth day of July; and whereas it is deemed expedient to continue such suspension of the ballot and enrolment for the local militia for the space of one year from the sixteenth day of July next; it is, therefore, ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place for the space of one year from the sixteenth day of July next, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia do remain and continue suspended, from and after the sixteenth day of July next, for the space of one year.

Jas. Buller.

Whitehall, October 18, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Tuesday the 5th day of October instant, between the hours of eight and ten o'clock, the barns and corn stacks belonging to the Reverend ——— Price, of Lyminge, in the county of Kent, were wilfully and maliciously set on fire and destroyed by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said property) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

ROBERT PEEL.

Whitehall, October 15, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that several individuals, walking singly in the evening, have recently been stopped and robbed on the roads leading from Liverpool to West Derby; that on the evening of Saturday the 9th of October instant, Mr. Charles Burns was attacked, and, on his attempting to escape, was fired at and mortally wounded, and is since dead; and that on the same evening another individual was attacked and robbed by three men;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the murder before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired at the said Mr. Charles Burns) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by the Overseers of West Derby, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, October 18, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Monday the 11th day of October instant, between the hours of eleven and twelve, a wheat stack, situate in a farm called Lowlands, in the parish of Hadlow, near Tunbridge, in the county of Kent, was wilfully and maliciously set on fire and entirely consumed by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stack) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by Mr. Thomas Carnell, Solicitor, Town Malling.

Admiralty-Office, September 21, 1830.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the trial of offences committed on the High Seas within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-Hall, in the Old Bailey, London, on Monday the 25th of October next, at eight o'clock in the morning:

And all Sheriffs, Gaolers, and Keepers of Prisons, in whose custody any prisoners, charged with offences committed on the High Seas, or within the said jurisdiction, may be, are hereby required to transmit a copy of the commitment of every such prisoner to Mr. Charles Jones, the Solicitor of the Admiralty, at his Office, No. 10, Lancaster-place, Strand, London, in order that the necessary measures may be taken, for removing all such prisoners to His Majesty's Gaol of Newgate, for trial at the said intended session. And all Mayors, Justices, Coroners, and other Officers, before whom any inquisitions, informations, examinations, or recognizances may have been taken touching any such offences, are required to transmit the same forthwith to Mr. John Clark, the Clerk of Arraignment of the High Court of Admiralty of England, at his Office, at the Sessions-house, in the Old Bailey, London.

J. W. Croker.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act for opening and forming a new road or street, commencing at or near to the centre of Holborn-bridge, within the city of London, and passing thence in a northerly direction, and terminating at Clerkenwell-green, within the county of Middlesex; which said road or street will pass through or into the several parishes of Saint Sepulchre and Saint Andrew, in the city of London, and of Saint Sepulchre, Saint Andrew, Saint John Clerkenwell, the liberty of Saffron-hill, and Saint James Clerkenwell, in the county of Middlesex; and that it is intended to take power by such Act for the purchase and sale of the several messuages, tenements, and hereditaments on the line of the said intended road or street, for the purposes of the said Act.

W. C. Bousfield, Solicitor.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by an indenture, bearing date the 6th day of October instant, Joseph Nixon, of Tipton, in the County of Stafford, Ironmonger, Oil and Colourman, hath assigned all his personal estate and effects whatsoever to Charles Williams, of Warwick-Street, Bordesley, in the Parish of Aston, in the County of Warwick, Coffin-Furniture-Manufacturer and Brass-Founder, and Thomas Perkins, of the Bull-Ring, in the Town of Birmingham, in the said County of Warwick, Brush-Maker, upon trust, for the equal benefit of all the Creditors of him the said Joseph Nixon; and that the said indenture was duly executed by the said Joseph Nixon, Charles Williams, and Thomas Perkins respectively, on the said 6th day of October, in the presence of and attested by Francis Woodward, of Wednesbury, in the said County of Stafford, Solicitor. The said deed of assignment now lies at my Office, in Wednesbury aforesaid, for execution by the Creditors of the said Joseph Nixon; and such of the Creditors as shall not execute the same, or otherwise signify their consent to accept the benefit thereof, in full discharge of their respective debts, on or before the 15th day of November next, will be excluded the benefit of the same.—Wednesbury October 15, 1830.

