

hours of eleven and twelve, a wheat stack, situate in a farm called Lowlands, in the parish of Hadlow, near Tunbridge, in the county of Kent, was wilfully and maliciously set on fire and entirely consumed by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stack) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by Mr. Thomas Carnell, Solicitor, Town Malling.

Admiralty-Office, September 21, 1830.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the trial of offences committed on the High Seas within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-Hall, in the Old Bailey, London, on Monday the 25th of October next, at eight o'clock in the morning:

And all Sheriffs, Gaolers, and Keepers of Prisons, in whose custody any prisoners, charged with offences committed on the High Seas, or within the said jurisdiction, may be, are hereby required to transmit a copy of the commitment of every such prisoner to Mr. Charles Jones, the Solicitor of the Admiralty, at his Office, No. 10, Lancaster-place, Strand, London, in order that the necessary measures may be taken, for removing all such prisoners to His Majesty's Gaol of Newgate, for trial at the said intended session. And all Mayors, Justices, Coroners, and other Officers, before whom any inquisitions, informations, examinations, or recognizances may have been taken touching any such offences, are required to transmit the same forthwith to Mr. John Clark, the Clerk of Arraignment of the High Court of Admiralty of England, at his Office, at the Sessions-house, in the Old Bailey, London.

J. W. Croker.

Guildhall, London, October 13, 1830.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to empower the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, to borrow and raise a sum of money for the repairing and maintaining of Blackfriars-bridge, in the parish of Saint Anne, Blackfriars, in the city of London, and abutting at the south end thereof on the parish of Christ Church, in the county of Surrey; or to authorise the levying a toll upon all horses, carriages, and cattle passing over the said bridge, and to borrow money on the credit of the said toll for repairing and maintaining the same; and also to empower the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons to embank, or to authorise and permit the embanking, the shores or banks of the River Thames, on both sides thereof, within the jurisdiction of the city of London, which extends from Yantlet Creek, in the county of Kent, to Staines, in the county of Middlesex, and is within the said city of London and county of Middlesex, the several counties of Surrey, Kent, and Essex, and the borough of Southwark, and to apply the proceeds thereof towards the expences of repairing and maintaining Blackfriars-bridge aforesaid, and for other improvements within the said city of London.

T. Tyrrell, City Remembrancer.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for incorporating or establishing a Company, to be called "The General Cemetery Company," for the purpose of forming additional burial ground or cemeteries in the vicinity of the metropolis, in the counties of Middlesex and Surrey, or either of them, and in such places elsewhere, within the United Kingdom, as to the said Company may seem expedient; and it is also intended to take power by the said Act to authorise the said Company to purchase and hold lands for the purposes of the said Act.

Charles Broughton Bowman, Solicitor, No. 18, Milk-street, Cheapside.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act for opening and forming a new road or street, commencing at or near to the centre of Holborn-bridge, within the city of London, and passing thence in a northerly direction, and terminating at Clerkenwell-green, within the county of Middlesex; which said road or street will pass through or into the several parishes of Saint Sepulchre and Saint Andrew, in the city of London, and of Saint Sepulchre, Saint Andrew, Saint John Clerkenwell, the liberty of Saffron-hill, and Saint James Clerkenwell, in the county of Middlesex; and that it is intended to take power by such Act for the purchase and sale of the several messuages, tenements, and hereditaments on the line of the said intended road or street, for the purposes of the said Act.
