

your accession to the Throne of your illustrious Ancestors, and to express our earnest desire and prayer to God that your Majesty may be endowed with wisdom and grace, that your reign, being distinguished by righteousness and the fear of the Lord, may be long and prosperous,—that the King of kings may ever extend peace to our land, and spread far and wide the benign influence of the Gospel of our God and Saviour.

The zeal your Majesty has publicly manifested for the interests of religion among your subjects, and the maintenance of pure morality in your Court, fills our minds with sincere joy, as laying a sure ground of hope that, during your Majesty's reign, "Righteousness shall exalt our nation."

We beg leave to assure your Majesty that we shall continue to inculcate on the people committed to our care a steady adherence to the British Constitution; due obedience to the laws; loyalty to your Majesty's Person and Government,—charity and brotherly kindness to all men.

Signed by order of Synod, this 15th day of October 1830.

Robert M'Meehan, Moderator, near Tandragee.

[Transmitted by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.]

To the KING.

Sire,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Anglesey, beg to approach your Majesty with an expression of our sincere condolence on the decease of our late King, your Royal Brother.

Identifying, as we do, the best interest of this great Empire with the personal character of our Sovereign, we cannot but feel that the protection heretofore afforded to all classes of your Majesty's subjects, will find no abatement in the change which it has pleased Providence to ordain; and in humbly and respectfully offering our congratulations to your Majesty on ascending the Throne of your Forefathers, we do so with the most profound feeling of loyalty and attachment. The experience of a long succession of years has well confirmed the benefits which were anticipated from the accession of the House of Brunswick to the Throne of England, and from your Majesty, connected in early life with a service which other countries in vain attempt to imitate, we feel that those benefits will still continue to increase. That the energies of our country will be exercised in maintaining the respect of foreign nations, and in securing the happiness and prosperity of our own.

We beg to assure your Majesty of our firm fidelity and steady loyalty, and earnestly pray that Almighty God may bless and protect your Majesty, and your illustrious Consort, and that your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free, happy and loyal people.

Thomas Williams, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Uxbridge.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Burgh and Parochial Schoolmasters of Scotland.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Burgh and Parochial Schoolmasters of Scotland, assembled in our twenty-fourth General Annual Meeting, humbly desire to approach the Throne with the expression of our sincere condolence on the lamented demise of our late most gracious and revered Sovereign George the Fourth, your Majesty's Brother, of glorious and blessed memory.

While we have to lament the loss of a Monarch, so respected and beloved, we rejoice to think that the Sceptre of these Realms has descended to a Member of the illustrious House of Hanover, so eminently qualified as your Majesty, to support the glory which our country has acquired under the paternal and benign sway of your Royal Ancestors.

Permit us to offer to your Majesty our sincere congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne, and to assure your Majesty of our loyal and devoted attachment to your Royal Person; and as the best return we can make for the many high and special privileges which we enjoy under your Majesty's enlightened and indulgent reign, we shall, to the utmost of our power, endeavour, by the faithful discharge of our public duties, to diffuse the blessings of a sound and liberal education, and to impress on the minds of the youth intrusted to our care the principles of religion and morality, and a firm and steady attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, at Edinburgh, the 17th of September, 1830 years, by Thomas Robertson, Preses.

[Transmitted by the Preses.]

War-Office, 26th October 1830.

13th Regiment of Light Dragoons, Assistant-Surgeon William Thomson, from the 26th Foot, to be Assistant-Surgeon, vice Shean, promoted in the 16th Foot. Dated 26th October 1830.

3d Regiment of Foot Guards, Edward Gage, Gent. to be Ensign and Lieutenant, by purchase, vice Booth, who retires. Dated 26th October 1830.

12th Regiment of Foot, Robert Meade, Gent. to be Ensign, by purchase, vice Pitcairn, promoted. Dated 26th October 1830.

15th Foot, Lieutenant Thomas Colman to be Captain, without purchase, vice Quill, promoted. Dated 26th October 1830.

16th Foot, Assistant-Surgeon Robert Shean, from the 13th Light Dragoons, to be Surgeon, vice Archibald Campbell Fraser, who retires upon half-pay. Dated 26th October 1830.

18th Foot, Assistant-Surgeon Daniel Owen Davies to be Surgeon, vice Lindsay, deceased. Dated 26th October 1830.

23d Foot, Second Lieutenant Scott Powell to be First Lieutenant, by purchase, vice Griffiths, appointed Paymaster. Dated 26th October 1830.

Harry George Chester, Gent. to be Second Lieutenant, by purchase, vice Powell. Dated 26th October 1830.

Lieutenant William Alford Griffiths to be Paymaster, vice Macdonald, deceased. Dated 26th October 1830.

26th Foot, Lieutenant Alexander Calder to be Cap-