THE Creditors of James Long, late of Manchester, in the County Palatine of Lancaster, Saddler, who have duly executed his assignment may receive a second and final dividend of one shilling and four-pence in the pound, by applying to Mr. John Curtis, 21, Withy-Grove, Manchester, one of the Assignees of the said James Long's estate.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Ledden, of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Thursday the 11th day of November next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Messrs. Atkinson and Birch, Solicitors, in Norfolk-Street, in Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, in order to assent to or dissent from the Assignees, at the risk and expence of the said Bankrupt's estate, making, executing, and sending out a power of attorney to such person or persons in North America as they may think proper, containing all necessary powers and authorities to collect and get in all and every the outstanding debts due and owing to the said Bankrupt, and to collect the rents, and to sell and dispose of, either by public auction or private contract, and in one or more lot or lots, of all and singular the real and personal estate and effects whatsoever of him the said Bankrupt, situate and being in North America aforesaid, and either for ready money or upon credit, with or without taking security for the payment of the purchase moneys as shall seem expedient, with power to buy in and resell the said estate and effects, or any part thereof, and grant time for payment, or compound for or take less than the whole in full satisfaction and discharge of any debt which may be deemed doubtful or desperate, or accept and take goods in payment of the same and convert such goods into money; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees themselves selling and disposing, in manner, and upon the terms aforesaid, of all or any part of the said Bankrupt's freehold or personal estate and effects, and to settle and agree with any person having, or claiming any liens or mortgages upon all or any part of the said Bankrupt's real or personal estate and effects, upon such terms and conditions as they the said Assignees shall think proper; and also to the Assignees filing, bringing, commencing, presenting and prosecuting, at the risk and expence of the said Bankrupt's estate, any bill in Chancery, action at law, or petition in Bankruptcy against certain persons, who will be named at such meeting, for the recovery of any debt or debts, property or effects due and owing to or of and belonging to the said Bankrupt's estate, from or possessed by them, or any of them, and afterwards to cause such proceedings, or any of them, to be dismissed, discontinued, or abandoned, or become nonsuit therein, upon such terms and conditions, or otherwise as they the said Assignees shall think fit, or to submit the claims upon such persons so to be named as aforesaid, or any of them, to arbitration, or otherwise settle the same as they the said Assignees shall think fit; and also to assent to the said Assignees employing an accountant to investigate and arrange the accounts and affairs of the said Bankrupt, and allowing and paying to such accountant such remuneration for his services as they the said Assignees shall think proper; and upon other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Wilson, of Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, Commission Agent, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 10th day of November next, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Offices of Mr. Monk, Solicitor, King-Street, in Manchester aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the ratifying and confirming of certain acts of the said Assignees, to be stated at such meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of all or any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, either by public auction or private contract, and either altogether, or in parcels, at such time or times, to such person or persons, at such price or prices, and either for ready money or on credit, and if on credit to take such security or securities for payment thereof as to the said Assignees may seem meet or advisable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing and prosecuting or defending such actions, suits, or other proceedings at law or in equity, as it may appear to them necessary to commence and prosecute, or defend against certain persons, to be named at such meeting, and submitting to arbitration, compounding or settling certain debts, accounts, differences and disputes, to be stated at such meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees appointing, at the risk and expence of the said Bankrupt's estate, agents or correspondents abroad, or in parts beyond seas, to recover, collect, and get in certain property, part of the said Bankrupt's estate, and to remit the same to the said Assignees, and to empower the said Assignees to act generally in relation to the said Bankrupt's estate as they may think advisable; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Charles Smith and George Arnold, of the White Lion Inn, in the City of Bath, in the County of Somerset, Innholders, Copartners, Dealers and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on Wednesday the 10th of November next, at the White Lion Inn, in the City of Bath, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing such person or persons as they may think fit to make up, settle and adjust the books and accounts of the said Bankrupts, and to collect and receive the debts and effects belonging to the said estate, and making or allowing to such person or persons respectively, out of the said Bankrupt's estate, such remuneration in respect of his or their services as to the said Assignees may seem just; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of all and