

Admiralty-Office, September 21, 1830.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the trial of offences committed on the High Seas within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-Hall, in the Old Bailey, London, on Monday the 25th of October next, at eight o'clock in the morning:

And all Sheriffs, Gaolers, and Keepers of Prisons, in whose custody any prisoners, charged with offences committed on the High Seas, or within the said jurisdiction, may be, are hereby required to transmit a copy of the commitment of every such prisoner to Mr. Charles Jones, the Solicitor of the Admiralty, at his Office, No. 10, Lancaster-place, Strand, London, in order that the necessary measures may be taken, for removing all such prisoners to His Majesty's Gaol of Newgate, for trial at the said intended session. And all Mayors, Justices, Coroners, and other Officers, before whom any inquisitions, informations, examinations, or recognizances may have been taken touching any such offences, are required to transmit the same forthwith to Mr. John Clark, the Clerk of Arraigns of the High Court of Admiralty of England, at his Office, at the Sessions-house, in the Old Bailey, London.

J. W. Croker.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act for opening and forming a new road or street, commencing at or near to the centre of Holborn-bridge, within the city of London, and passing thence in a northerly direction, and terminating at Clerkenwell-green, within the county of Middlesex; which said road or street will pass through or into the several parishes of Saint Sepulchre and Saint Andrew, in the city of London, and of Saint Sepulchre, Saint Andrew, Saint John Clerkenwell, the liberty of Saffron-hill, and Saint James Clerkenwell, in the county of Middlesex; and that it is intended to take power by such Act for the purchase and sale of the several messuages, tenements, and hereditaments on the line of the said intended road or street, for the purposes of the said Act.

W. C. Bousfield, Solicitor.

12, Chatham-place, Blackfriars,
October 13, 1830.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act for repairing, widening, and improving Dean-street, in the parishes of Saint Margaret and Saint John the Evangelist, or one of them, in the city of Westminster and county of Middlesex; and for making a new road, to commence at or near the eastern end of Orchard-street, in the said parishes of Saint Margaret and Saint John the Evangelist, or one of them, and to pass from thence to a part of the Horseferry-road, in the said parish of Saint John the Evangelist, which is opposite, or nearly opposite, to Carey-street there; and also for repairing, widening, and improving

Great Peter-street, in the said parish of Saint John the Evangelist; and also for making a new road, to commence at or near the western end of Great Peter-street aforesaid, in the said parish of Saint John the Evangelist, and to pass from thence to a part of the Vauxhall-bridge-road, in the parish of Saint George, Hanover-square, in the said city and county, which is opposite, or nearly opposite, to the Royal Standard Hotel there; and for the purposes aforesaid, or some of them, it is intended to take certain messuages, buildings, gardens, lands, and hereditaments lying within the said several parishes, or some or one of them; and it is also intended to take power by the said Act to raise money for the purposes aforesaid, by levying a rate or rates, assessment or assessments, upon the inhabitants of the said several parishes who are likely to be benefitted by the said improvements and new roads, or to raise such money by some other means to be provided for by such Act.

*Baker and Hodgson, 52, Lincoln's-inn-fields,
Solicitors for the Bill.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to enable the Trustees appointed under or by virtue of an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for building a crypt and tower to the additional church erecting in the parish of Saint Mary Magdalen, Bermondsey, in the county of Surrey; for vesting the said church and the burial-ground thereof in Trustees; and for other purposes relating thereto;" to raise the further sum of three thousand pounds on loan at interest or by way of annuity, to defray the outstanding claims in respect of the said church (now called Saint James's Church), and the tower and burial-ground thereof; and to increase the rate or rates authorised to be made by the aove-recited Act, not exceeding two pence in the pound per year beyond the annual sum thereby authorised.
