

in trade, good-will, patterns and possession thereof, and all other the personal estate and effects of the said Bankrupt to any person or persons whomsoever, either by public auction and private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, either in the usual course of trade, or in such lots and manner at such times and places, and at such price or prices, either for ready money or on credit, (and, if on credit, to take such security or securities for payment of the amount thereof as they shall think proper,) and to ratify, confirm and allow all sales of such part of the said Bankrupt's stock in trade as shall at the time of such meeting have been made by the said Assignees; also to direct and order the repayment out of the said Bankrupt's estate to the said Assignees of all such sum and sums of money as they shall have advanced and paid in and about the finishing and working up of certain goods, part of the stock of the said Bankrupt, by them since sold; and to the said Assignees paying and allowing to the several clerks and workmen who have been employed by them in the finishing and working up of such part of the said goods and stock as shall at the time of such meeting have been finished, such wages and allowance as to the said Assignees shall seem reasonable and proper; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing an accountant or such other person as they shall think desirable to investigate the books and make up the accounts of the said Bankrupt, and to collect and get in all or any of the outstanding debts and other effects due, owing, or belonging to the said Bankrupt's estate, and to the paying or allowing such accountant or other person for the same out of the said Bankrupt's estate such sum or sums of money as they shall think proper; and further to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying or allowing the Solicitor under the said Commission his bill of costs for recovering possession of the property removed and concealed by the said Bankrupt, and in endeavouring to arrest him when he absconded, and previously to the opening of the said Commission; and likewise to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting or defending any other action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, which may be necessary for the recovery, defence or protection of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; or to the compounding or otherwise agreeing to any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed: and no Docket shall be struck upon such act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that Declarations were filed on the 21st day of October 1830, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by HUGH EASTMAN the younger, of No. 2, Rood-Lane, Fenchurch-Street, London, and also of No. 6, Homerton-Terrace, Hackney, in the County of Middlesex, Broker, Dealer and Chapman, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

WILLIAM HENRY DIXON, of No. 43, Seymour-Street, Euston-Square, in the County of Middlesex, Master Mariner, Lodging-House-Keeper, Dealer and Chapman, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

PURSUANT to an Order made by the Right Honourable John Singleton Lord Lyndhurst, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, for Enlarging the Time for William Handley, of Birmingham, in the County of Warwick, Wholesale Saddler and Army Accoutrement-Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman (a Bankrupt), to surrender himself and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects, for one calendar month, to be computed from the 26th day of October instant; this is to give notice, that the Commissioners in the said Commission named and authorised, or the major part of them, intend to meet on the 26th day of November next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Royal Hotel, in Temple-Row, in Birmingham aforesaid; where the said Bankrupt is required to surrender himself, between the hours of Eleven and One of the Clock of the same day, and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects, and finish his examination; and the Creditors, who have not already proved their debts, may then and there come and prove the same, and assent to or dissent from the allowance of his certificate.

WHEREAS a Commission of Bankrupt, bearing date on or about the 8th day of September 1830, was awarded and issued forth against William Woodrow, of West Coker, in the County of Somerset, Draper, Shopkeeper, Dealer and Chapman; this is to give notice, that the said Commission is, under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, superseded.

WHEREAS a Commission of Bankrupt is awarded and issued forth against George Atkin, of the Fox and French Horn, Clerkenwell-Green, in the County of Middlesex, Victualler, and he being declared a Bankrupt is hereby required to surrender himself to the Commissioners in the said Commission named, or the major part of them, on the 29th day of October instant, on the 5th day of November next, at Two in the Afternoon precisely, and on the 3d day of December following, at Three in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects, when and where the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their debts, and at the second sitting to choose Assignees, and at the last sitting the said Bankrupt is required to finish his examination, and the Creditors are to assent to or dissent from the allowance of his certificate. All persons indebted to the said Bankrupt, or that have any of his effects, are not to pay or deliver the same but to whom the Commissioners shall appoint, but give notice to Mr. Wright, Solicitor, Bucklersbury.

WHEREAS a Commission of Bankrupt is awarded and issued forth against John Boraman, of No. 30, Store-Street, Bedford-Square, in the County of Middlesex, Butcher, Dealer and Chapman, and he being declared a Bankrupt is hereby required to surrender himself to the Commissioners in the said Commission named, or the major part of them, on the 29th day of October instant, at Eleven in the Forenoon, on the 5th day of November next, at Twelve at Noon, and on the 3d day of December following, at One of the Clock in the Afternoon, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects; when and where the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their debts, and at the second sitting to choose Assignees, and at the last sitting the said Bankrupt is required to finish his examination, and the Creditors are to assent to or dissent from the allowance of his certificate. All persons indebted to the said Bankrupt, or that have any of his effects, are not to pay or deliver the same but to whom the Commissioners shall appoint, but give notice to Mr. Pollock, Solicitor, 8, Basinghall-Street.
