

land, spinster, deceased, bearing date the 23d of October 1828:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Commissions in the North Somerset Regiment of Yeomanry Cavalry, signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Somerset.

Robert Austin Langworthy, Gent. to be Lieutenant. Dated 22d September 1830.

Thomas Davis, Gent. to be Cornet. Dated 29th September 1830.

Whitehall, October 11, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Thursday the 30th day of September last, a dwelling-house at Knowstone, in the county of Devon, in the occupation of Abraham Cockram, labourer, the property of Robert George Throckmorton, Esq. was wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by Mr. William Leigh, of Bardon, Somerset, the Steward of the said Robert George Throckmorton, Esq.

Whitehall, October 11, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Tuesday the 5th day of October instant, between the hours of eight and ten o'clock, the barns and corn stacks belonging to the Reverend ——— Price, of Lyminge, in the county of Kent, were wilfully and maliciously set on fire and destroyed by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said property) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

ROBERT PEEL.

Whitehall, October 15, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that several individuals, walking singly in the evening, have recently been stopped and robbed on the roads leading from Liverpool to West Derby; that on the evening of Saturday the 9th of October instant, Mr. Charles Burns was attacked, and, on his attempting to escape, was fired at and mortally wounded, and is since dead; and that on the same evening another individual was attacked and robbed by three men;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the murder before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired at the said Mr. Charles Burns) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by the Overseers of West Derby, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, October 18, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Monday the 11th day of October instant, between the hours of eleven and twelve, a wheat stack, situate in a farm called Lowlands, in the parish of Hadlow, near Tunbridge, in the county of Kent, was wilfully and maliciously set on fire and entirely consumed by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stack) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by Mr. Thomas Carnell, Solicitor, Town Malling.