every or any the household goods and furniture, stock in trade, and other chattels, effects, and property whatsoever of the said Bankrupts, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, and at any valuation made or to be made thereof, or of any part thereof, or otherwise to any and such person or persons as shall be willing to become the purchaser or purchasers thereof, or of any part thereof, either for ready money or upon credit, and on such security or terms of payment as they shall think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees carrying on the business of the said White Lion Inn and premises, for such time as they may think advisable for the benefit of the said estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, or other proceedings, for the recovery or protection of any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any debt, matter or thing relating thereto; and generally to authorise and empower the said Assignees to act for the benefit of the Creditors of the said Bankrupts, in such manner as the said Assignees may think advisable, and to indemnify them against the consequences thereof; and other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Eliza M'Glice and Anne Wakefield, both of Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, Milliners, Fancy Dress-Makers, Dealers, Chapwomen and Copartners, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, on Thursday the 11th day of November next, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Offices of Mr. Monk, Solicitor, in King-Street, in Manchester aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the ratifying and confirming of certain acts of the said Assignees, to be stated at such meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees continuing and carrying on the trade or business of the said Bankrupts, for such time, and in such manner as will be stated at such meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees engaging or employing for that purpose such servant or servants, assistant or assistants, as they may deem necessary and proper, and paying to such servants or assistants such salaries or wages as they may deem reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees making to the said Bankrupts, or either of them, such allowance in money as will be stated at such meeting, for services rendered by them, or either of them, for the benefit of the said estate, since the opening of the said Commission; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of, by public auction or private contract, and either altogether or in parcels; at such time or times, to such person or persons, at such price or prices, and either for ready money or on credit, and if on credit, to take such security or securities for payment thereof as to the said Assignees may appear advisable, all or any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, and particularly a certain debt or sum of money owing to the said Assignees by a certain person, to be named at such meeting; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Handley, of Birmingham, in the County of Warwick, Wholesale Saddler and Army-Accoutrement-Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman, dated the 11th day of September last, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 9th day of November next, at Eleven in the Forenoon precisely, at the Royal Hotel; in Temple-Row, in Birmingham aforesaid, in order to assent to, or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing, either by public auction or private contract, or in such manner, at such price or prices, and upon such terms as the said Assignees may consider most beneficial of the freehold and leasehold estates of the said Bankrupt, or of the equity of redemption therein, and also of the household furniture, stock in trade, and other the personal estate and effects of the said Bankrupt whatsoever, with power to buy in the same, without being answerable for any loss or expence which may be incurred by any future sale or sales, and in case of a sale or sales, to execute all necessary conveyances, assignments, receipts, and assurances, and do all other necessary acts to carry the same into effect; and also to the said Assignees compounding with any debtor or debtors of the said Bankrupt's estate, and taking any reasonable part of the debt or debts in discharge of the whole, or giving time, or taking security for the payment of such debt or debts; or submitting any dispute or difference which may arise between the said Assignees and any person, concerning any matter relating to such Bankrupt's estate, to arbitration; and also to the said Assignees commencing and prosecuting, compromising or defending any action or actions, or suit or suits, at law or in equity, or petitions in bankruptcy, for the recovery, protection, or defence of the estate or effects of the said Bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing an accountant or other person or persons in and about the settlement of the said Bankrupt's affairs, and in collecting the outstanding debts due to the said Bankrupt's estate; and to empower the said Assignees, to pay and allow to such accountant, or other person or persons, any reasonable sum or sums of money, by way of salary or otherwise; and generally to authorise and empower the said Assignees to adopt such measures for the management and settlement of the said Bankrupt's estate and affairs, as to them in their discretion shall seem most beneficial or expedient; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed;

"and no Docket shall be struck upon such act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 18th day of October 1830, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by WILLIAM THOMAS, of High Holborn, Linen-Draper, that he is insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

And on the 19th day of October 1830, by
